A TALK WITH A CHESTERTOWN MAN

Mr. Newton Tells Something of Interest to Chestertown Folks

There's nothing more convincing than the statement of someone you know and have confidence in. That's why this talk with Mr. Newton of S. College Ave. should be mighty helpful in Chestertown.

Elmer Newton, tailor, 113 S. College Ave., says: "I have used Doan's Pills several times when my kidneys were disordered and they have always cleared up the trouble. If I took cold, it always settled on my kidneys and caused me to have backaches that interferred with my work. I also had frequent headaches and my kidneys acted irregularly. I used Doan's Pills from Sterling's Pharmacy and they strengthened my back and kidneys."

Price 60c, at all dealers. Don't simply ask for a kidney remedy—get Doan's Pills—the same that Mr. Newton had. Foster-Milburn Co., Mfrs., Buffalo, N. Y.

Washington Terminates Successful Football Season With Crushing Victory Over Schuylkill, Basketball- Season Begins Dec. 12, Kelly Is 1925 Captain, Other Sporting Notes.

Washington College terminated a most successful football season on Saturday afternoon on Washington field, before a small crowd, with an overwhelming victory over Schuylkill College of Pennsylvania. Score 40 to 0.

The day was almost a duplicate of the Saturday previous when Washington and Western Maryland wallowed through a sea of mud and water and snow to a 12-12 tie, except that the snow was missing from the drama.

Rain began falling the night previous threatening at times to reach the proportions of a cloudburst, and be sunrise had not abated with prospects good for a lengthly continuation of the same. The result was that at the period set for the game the gridiron was wet and soggy, with parts a regular sea of mud, which made it impossible almost for either team to do effective work. The players frequently slid to the earth when the prospects were bright for a score or a good gain, but, never daunted, they kept up with determined effort to accomplish results under most difficult conditions.

Washington went at its work from the very kickoff, confident that they would overwhelm their opponents. and this supreme optimism was evident even among the spectators. The writer predicted a 50-0 score, which was ten points more than the outcome. Had the day been one fit for anything except ducks or crew work, our prediction would have probably been about 25 points too small.

Schuylkill received the kickoff, and were literally smothered by the avalache of Maron and Black which plowed through the mud and the opposing line to hurl them to the sodden sward. Again and again the plucky team plunged into the confident Washington line, only to be stopped in their tracks. Compelled to kick, Schuylkill went on the offensive, and Washington began to nammer them to pieces for their first touchdown. Dumschott, Negri, Galvin and Cavanaugh had taken the ball in succession and seldom failed to gain. It looked easy sailing for Washington. Washington again received the ball, and again, with Dumschott leading, Washington's backfield made fearful assaults on the Schuylkill line, at times leaving half the team sprawling on the soaked field as they made their way for the second touchdown. Schuylkill was resisting nobly, doing all that could be expected of an inferior team, but Coach Kibler's boys were out there on a rampage, and it would have taken a better team than the State of Maryland possess to have checked them as they hurtled through for repeated gains and almost at will. The first quarter ended with Washington having a 12 to 0 lead, Cavanaugh failing at both attempts at goal because of the sodden condition of the ball.

If the first quarter was a runaway, then the second was an annihilation, Washington gaining almost at will, and many substitutes going into Washington's line from the second string men, thus giving them their chance for a letter. In this quarter Carroll, after a triple pass had completely fooled the visitors, made a 70 yard run for a touchdown. In this quarter Cavanaugh kicked one goal and Reiger received a forward pass for the extra point, which made the score stand 26 to 0 in Washington's favor. Schuylkill had been completely outplayed, but had stuck manfully to their task against a far superior and more experienced eleven.

The second half began with Washington easing up somewhat and not trying to really run roughshod over the visitors. This was evident to the writer. They knew they had a safe lead, and could increase same almost at will. Consequently, it seemed they were content to go along somewhat easier. Then, too, the Schuylkill team was playing harder, and although unable to gain, were tackling harder. Toward the close of the quarter, Washington backs began to hit the line harder resulting in another touchdown before the quarter closed, Cavanaugh kicking the goal.

The quarters had been shortened during the second half, which was instrumental in keeping down the score somewhat, but with the opening of the final period Washington again began to hammer relentlessly at the battered Schuylkill line, Dumschott leading the attack, with Negri, Galvin and Cavanaugh each ploughing through almost unhindered at times by the puny defense which Schuylkill, being almost exhausted was throwing into their path. Another touchdown soon rewarded Washington's efforts, again Cavanaugh was successful with a dropkick. The half ended to the satisfaction of both players and spectators, with the teams wallowing in the mud of the baseball diamond.

During the entire game Schuylkill made but one first down and this was the result of a five-yard penalty, which was the only penalty of the game. It was perhaps the cleanest game ever played on Washington Field.

The lineup and summary of the game were as follows:

| Washington (40). | | Schuylkill (0) |
|---|---|---|
| Reiger | L.E. | Zeigler |
| Smoot | L.T. | Smith |
| Adkins | L.G. | T. Bolman |

Score by periods—
Washington .....12 14 7 7-40

Substitutions—Washington, Soifer for Jarman, Bankert for Reiger, McGran for Cavanaugh, Norris for Galvin, Von Bries for Negri, Pratt for Adkins, Adkins for Pratt, Lovesky for Adkins; Schuylkill, Hearst for Frederick, Millin for Wolfe. Touchdowns—Negri (2), Dumschott (2), Carroll, Galvin. Referee—Keyes, Lehigh. Umpire—Schmidt, Johns Hopkins. Head linesman—Atwater, Hobart. Time of periods—12, 10, 12, 10 minutes

On Saturday night, Michael F. Kelley of Waterbury, Conn., who for three years has served well on the Washington College football team at center, was elected captain of the football team for next season. Kelly is a good player and a good leader. He will make a good man for the position.

