DEMOCRATIC Mass Meeting

The voters of Kent county are respectfully invited to assemble at Chestertown, on

Monday, Oct. 20

1924, at 7.30 p. m.

and hear the issues of the campaign discussed by such able speakers as

Hon. William B. Bankhead

Representative in Congress from Alabama, and one of the big men of the National Legislature.

Hon. T. Alan Goldsborough

Representative in Congress from the First Maryland District, and one of the younger members who is taking high rank in the Lower House—a candidate for re-election—AND OTHERS.

Persons of all political creeds are invited to be present and hear the vital issues of government discussed by men who know their subjects.

Ladies especially are invited.

DEMOCRATIC STATE CENTRAL COMMITTEE

THE Mass Meeting of the Democratic League of Woman Voters held in the Lyceum Theatre Saturday, Oct. 11, and the Democratic Mass meeting to be held at the same place, Monday Oct. 20, are the opening guns of political activity in Kent county, for the coming election. Following these meetings every democrat in Kent county should work collectively and individualy to kill the tendency toward indifference which so often prevails at presidential elections. They should feel proud of their candidates, John W. Davis, a man without reproach, a man of unusual executive ability, and one who has risen to his present position through his own efforts and ability, and not through political influence. Let us see that our neighbors and friends go to the poles Nov. 4, and vote the Democratic ticket. There is no reason that we know of why every Democrat should not vote for Congressman T. Allen Goldsborough; he is a representative to be proud of.
