CHRISTMAS GREETINGS

As this is the last issue of this paper before Christmas the Transcript extends greetings to all of its readers, with the hope that this glorious season may be full of happiness and joy to all of Gods children.

NOTICE TO PATRONS

Next Thursday being Christmas Day, this paper will go to press Wednesday afternoon instead of Friday. This is done in order to give our employees a few extra days holiday. The business office will be open, however Friday morning as usual.

CHRISTMAS SONG

Three kings have journeyed from the eastern land,
A star hath led them to Jordan's strand
And in Judea inquire the three,
Where the new-born infant king may be,
With gold and myrrh and incense sweet,
They bring the holy child an offering meet.
And brightly shineth the guiding star;
Unto the manger the kings repair,
With rapture on the boy they gaze,
And bow before him in joy and praise,
With gold and myrrh and incense sweet,
They bring the holy boy an offering meet.
O Child of man! hold thee firm and true
The kings come hither, O come thou too!
The star of mercy, the star of love.
Shall point thee the pathway to Heav'n above;
And fail thee gold and incense sweet,
Lay there thy heart at the Savior's feet!
Bring Him thy heart'

—Peter Cornelius.

WASHINGTOS COLLEGE

Other College Notes on page 7.

The Christmas holidays will begin Friday noon hour and last until Monday morning, January 5 at eight o'clock.

After the Christmas holidays Professor William A. Howell will conduct a vocational clinic for all students interested in vocational work. Arrangements can be made by seeing Elias Nuttle or Professor Howell.

President Titsworth distributed the medals to the W-men Thursday morning.

Washington College's campaign for new students was started last week when personal letters were sent out to graduating students of high schools in five different states. Dr. Paul E. Titsworth has been attending to the campaign personally and in conjunction with it has visited many of the high schools in the surrounding states, giving short addresses to the student body of each school. The student body of Washington is cooperating with Dr. Titsworth and the officials of the college by sending letters to friends who are gaduating in the near future. It is expected that quite a number of new students will result from this wide campaign.
