AN ERONRIOUS STATEMENT.

It has come to my attention that reports have been spread from Morgnec that I used two Gobblers of local breeding in raising my large flock of turkeys this season. This report is positively not true.

I used one pure bred pedigreed Tom purchased from Bird Bros., of Myersdale, Pa., acknowledged by poultry experts to be breeders of the finest turkeys in the U. S.

CHRISTMAS

Christmas Children wake and listen,
Songs are breaking o'er the earth,
While the stars of heaven glisten,
Hear the news of Jesus' birth.
Long ago to lonely meadows,
Angles brought the message down,
Still each year thro' midnieht shadows,
It is heard in every town.
What is this that they are telling,
Singing in the quiet street;
While their voices high are swelling,
What sweet word do they repeat?
Words that bring us greater gladness
Though our hearts from care are free
Words to chase away our sadness,
Cheerless though our heart may be.
Christ has left his throne of glory,
And a lowly cradle found;
Well might angels tell the story,
Well may we their words resound.
What would the years be were
Christmas left out of its calendar

Christmas with the getting ready and the buying of presents for our loved ones, Christmas with its holly and mistletoe, and meeting of families and friends. Christmas with the joy of children as they open their stockings and gather around the Christmas tree Christmas with the song of angels and the glad news that Christ is born with ts carols and chimes.

It would be a very dull drab year without this radiant season to shed its light over all.

How our steps quicken as we keep step with the merry throng and our purse strings are unloosed. Even the very Scrooge's find that fellowship and giving makes our hearts big and warm, so we say with all the rest, "Thank God for Christmas."

CHRISTMAS SEAL HAS EDUCATIONAL APPEAL.

The Tuberculosis Christmas Seal of 1924 is a departure from the usual type of design used in the past.

While the Christmas idea has not been neglected, the predominating feature of the Seal is the Health and Educational appeal. The design of Knowledege enlightening the world, resting her hand upon the shield of the Double Barred Cross, is a happy symbol of the defense being made, and the preventative activities being carried on against the enemy Tuberculosis.

The Maryland Tuberculosis Association and its County Branches are now conducting their seventeenth annual Tuberculosis Christmas Seal Campaign.

The funds obtained from the sale of the little Christmas Seals, which sell for one penny each, finance the various activities of the State and County Associations. Briefy, they consist of the following:

The Children's Preventorium
Modern Health Crusade
Medical Consultant Service
Industrial Work
Educational and Publicity

Your purchase of the Tuberculosis Christmas Seals makes this work possible.

DEATHS

Mr. William Lee, one of Kent's most highly respected citizens, of near Chestertown, died on Wednesday, Dec. 17, aged 67 years. He leaves a wife, Mrs Florence V. Lee and the following sons, John T., Sewell, Jr., Norman S., James H., William Albert, and Robert Edward. Also two sisters, Mrs. Mary Wheat and Mrs. Sarah Stewart, of Oklahoma.

The funeral will be from his late home at 11 a. m., today, conducted by Rev. N. O. Gibson, interment at St. Pauls Cemetery. The bearers will be Frank Crow, Howard Clendaniel, Clarence Kelley, Walter Barnes, William Whitely and Wm. Lamb. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Miss Maria Parsons, formerly of Kent Co., died in Baltimore hospital December 12th aged 66 years. She leaves one brother George Parsons, of Penna and one sister, Mrs. Sophia Breece, of Pennsylvania. Funeral was held at St. James Church, Kent Co., on Monday morning at 11 a. m., Revs. Mr. Simms, pastor of St. James, and J. L. Ward, of Baltimore officiating. The pall bearers were Dr. Frank Hines, James G. Beck, C. Romie Skirven, Harry C. Willis, Chaplain and Gale Willis; interment in Chester Cemetery; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Outbuildings Destroyed.

The barn, stable and fodder rick on the farm of Mrs. Crossley, tenanted by Robert R. Walbert, was destroyed by fire early Friday morning, together with a number of implements and feed for his stock. The fire started in the hay loft over the barn. The origen of the fire is unknown. Mr. George French had $700 insurance on the buildings destroyed.

Turkeys Yield Large Sum of Mo.

The turkey buyers in this cou bought this week approximately tons of turkeys, the price ranging f 40 cents to 45 cents per pound. T an average of 42½ cents per pound 31 tons would mean $29,512.00 whic the buyers paid in cash to the turkey growers to say nothing of those sold to other dealers and to private parties.

Postoffice Work Progressing.

Work on Chestertown's Postoffice is progressing nicely, under the direction of Mr. A. M. Culp. The front of the annex has been nearly completed and is most attractive. During the Christmas rush it is being used to great dvantage in handling the great quantities of mail which are coming in. When completed Chestertown will have a most desirable and convenient postoffice.

Mr. L. Harris Crew has been asked by the Flordia East Coast Hotel Co., of N. Y., to return to the Casa Marina Hotel at Key West this winter, to fill the position of day cashier. This is one of the largest and the most modern hotels in Florida, costing around two million dollars.

Mrs. Dr. Gardner, of Baltimore, has been the guest this week of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. B. Usilton, of Chestertown, and Mr. and Mrs. Edward Loud of near Worton.
