HOW TO KILL THE CHURCH

Some Ways In Which Religious Life Can Be Impaired.

1. Don't Come.
2. If you do come, come late.
3. When you come, come with a grouch.
4. At service ask yourself, "What do I get out of this?"
5. Never accept office. It is better to stay outside to criticise.
6. Visit other churches about half of the time, to show pour pastor that you are not tied down to him.
7. Let the pastor earn his money; let him do all the work.
8. Sit pretty well back, and never sing. If you have to sing. sing out of tune and behind everpbody else.
9. Never pay in advance, especially for religion. Wait until you get your money's worth.
10. Never encourage the preacher; if you like a sermon, keep mum about it. Many a preacher has been ruined by flattery.
11. It is good to tell your pastor's fallings to any strangers who may happen in; they might be a long time finding them out.
12. Of course you can't be expected to get new members for the church with such a pastor as he is.
13. If your church unfortunately happens to be harmonious, call it apathy or indifference or lack of zeal, or anything under the sun except what it is.
14. If there happen to be a few zealous workers in the church, make a tremendous protest about the church being run by a clique

POSTOFFICE NOT TO BE MOVED

Co-operating with Chestertown People, Mr. Laurence Brown Secures.. Release From Contract To Erect New Building

Chestertown's Postoffice, centrally located and desirable in its present location by nearly all of its patrons, will be retain at its present site. This will be welcome news to neary all.

The decision regarding this subject has been awaited by the community for the past three months and was definitely settled on Monday when Postmaster John N. Bennett received notice from the Postoffice Department that a proposal from the owners of the Lyceum Theatre building had been accepted for renewal of lease of the same This result which is very gratifying to patrons of the office was accomplishel through the courtesy and public spiritedness of Mr. Laurence G. Brown of E. S. Adkins Co. who appreciating the wishes of the people of the community. asked to be released from his contract by the government, which request was granted.

Some time ago, the government asked for proposals for a new postoffice site and building. Mr. Brown came forward and prolosed to erect a building for the convenience of the public on a lot near the depot, oh Cross St.

The proposed removal of the Chestertown Postoffice met with considerable opposition from the people here, who held several meetings of protest and sent petitions to the government voicing the same sentiments. These officials took the position that the govment could not repudiate its contract but would reconsider its former action if requested by the other party of theagreement. When this was made clear to Mr. Brown he at once indicated his willingness to surrender his contract in deference to the sentiment of the community and addressed a letter to this effect to the Department.

With this letter in their possession, a delegation of Chestertown business men visited Washington last week, and received assurances that the Department wanted to give the people of Chestertown just what they wanted. The result is the retention of the office at its present location in the Lyceum Theatre building.

The quarters will be enlarged to take in the "Jones" shoe store room, and remodeed so as to afford ample accommodeled so as to agord ample accomthe office, and will be a credit to the town.

New Steamer On Chester.

Chester River now has a steamboat line as a link between this section and Baltimore. The steamer General Lincoln of the Bay Shore Brighton Excursion Co., made her first trip to Chestertown on Monday evening. She left here at 6 o'clock on Tuesday morning for Baltimore and will make three trips a week leaving Chestertown Tuesday, Thursdays and Saturdays at 6 a. m. and returning on Mondays, Wednesdays and Fridays, leaving Baltimore at 3.30 p. m.

Record Yield of Tomatoes

Mr. George R. Burke had a record yield of tomatoes from one acre at the Bramble Poutlry Farm in Queen Annes in spite of the unfavorable season. Mr. Burke sold over 700 baskets of tomatoes from the single acre to Messrs. C. W. Kibler & Sons at 22½ cents per basket.

Democratic Women To Meet

There will be a big mass meeting of the Democratic women of the Eastern Shore at the Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown at 2.30 p. m., today, Saturday. A number of prominent speakers will be present. After the speaking a tea will be held on the lawn of Mrs. W. W. Hubbard.

—A Chid Welfare Clinic will be held at the Health Centre, Chestertown, Oct. 15, from 10.30 a. m. to 3.00 p. m., for white; Oct. 16, 9 a. m. to 2 p. m., for colored.
