SPORTS OF THE WEEK

Washington Wins Two Thrilling Games On Basket Ball Floor.

The 1924-25 basketball team has been weighed in the balance and found not wanting. They have gone through the crucible, and have withstood the fire without flinching. They have fought from the rear and have forged steadily upward to victory. They have not faltered when things went wrong and have not been over elated when they had easy sledding. They have shown a masterly offense, and an impassable cordon when on the defensive. They look good to us. They have the fight, the spirit, the ability. It looks like another state championship for Washington.

Washington College—with Carroll and Dumschott forwards; Bankert center; Fiore and McGran guards—ushered in the basketball season here on Friday night with a victory over Grace M. E. Church of Wilmington, the score being 43-21. Fiore was the star of the gamee scoring five baskets and being impregnable on defense. Carroll, Dumschott and McGran also starred, the former getting five goals and the latter two four each. The first half was close, but Washington smothered their opponents in the second half.

With Fiore as the outstanding star, Washington won a hard-fought basket ball game Tuesday night from Arnold College, of New Haven, Conn., 25-20. Carrington, former Washington star guard, played with Arnold. Carrington and team showed rare flashes of teamwork, but were unable to cope with the sensational shooting of the Washington aggregation, when the locals were hard pressed.

Sensational shooting by Fiore kept the Chestertown cagers in the front. Several times did the New Englanders climb to within a point of the winners after clever bits of passing, but each time Fiore came through with the necesary goal and again widened the gap He caged five shots from the floor, two proving the deciding counters. Both clubs played a close, defensive game and there were very few easy shots. In the second half, Arnold spurted and deadlocked the count at 13 to 13, But once again Fiore came to the rescue and dropped a neat double-decker through the net and the Washington College lads were never headed.

Carroll, scoring ace for Washington, was "off" in shooting for the first time in his career here, and failed to make a goal, although he made many attempts. Dumschott played fast, but also failed to make his usual quota of points. Mc Gran played a most skillful game, while Bankert showed improvement.

Zearfoss, former star catcher for Washington, was at the basketball game Tuesday evening. He now resides in Wilmington and looks well and happy.

Washington Collegee has a good football schedule in preparation. Prof. Howell has negotations underway for games with Temple and Connecticut Aggies to fill the open dates. The schedule is as follows:

Sept.26—Maryland— Away.
Oct. 3—P. M. C.—Away.
Oct. 10—Lafayette—Away.
Oct. 17—Loyola—Home.
Oct. 24—Open.
Oct. 31—George Washington—Away.
Nov. 7—Mt. St. Mary's—Home.
Nov. 14—West. Md.—Away.
Nov. 21—Ursinus—Away.
Nov. 28—Open.

Preliminary to the game on Friday the Chestertown High School team defeated Sudlersivlle somewhat easily, while the preliminary game on Tuesday furnished real thrills when a team of former W. C. students won from Sudlersville by one point.
