FIREMEN HOLD MEETING

Visitors and Local Men Hold Joint Meeting and Discuss Problems.

Local firemen met with firemen of other towns on Monday evening at Firemens Hall in a meeting which was productive of good results. Firemen from Easton, Denton, Centreville, Middletown and Millington were present.

President William G. Smyth, of the Chestertown Volunteer Company presided and upon suspension of regular business, in a few well chosen remarks extended a warm welcome to the visiting delegations, to which responses by the chiefs or presidents of companies of the various towns represented followed.

Following the talks an open discussion as to how these companies may when called upon, be best prepared to render the most efficient aid, the out come of which resulted in an agreement whereby these companies will secure, couplings or adapters, that will be interchangable, thus enabling the fire forces of the various towns, to couple up with each other, either at the plug or combine in relaying from one apparatus to another, thus ensuring the carrying of water to great distances.

Another phase of the fire fighting game, and which oftimes entails the loss of much valuable time and expense, considered, was that of fake calls, or calls made by other than authorized parties. It was decided that no call should be considered or recognized unless coming from the chief, or acting chief or some person designated to make such calls for aid.

A committee composed of Pres. Wm. G. Smyth, chairman, and Chiefs Jones, of Middletown, Wallace, of Easton, Tobin, of Millington, Shank of Centreville, and Roe, of Denton, appointed to ascertain the couplings or adapters needed to make the interchange possible, after a thorough examination of couplings used by the various companies, appointed a sub-committee composed of Messrs. Shank, of Centreville and Crumbine, of Easton, to secure the requisite number to equip each company, the several organizations to bear their proportion of the expense.

An oyster roast was held at Gill Bros Ice Cream Factory after the meeting.

Wedding Shower in Kennedyville

On last Wednesday evening, there was a party and a variety shower held in Kennedyville at the home of Mrs. Glenn in honor of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller. The evening was spent in games and music.

About ten o'clock the guests were invited out to the refresment table. The table was beautifully decorated with flowers and crepe paper, the color scheme being pink and white. The bride and groom's chairs were also trimmed for the occasion in pink. The presents were all useful and very pretty.

Those present were: Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Miller, (bride and groom,) Mr. and Mrs. Hill Beasten, (Brides parents, Misses Edna and Bertha Beasten, Miss Carrie Lipscomb, Misses Margaret Kennedy, Gladys Archibald, Catherine Urie, Anna Wiltbank, Evelyn Spencer, Dorothy Pennington, Mattie Clark, Mary Robinson, Estella Jarvis, Ruth Newton, Anna Rasin; Messrs. Albert Newton, William Newton, Vernon Fowler, Russell Fowler, Norman Pennington, Forster Lee, Marion Sutton, Henry Clark, Charles Clark, Walter Wiltbank, Ross Wiltbank, Jas. Lusby, Edward Caldwell, Richard George, Albert Beasten, Melvin Jarvis.

WASHINGTON COLLEGE

The regular quarterly meeting of the Board of Visitors and Governors or Washington College which was postponed from the regular date of convening, will be held today at 1 o'clock in Willliam Smith Hall.

The several members of the board will be the guests of the college boarding club at dinner this noon.

Several matters of importance are to be discussed and several interesting developments will no doubt result from this meeting.

Dr. Paul E. Titsworth and Professor James W. Johns visited Greensboro on last Wednesday night. Several important business matters were discussed with Superintendent Noble of the Maryland Schools.

A very interesting program was given by the members of the Mount Vernon literary society on last Wednesday evening. The program consisted of a debate, clarinet solo, several impromtu speeches and a piano solo. The question debated was "Resolved that Co-education is beneficial to Washington College." The affirmative side, defended by Miss Crane and Earl Cullen gained the decision over Miss Touchton and Michael McAuliffe who upheld the negative. The judges were Miss Margaret Crew, James Von Brieson and J. Newell Chandler.

Mr. Frazier Russeli, an old member of the Mount Vernon will speak at the next meeting of the society, scheduled for next Wednesday evening. Mr. Russell has spoken at several former meeting of the society in the past and has always proven to be an interesting talker. No doubt he will have something worth hearing on his next appearance.

Washington College's leading paper, the "Collegian," made its appearance on the campus yesterday. It was a very good number and gives promise of providing the student body and subscribers with a snappy brand of material throughout the school yaer.

Millington Community Fire Company was called last Sunday morning about 7.30 to assist in extinguishing a fire, which destroyed the stables, shedding and barn on the farm of Captain James Woodall, near Georgetown, tenanted by James Davis. A call was first sent to the Chestertown Fire Department but being unable to locate their chief no apparatus was sent but a few firemen did respond with fire buckets. Middletown was next called but with only 750 ft. of hose could not reach the creek. Then Millington was called, so when the Millington apparatus arrived, the fire was well under way and beyond all hope of saving the buildings. Our boys laid out 1650 ft. of hose to the creek and soon had water playing on the fire. Water was lifted 35 to 40 feet from the creek ti the nozzle, where about 90 pounds pressure was maintained, power sufficient to displace the large stones in the foundations and move the heavy sills resting on them. They threw so much water on the ruins, that they had to move the suction pipe farther out in to the creek three times to keep the pipe below the water. All those present were well pleased with the performance of the Millington apparatus and some so well pleased that they were attracted back to the scene the second time after going home. We sure have some fire engine and the boys who can use it.
