A UNIQUE EVENT.

Golden Rule Dinner To Be Given On Nov. 13 At Washington College

The Golden Rule Dinner to be given at Washington College on November 13th will be one of the most unique event in the social, business, profession

The principal speaker will be Dr. Andrew M. Brodie, of Washington, D. C. Dr. Brodie has an interesting personality, has first hand information of the work he will represent, and is an enthusiastic speaker. The Director for Maryland, H. F. Pellegrin, will tell of the work as carried on in the Maryland Orphanages over there, and will show specimens of the handiwork of the children, as trained by the American workers.

All of the food for this banquet has been donated, as well as the room for the meeting. A bevy of the young ladies from the College and town have volunteered to act as waitresses; Bacon's orchestra will play, and a male quartette will sing.

Mr. Allen A. Harris, Treasurer, will be chairman, and will be assisted by Senator W. B. Copper, as toastmaster.

Invitations have been issued to folks from all parts of the county and it is hoped that all will respond promptly, so that the chairman for the dinner, Mrs. Minna A. Newcomb, of Chestertown, will know just how many to prepare for. Replies to the invitation are to be sent to Evelyn Harris, Betterton, Md.

Judge Lewin Wickes, Mr. and Mrs. W. W. Hubbard, Senator and Mrs. W. B. Copper, Dr. and Mrs. E. A. Scott, Dr. and Mrs. W. C. Selby, Mr and Mrs. Fred G. Usilton are patrons for the dinner. Mr. H. F. Jefferson has charge of the arrangements, and Washington College will help with the decorations.

The dinner will be an important eent in the social, business, professional and other circles in this town and county, representatives from all sections will attend. Yet the dinner will be, probably, the simplest ever given here. The dinner will be served at 7 p. m., in the College Gymnasium on tin plates, on bare tables, the coffee will be served in tin cups, made by the Near East Relief orphans from condensed milk cans. The only illumination will be from candles.

Simplicity, the feature of the meal, is to typify the plain life of the orphans under care of the Near East Relief for whom the dinner is given, as preliminary to Golden Rule Sunday, on December 7. On Golden Rule Sunday all sections of the United States, with twenty other nations, will sit at one common table. The object is to make a sacrificial offering for the orphans not just the difference between the plain orphanage dinner and the regular dinner on Golden Rule Sunday, but an offering that will mean real sacrifice on the part of the giver.

The Golden Rule dinner launch cooperation for Golden Rule Sunday, and the results from Golden Rule Sunday will be to help 110,000 orphans, under the Near East Relief and 100,00 ithers in the refugee camps, who will starve this winter, unless the Near East Relief feeds them and the Near East Relief can only do this, if this county will do its share.

GIFTS THAT ARE DIFFERENT

No doubt each year you have difficulty in planning what to give your friends at Christmas. Haven't you often wished for something different from the usual presents? Had you ever thought of the great variety of splendid brushes from which you could select? Brushes are economical, give excellent service and are a pride to their owner. Why not decide now to give brushes this Christmas?

Wouldn't Daughter or Sister delight in receiving a Fuller Hair Brush, made of white strong bristles and an ivory finished handle, with a Fuller Comb to match it? Why not please Son or Brother with a Fuller Clothes Brush in order that he may keep his own clothes neat at all times? Wouldn't your wife, or best girl, be grateful for your gift of a Fuller Manicure Tray with Manicure Brush? Why not a Fuller Friction Shower for your husband or father? These and many other Fuller Brushes are most excellent suggestions for Christmas gifts,—gifts which will be useful for years to come and at Christmas time they are sold in fancy holly boxes.

In the comfort of your own home you may select brushes for your Christmas gifts. The Fuller Man will be glad to assist you in picking appropriate sets which may be called to at any time. Ask to see the photographs of the Fuller personal brushes when the next Fuller man calls at your home.
