Democratic Ticket

For President of the United States
JOHN W. DAVIS

For Vice President
CHARLES W. BRYAN

For Congress
T. ALLEN GOLDSBOROUG

IF Maryland does not give the Democrats a safe majority on Tuesday next it will be because the Democratic voters fail to go to the polls on Tuesday, Nov. 4, and vote.

TO THE DEMOCRATS OF KENT COUNTY

We wish to urge upon the Democratic voters of this County and state the importance of going to the polls on Tuesday next and vote. It will only be necessary to make two X marks to vote for every Democrat on the ticket. Put an X mark in the square opposite T. Alan Goldsborough and an X mark in the square opposite the names of Davis and Bryan and that will be all that is necessary to vote for every Democrat on the ballot. At the lower right hand corner of the ballot will be found two constitutional amendments the first one is an amendment to article 5 section 9, which relates to the State's Attorney of Baltimore City only and not to any of the county State's Attorneys This amendment has the endorsement of the Baltimore City administration and the Baltimore City legal bar, it is non-partisan and puts the State's Attorney of Baltimore on a stipulated salary, just as the State's Attorney of this and most of the other counties if the state are and as it relates only to Baltimore City and as the citizens and tax payers of that city want it we feel that the voters or this county should vote for this amendment and thus relieve Baltimore City of the burden of the fee system that they want to get rid of.

The Amendment to Article 3, Section 34 relates to the soldiers' Bonus. This Amendment if passed will give to the Legislature the power to pass a Bonus bill to compensate the soldiers of this state who did honor to their country during the world war, many of whom are badly in need of it. We hope every reader of this paper will vote for this amendment and thus aid in giving to those soldier boys who want it, the compensation they so richly deserve.

Address Before Students

In an able address delivered before the faculty and students of Washington College last Thursday morning Alan Johnstone, Esq., Director of the Baltimore Criminal Justice Commission, traced the history of criminal law from its early English origins to the present day. He stressed thefact that although we have advanced considerably in our methods of transportation; in our facilities for the rapid exchange of ideas the world over and in all other aspects of an increased standard of living, we nevertheless use substantially the same system of criminal law as was in operation during the days of King John of England. Mr. Johnstone who is a legal scholar of note, made an especial plea for the passage of the amendment to the State Constitution which proposes to abolish the antiquated fee system in the State's Attorney's office of Baltimore City. This amendment will be voted upon by the people of Maryland next Tuesday and it is hoped by the leaders of both major parties in Maryland that it will be passed upon favorably at the poles. Mr. Johnstone's address was replete with statistics and valuable information concerning the operation of modern criminal legal practice.

GOVERNOR RITCHIE
and
Other Distinguished Citizens
(Both Democratic and Republican)
Urge the Voters of the Entire State to Approve the Proposed Constitutional Amendment Pertaining to the STATE'S ATTORNEY'S OFFICE for BALTIMORE CITY.

I earnestly hope that the proposed Constitutional Amendment, readjusting the financial system of the office of State's Attorney for Baltimore City, will be approved by the voters on November 4th. This proposed amendment, among other things, does away with the fee system, which necessitates the duplication of indictments, with the increased cost which results therefrom, and is otherwise wasteful and undesirable. The salary increases provided for are small when the vast increase in the amount of work which this office does is considered, and the requirement that the State's Attorney's office expenses must be approved by the Supreme Bench is a very proper check and all that is necessary. I sincerely hope that the people of Maryland, regardless of party, will give their support to this measure.

(Democratic) Governor

I endorse the movement for the adoption of the proposed Constitutional Amendment readjusting the financial system of the State's Attorney's office of Baltimore City, and believe that after careful consideration of the Amendment by the voters of the State, they will feel justified in giving it their support.

(Republican) Former Governor

I trust that the proposed amendment to Sec. 9 of Article V of the Constitution of the State of Maryland, relating to the State's Attorney for Baltimore City will be ratified by the voters of the State at the coming election.

(Democratic) U. S. Senator

I heartily endorse the proposed amendment to the Constitution to place the office of the State's Attorney of Baltimore City on a budget basis. The entire expense of the office under the plan will be borne by Baltimore City.

The amendment will be voted on at the coming election and I trust that it will commend itself to the voters of all parties.

(Republican) U. S. Senator

The fee system, under which the State's Attorney's office is compelled to work, is ancient, awkward and expensive. It is the application of ox cart methods in a day of automobiles. In the interest of efficiency and good government such a system ought not to prevail. A vote for the Amendment will cost the Counties nothing.

(Democratic) Former State's Attorney

During my terms of eight years in the State's Attorney's office, I had occasion to see the inherent dangers attendant upon the operation of the fee system in that most important Department of our Government. Such a system, as now prevails, is a relic of the past and has no place in an up-to-date community. I am most firmly of the belief that this proposed amendment is a worthy one and should command the support of voters regardless of party affiliations. The salary increases provided for are small when the great responsibilities assumed by the men in this office are considered.

FOR CONGRESS

T. ALAN GOLDSBOROUGH

Member of Congress and Candidate for Re-election.

Letters received by Mr. Goldsborough from the Governor of the Federal Reserve Board and a member of the Federal Reserve Board, both appointees of the present administration, Mr. Crissinger being formerly Comptroller of the Currency.

FEDERAL RESERVE BOARD
WASHINGTON

June 12, 1924.

My dear Congressman:

I thank you for sending me a copy of your address given as an extension of the remarks of Hon. Eugene Black. I have read the same with much interest, and I think discussions of this kind are bound to bring results.

The many things that have happened in the last three years have been appalling and the losses and sacrifices that have been sustained ought to be appealing to everybody for thoughtful consideration of the great problems that are before us.

Your speech is indeed enlightening. It gives much that I can subscribe to and I am pleased to see that you are giving so much of your time and thought to the great problems. I hope if you should have anything in the future along these lines I may be given a copy.

Assuring you of my appreciation, and again thanking you, I am

Very truly yours,
D. R. Crissinger,
Governor.

Hon. T. Alan Goldsborough,
House of Representatives,
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Goldsborough:

Your courtesy in giving me the opportunity and privilege of reading your address, "Stabilization of Money", is indeed very much appreciated.

The soundness of your logic seems to me unquestionable, and I feel that your colleague, Mr. Black, of Texas, rendered a real service in having this address made a part of the records of the House.

Hoping that some time in the near future I may have the pleasure of meeting you personally, I am,

Yours very truly,
Geo. R. James,

The speech referred to was delivered by Mr. Goldsborough before the Maryland Bankers Association on May 14th last, and is being mailed by Mr. Goldsborough to his constituents.
