Armistice Day Celebrated

Armistice Day was fittingly observed in Chestertown Tuesday. Banks and public offices were closed, and the Stars and Stripes were unloosened to the breeze from many homes. The Frank Jarman Post of the American Legion together with Sheen's Cavalry and the Boy Scouts. held a demonstration in the public square. The exercise were opened with payer by Rev. T. J. Sard, after which Dr. Paul Emerson Titsworth president of Washington College, delivered an eloquent patriotic address. The Legion placed wreaths and flowers upon the graves of the soldiers who died in the late war.

An Unusual Accident

A most unusual accident occurred in Chestertown on Friday evening at the Voshell House corner. A large truck pulling a disabled truck while rounding the corner drew a pebble from the street, striking Mrs. Barnhart, of Millington, who was in the act of crossing the street, in the forehead, inflicting a deep gash. She was taken to the office of Dr. H. P. Copeland where the wound was dressed. Had the wound been a half inch lower it would have pierced Mrs. Barnhart's eye and probably resulted fatally. It was at first thought that she had been struck by a stray bullet fired from a alleyway.

WEDDINGS

Miss Olive Mae Voshell, youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Voshell, of Centreville, and Mr. William Matthews Blakeney, of Chestertown, surprised their relatives and many friends last week when they motored to Easton, Saturday afternoon and were married at the Methodist Episcopal Parsonage by Rev. R. C. Meeks at 5.30 p. m. Mr. and Mrs. Blakeney will make their home in Chestertown where the groom is engaged in the express business with his grandfather Mr. J. E. Matthews.

St. James Methodist Protestant Church was the scene last Tuesday afternoon at two o'clock of one of the prettiest weddings of the year when Miss Eunice Cornelia Morris, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur F. Morris, was married to Mr. George E. Cornell, Jr., by their former pastor Rev. Avery Donovan.

The pretty church was attractively decorated with crysantheums and autumn leaves and the bridal party entered to the strains of Lohengrin's wedding march played by Miss Anna Parsons. Mr. Frank Mason, cousin of the groom, sang "O, Promise Me."

The bride was given in marriage by her father Mr. Wilbur H. Morris. She was charmingly gowned in madelon rose, over rose chiffon, trimmed in steel cut beads and wore a black picture hat and carried a shower bouquet of brides roses and lilies of the valley.

Her only ornament was pearls. Mrs. Elmer Richardson, of Baltimore, sister of the bride, was matron of honor, and wore a gown of crushed strawberry trimmed with steel cut beads and carried orshid chrysantheums.

Mr. Albert Robinson of Washington, D. C., as best man and the ushers were Messrs. Harry H. Morris, brother of the bride, Irving Cornell, brother of the groom; Messrs T. Albert Newton, of Kennedyville and Wright Robinson of Templeville.

After the wedding a reception for the immediate families was held at the home of the bride, after which Mr. and Mrs. Cornell Jr., left amid showers of rice and good wishes for a motor trip in the West.

Her going away gown was of dark blue charmeen and wore a dark blue hat and veil. Mrs. Cornell for the past several years has been an efficient assistant book keeper in the Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md.

The bride and groom were the recipients of many handsome and valuable gifts which included cut glass, silver, gold, money, electric floor lamps, boudoir lamp, green mountain potatoes, apples, linen and many other useful gifts.

The out-of-town guests were: Mr. and Mrs. Avery Donovan, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Mason, Mr. and Mrs. T. Mason and son, Mr. and Mrs. Vance Mitchell and son, of Delaware.

Mr. Albert Robinson, Mr. Ray Robinson and Mrs. John Robinson, of Washington, D. C.

Mrs. Grover Moore, Mr. Elmer Skirven, Mrs. G. Amos Wickes. Miss Margaret Wickes, Mr. Garden Wickes, Mrs. Milton Sorden, Mrs. E. L. Richardson and Miss Margaret Ann Richardson of Baltimore.

Kent Chapter D. A. R. Meets

An enthusiastic meeting of Old Kent Chapter, D. A. R., was held Saturday at the home of the Regent, Mrs. Wm. G. Smyth, the occasion being the annual visit of the Capt. Jeremiah Baker Chapter, of Cecil county, with Mrs. H. Benge Simmons as the Regent.

The guests of honor were, Mrs. David M. Garrison, of Annapolis. State Regent Mrs. Matthew Gault, of the Mordecia, Gist Chapter, of Baltimore, Mrs. H. H. Kleinfelter, of the John Eager Howard Chapter, of Baltimore, and Mrs. Levi Clough, of the Samuel Turbitt Wright Chapter of Queen Anne County.

Mrs. Smyth of Old Kent presided and made an address of welcome. Responses were made by Mrs. Simmons, Mrs. Klinefelter and Mrs. Geo. W. Davenport, of Easton, for Old Kent.

Mrs. Garrison and Mrs. Gault spoke in explanation of the State Program of work, and Miss Sarah E. Stuart, State Chairman, of Phillippine Scholarship Endowment Fund, made an appeal to the six chapters represented.

Luncheon was served to about forty guests and members.

Golden Rule Dinner A Success

While a somewhat smaller crowd than the occasion justified was present, the Golden Rule Dinner, in the interest of Near East Relief, at Washington College, was a success. Mr. A. A. Harris acted as chairman of the affair, which opened with prayer by Rev. Mr. Sheen. Senator W. B. Copper, toastmaster, explained the object of the meeting in a most practical manner. The dinner was in charge of Mrs. Ellsworth Newcomb. Moving pictures, showing the pitiful condition of Near East childern, were shown by Mr. H. F. Rellegim, State Director. Dr. R. H. Linville, of Baltimore,made an address upon Near East conditions. The worthy movement was presented to the public most thoroughly.

—Henry Lloyd and James Lloyd, who sometime ago eluded the local officers, were taken in Camden, N. J., on Thursday by Kent's Deputy Sheriff and brought back to Kent. They were wanted for larceny.
