Democratic Ticket

For President of the United States
JOHN W. DAVIS

For Vice President
CHARLES W. BRYAN

For Congress
T. ALLEN GOLDSBOROUG

AS THE DAY of Election draws nearer and nearer, it becomes more apparent to the general reader and observer that the Democratic candidates are making steady gains with the people of the country. The present administration has no convincing issue to present to the voters. They can give no satisfactory explanation of the many disgraceful things that have occured at Washington to the absolute disgust of the people.

THE VOTERS in this Congressional District are so well satisfied with the Hon. T. Alan Goldsboro as our Congressional representative that in our opinion there is no question of his election by a handsome majority if the Democratic voters will go to the polls on Nov. 4 and cast their ballot, but unless they do this there is grave danger of his defeat. Voters don't forget that the Hon. Jesse Price was defeated six years ago for Congress because the Democratic voters failed to go to the polls and cast their ballot. Don't let this happen this year. Mr. Goldsborough is a man that you should feel porud to vote for; clean, honest, aggressive and intelligent.

IT IS WITH much sorrow that we publish in this issue the death of our fellow citizen, Sidney P. Townshend. Mr. Townshend came to Chestertown about twenty years ago, a comparative stranger to our people, but by his courteous manner, honest dealing, large heartedness, generous and sympathetic nature, he soon won a place in the confidence of our people. By his faithful and conscientious attention to the duties of his profession, he enjoyed a large clientage in this and adjoining counties, the strain of which, weakened his constitution and overtaxed his mind and finally caused him to end the activities of his life. To Sidney P. Townshend, whose voice and heartthrobs are silenced forever, we pay our profound respect.

WE, BEING of a rural community, know little of the intricate workings of a Presidential administration, but we do know how an administration affects the welfare of our community. We know that the cost of farming implements and other materials, necessary to produce our crops are in many cases 100 per cent. above normal ,this is said to be due to the high cost of material; if this be true, and the high cost of material, necessary to produce the food for our nation, is not due to the High Tariff Wall, which is at present surrounding our country, protecting our manufacturers and preventing outside competition, then why can't our farmers add the increase cost of raw material and labor to the selling price of their crops. If this high cost of material is due to the Tariff which protects our manufacturers above all other classes and allows them to charge most any price for their goods, then it is time for a change.

ROUSING MEETING.

Congressman Goldsboro and Congressman Bankhead Score Republican Party For Foreign and Domestic Policies.

The Democrats of Kent County and adjoining sections of Queen Anne's gathered at the Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, on Monday evening, in a rousing political meeting, which both politicians and civilians from many places heard the issues of the campaign discussed.

Mr. Robert Moffett, Chairman of the State Central Committee, introduced Senator W. B. Copper who presided over the meeting in a most capable manner.

Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough was the first speaker of the evening. Congressman Goldsborough is well and favorably known here, not only because of his capable representation of this district in the lower house of Congress, but also because of a genial personality, which draws many to him. After paying a just and lengthly tribute to the late and lamented President Wilson, he scathingly rebuked the Republicans for inefficiency in office and for corruption in regard to the nation's reserves. His speech brought forth frequent outbursts of applause from an appreciative audience as his arrows found their marks.

Senator Copper then introduced Congressman Wm. B. Bankhead of Alabama after welcoming him to Kent County. Congressman Bankhead proceeded at once to attack the Republican party with every weapon at his disposal, charging them with incompetency in regard to both domestic and foreign affairs. His chief target was the tariff, which he stated was a barrier to progress and prosperity and concluded his address by paying a fitting tribute to the farmer, using an alabamian agriculturist as an example.

The meeting was largly attended and was most successful from every standpoint.

State vs. Geo. W. Barrett, presented for carrying concealed weapons. S. S. Beck for State; W. F. Russell, Jr., for Barrett. Verdict guilty and prisoner fined $50 and costs.

S. S. Beck, Esq., moved for the admission to bar of Wm. M. Hardy and Geo. M. Brady, Esq., which was granted.

State vs. James Brown, presented for larceny. Verdict not guilty. S. S. Beck for State; H. W. Vickers for Brown.

State vs. Leander Ruley, presented for non-support. Verdict not guilty. S. S. Beck for state; H. W. Vickers for Ruley.

J. Sudler Cockey vs. T. Cecil Downs, removed from Queen Annes Co. Verdict for Downs and others, executors.

State vs. John Barrett, presented for larceny. Trial not concluded. S. S. Beck for State; J. W. Barroll for Barrett.

June 12, 1924.

My dear Congressman:

I thank you for sending me a copy of your address given as an extension of the remarks of Hon. Eugene Black. I have read the same with much interest,and I think discussions of this kind are bound to bring results.

The many things that have happened in the last three years have been appalling and the losses and sacrifices that have been sustained ought to be appealing to everybody for thoughtful consideration of the great problems that are before us.

Your speech is indeed enlightening. It gives much that I can subscribe to and I am pleased to see that you are giving so much of your time and thought to the great problems. I hope if you should have anything in the future along these lines I may be given a copy.

Assuring you of my appreciation, and again thanking you, I am

Very truly yours,
