"WHO-SO-EVER-WILL."

Messrs. Editors of Transcript:

The Business Men's Association having asked me to be the leader of the community singing on the evening of Xmas Eve., has also granted me permission to make a statement through the county papers.

Chestertown is a community of many organizations and many cliques. So often we lose both the pleasure and profit that accrue from affairs of a community nature because we seem more anxious to "claim credit" for the success of our achievements through organizations and cliques, rather than through striving for the highest and best because of an unselfish interest in and love for, our community.

In my opinion a leader of singing upon such an occasion as we hope this to be, is in a great measure merely a figure-head. No distinction has been made in the selection of voice; this is to be a voluntary, community affair. It is the sincere hope of all those responsible for the success of the Xmas plans, that the entire community, both the town and rural community, (for without the rural community Chestertown could not exist as a business center) the old and the young, shall feel a real interest and a corresponding desire to aid in the singing.

If in the churches and schools throughout the county the familiar Xmas carols could be rehearsed, this would contribute greatly toward the success of the singing. These carols we hope to have printed and passed among the persons gathered in the square, so all may have the words. We belong to different churches, we adhere to various creeds, but we all worship the same Redeemer, and the Babe of Bethlehem was a gift to all mankind. If upon this Xmas eve all persons in our little town will forget differences of church and creed and join for a half hour in a genuine community spirit of worshipful singing I'm sure we shall go far toward pleasing the Master, Himself. Again I say this is to be truly a community occasion, with no credit due any organization, clique or individual.

With all reverence and humility—I use these words—"Who-so-ever-will."

GIFTS THAT ARE DIFFERENT

No doubt each year you have difficulty in planning what to give your friends at Christmas. Haven't you often wished for something different from the usual presents? Had you ever thought of the great variety of splendid brushes from which you could select? Brushes are economical, give excellent service and are a pride to their owner. Why not decide now to give brushes this Christmas?

Wouldn't Daughter or Sister delight in receiving a Fuller Hair Brush, made of white strong bristles and an ivory finished handle, with a Fuller Comb to match it? Why not please Son or Brother with a Fuller Clothes Brush in order that he may keep his own clothes neat at all times? Wouldn't your wife, or best girl, be grateful for your gift of a Fuller Manicure Tray with Manicure Brush? Why not a Fuller Friction Shower for your husband or father? These and many other Fuller Brushes are most excellent suggestions for Christmas gifts,—gifts which will be useful for years to come and at Christmas time they are sold in fancy holly boxes.

In the comfort of your own home you may select brushes for your Christmas gifts. The Fuller Man will be glad to assist you in picking appropriate sets which may be added to at any time. Ask to see the photographs of the Fuller personal brushes when the next Fuller man calls at your home.

BETTERTON

Searching parties have been out every day dragging the bay, in a vain endeavor to find the bodies of the five missing men of the ill fated power boat, "A. Woodall" that was burned last Monday.

The members of the graduating class of Chestertown High School gave a good play in the assembly hall of the high school on Tuesday evening for the benefit of the Betterton Boy Scouts.

The play "Grandmothers Dream" given last week by the Ladies Aid Society was repeated last Monday evening in Harper's Hall for the benefit of the parsonage fund.

Mrs. Octavia Bowman, had the misfortune to fall and break her left arm, this week.

Mrs. George E. Owens, affectionately known as "Grandmother Owens," is recovering from a fall in her home last week.

Mrs. Floyd Crownhart and son left on Thursday for Munden, North Carolina, where they will spend a part of the winter.

Capt. Harvey Brice has returned to his home from a pleasant visit with friends in Baltimore.

Owing to an outbreak of mumps it was thought best to dispense with the Christmas entertainment at the school and also the churches. The Christmas treat will be given at the Methodist Sunday School the Sunday after Xmas.

Christmas services will be held in all of the churches tomorrow. Dr. Walter Stone will conduct the Epworth League service in the evening.

Mrs. Mattie Tull is spending the winter with her daughter, Mrs. E. Zey, in Baltimore.

Mr. and Mrs. Smith and family have moved to their house recently purchased from Mr. Henry Price.

Sciatic Rheumatism AND Lumbago

It is getting to be a universally conceded fact that in order to rid a person of any ailment or disease, the cause must first be found, because without cause there can be no effect or disease.

This is particularly true of Sciatic Rheumatism and Lumbago and the success of Chiropractic in correcting these conditions is because Chiropractic bases its theory on the law of CAUSE and EFFECT.

If you or any of your friends suffer with Sciatica or Lumbago you owe it to them to help them out of their misery by urging them to call on