Yale defeated Harvard 19 to 6 Saturday, thus winning the championship of the Big Three. Yale has now had this honor two years in succession. Harvard made two dropkicks in the first half of the game, but Yale smothered them in the second half, making three touchdowns.

Notre Dame probably has the best football team in the country. They have gone through the entire season undefeated, and they have not been "particular" who their opponents were either. In summing up the championship of the year, we doubt if the critics can get past Notre Dame. They came East and rode roughshod over Princeton and the Army, and then went back home and did likewise throughout the Middle West.

The Army-Navy football game will take place in Baltimore today, Saturday. Many from Chestertown have tickets to the annual gridiron classic. The Army will doubtless win by a fairly good margin. This game will draw the curtain on the 1924 football season.

The 1924-1925 basketball season at Washington College will begin on December 13, with the Grace M. E. Church, Wilmington, being their opponents. This church team is always a good one. They came here some years ago and put up a real game for the home team. Coach Kibler will again have a most superior basketball team. Carrington will not be back, but Bankert will probably take his place in the lineup. Washington's great forwards, Carroll and Dumschott, the sturdy Fiore, who was a tower of offensive and defensive strength last year, and the skillful and clever McGran, will constitute Washington's regular five, which will doubtless be one of the greatest ever seen on the local floor. A great schedule of 22 games has been arranged and will appear in this paper shortly. The basketball season of Washington College is always one of the big events in the athletic pleasures of the year. The games draw good because Washington College, year after year, has one of the best teams in the country. This year will prove no exception.

Washington College has had a most successful season on the football field this year. They have played nine games, losing three, tying one and winning five. They lost to University of Maryland, Catholic University and Albright on a decided fluke, tying with Western Maryland on a wet field, and winning from Penn. Military College, U. S. Naval Acadamy Plebes, Haverford College, Mt. St. Mary's and Schuylkill. Washington's team should be rated the second best team of the state. Cavanaugh, Keenan and Kelly should be on any mythical all-state eleven compiled.

One of the annual sporting events at Washington College is the annual Sophomore-Freshman football game, which always follows the close of the regular football season. The game is always hard fought, and furnishes many thrills for players and spectators. Last year three games were played before a verdict was secured. The game this year occurred on Monday afternoon, and certainly furnished plenty of thrills on a good field for the game. The players of both Freshmen, wearing white sweaters, and Sophomores, wearing Maroon sweaters, showed both knowledge of the game, fearlessness in its execution and willingness to go the limit to win the victory. The Sophomores had as coach the Washington College star quarterback, Cavanaugh, who will doubtless be picked for the All-Maryland eleven, while the Freshmen were coached by McGran, the skillful center on Washington's great basketball aggregation. The Freshmen won an overwhelming victory in the last quarter, when they scored four touchdowns. The final verdict was Freshmen 28; Sophomores 6.

The Freshmen, at the very outset of the game showed marked superiority in playing and began to menace the goal line of the Maroon team as soon as the game opened. With Norris and Van Breezing carrying the ball the Freshmen carried the ball to the shadow of the Sophomore posts before being held. Then, standing back of their own goal line, the Sophomores attempted to kick out, but the ball was fumbled, they, however, securing the same, and attempting to run it back onto the gridiron. In this they failed and the Freshmen secured a safety, making them two to 0. The Freshmen continued their hammering, but the ball swayed back and forth upon the field during this period.

In the second quarter the Sophomores outplayed the Freshmen, advancing the ball more consistently, but not becoming a dangerous contender for a score. After fighting it out in Sophomore territory for several minutes during the latter part of this period, the Freshmen attempted a forward pass, which was intercepted by Bosserman, who made a magnificent run through many of the Freshmen and was never halted until he had scored a touchdown, but a failure was made at the extra goal for one point. At the end of the half the Sophomores were leading 6 to 2.

The third quarter found the Sophomores filled with confidence because of their 6-2 lead, and they outplayed the Freshmen for the better part of the third period, when it was predicted that the game would end with the score standing 6-2 in favor of the older men. But toward the last of the quarter a fumble by the Sophomores gave the Freshmen the opportunity for which they had been playing and they were quick to seize it. They lined up on the Sophomores 20 yard line. The quarter ended with the ball in the Freshmen's possession on the Sophomores 20-yard line.

Then the most unexpected stampede occurred that we have seen in 30 years of football. With the ball in their possession, on the Sophomores 20-yard line, the eager Freshmen hurled an avalanche of plays at the Sophomores which completely baffled them, and in a few seconds they lined up on the Sophomores 10-yard line. Then the Freshmen uncorked what appeared to be a combination of Washington's famous triple pass and the famous Carlyle shift, which culminated with Norris having possession of the ball, the Sophomores being completely baffled and Norris dashing for the Freshmen's first touchdown. A taste of Sophomore gore made the Freshmen eager for more of it, and they tore into their opponents like a team possessed, completely routing them. Everything went. The Freshmen caught forward passes, picked up loose balls, made end runs and completed forward passes, and when the shades of evening had drawn the sable mantel upon Washington Field, the Freshmen had scored a total of four touchdowns, kicked two goals and made one safety. It was a great victory plucked from the Sophomores at a time when they appeared to be on the road to a hard won game. The cheering squads of the two teams stuck manfully to their work and encouraged their favorites greatly. It was a great victory for the Freshmen.

The outstanding stars of the game were perhaps Norris and Van Breezing for the Freshmen and Bosserman for the Sophomores.
