Democratic Ticket

For President of the United States
JOHN W. DAVIS

For Vice President
CHARLES W. BRYAN

For Congress
T. ALLEN GOLDSBOROUG

THE beautifully illustrated travelogue on the Far North, delivered by Dr. F. W. Johnson at Washington College Thursday evening, to which the public was invited is another example of what Washington College means to Kent County. These lectures together with the social and educational advantages enjoyed at the college by the local residents does much to make ours a better and broader community. In return for these many advantages we should work for Washington College and be proud of the fact that Chestertown is the only college town on the Eastern Shore.

HON T. ALEN GOLDSBOROUGH, candidate for congress from this district is growing more popular with the masses each year. His record in Congress during the past four years has been one that any man may well be proud of. He has been regular in attendance and has been faithful to his constituency, looking well to their interests and supplying their wants as best he can. Congressman Goldsborough is regarded as one of the most alert members of the House of Congress and one the most able debaters. His record is clean, and his principles of the brightest type. He deserves your confidence and your vote on November 4, and we believe his election is assured, because we cannot see any good reason why he should not be returned to Washington for further service of the people of this section and of the entire United States.

PEOPLES COLUMN

Messrs. Editors:

Surely you are to be congratulated on publishing the articles lately appearing in your paper relative to many things, beautiful and historical of which Kent should be justly proud. One is inclined to feel, however that the list is not quite complete without mentioning the part Still Pond Church plays in the history of early Methodism not Still Pond Church as it stands today, but in what it represents. In it represents the oldest continuous preaching place of organized Methodism on the Del-Mar-Via peninsula. At the time of the first Methodist Conference held in America in 1773 we find referring in Hurst's History of Methodism that Kent was the only circuit between the Delaware and the Chesapeake and Francis Asbury's Journal records first preaching in Kent in 1772 at John Randels. John Randel lived in the farm from which land was sold to build Still Pond Church. Records of the exact date of the building of the first Still Pond Church seem missing but it must have been about 1789 for Asbury reports preaching in Still Pond Church in 1788. These facts on the eve of the unveiling, in Washington of the momument to Francis Asbury, the pioneer Bishop of the United States should be of interest to all Kent Countians.

Sincerely, A Subscriber

Great Methodist Day

Your attention is earnestly directed to the statement which follows: Saturday, October 25th, all day, is your day at the farm of the Strawbridge Home for boys, fourteen miles from Baltimore on the mecadam road to Westminster. Since it is your day, you, your family, members of your church and friends, ought to share it. The Call is for an outpouring of all Methodists from every church of the wonderful occasion, nothing like it heretofore. An effort is being made to reach every member of every organization in every church of the Conference. You, therefore, can understand that many thousands of Methodists will be there.
