Juvenile Accidents

While in Washington recently on a visit, the nine-year-old grand-daughter of Mr. Charles Wright, of Quaker Neck, had one of her feet run over by an auto and crushed badly.

Young Dan Ingersoll, son of Mr. and Mrs. D. W. Ingersoll, of Quaker Neck, broke his arm while playing at the Chestertown School the other day. Dr. H. G. Simpers set the fracture.

The grandson of Mr. Wm. T. Duyer, of Chestertown, and son of Mr. Albert Duyer, formerly of Chestertown, now of Baltimore, was recently run over by a auto and painfully injured.

Car Upsets On State Road.

Albert Sparks had a narrow escape from serious injury while driving to Chestertown Wednesday evening in his automobile. In rounding the sharp turn at the farm of James T. Dixon, near town, Mr. Sparks endeavored to steer his car out of the path of another car coming in the opposite direction and ran his machine into a pile of stone on the roadside, which caused it to turn over. He was badly cut and bruised about the head and body, but was not seriously injured. Dr. Harry G. Simpers who happened along just after the injury, picked up the wounded man and took him to his office, dressed his wounds and then took him to his home near McGinnis' Corner in Queen Anne. The car was badly damaged.
