AN ERRONEOUS STATEMENT.

It has come to my attention that reports have been spread from Morgnec that I used two Gobblers of local breeding in raising my large flock of turkeys this season. This report is positively not true.

I used one pure bred pedigreed Tom purchased from Bird Bros., of Myersdale, Pa., acknowledged by poultry experts to be breeders of the finest turkeys in the U. S.

BIRTH OF CHRIST

Scriptual Authority For Advent of the Great Messiah

Kent, and the whole civilized world is celebrating the greatest of all holidays—Christmas—and poor is the one who fails to feel the thrill of the great occasion.

Christmas has a peculiar significance each year and nearly all should have, in some measure, something to be joyful for. If for nothing else, we should be happy to see once more the old familiar faces of our friends that have returned for the occasion.

When The Transcript reaches its readers this week, the old home firesides will have glowed brightly once more to the memory of Kent's homecoming sons, who were back again for the holidays. And perhaps they have returned. But homes are brighter and hearts are happier because they have made the visit.

The mellow chiming of bells have tinkled the one sublime word, Christmas, as joyfully this year as ever in the history of the past, and the sublime message of Christmas is running like a golden thread through the red coverlet of human mistakes.

The aroma of sweet-scented pine and cedar, of crinkled holly and red-cheeked berries, of dainty mistletoe and fragrant mosses! These are familiar to all.

Christmas! Sublime in its yearly mystery; blessed in memory; supreme in glory!

Our wish is: Merry Christmas to all; happy New Year; peace on earth and good will toward all men.

The festival of Christmas was first celebrated in the Third Century. It gained impetus until the torch, was a lowly carpenter from Nazareth lighted back there in the misty ages of the past, has become a searchlight in the century, touching the hearts of all tenderness and illuminating the dark pathways of the earth.

Authority for the birth of the Messiah is quoted below from St. Matthew, second chapter, 1-13 verses, as follows:

"Now when Jesus was born in Bethlehem of Judea in the days of Herod the king, behold, there came wise men from the east to Jerusalem.

Saying, Where is He that is born of the Jews; for we have seen his star in the east, and are come to worship Him.

When Herod the king had heard these things, he was troubled, and all Jerusalem with him.

And when he had gathered all the chief priests and scribes of the people together, he demanded of them where Christ should be born.

And they said unto him, in Bethlehem of Judea; for thus it is written by the prophet.

And thou Bethlehem, in the land of Judea, are not the least among the princes of Judea; for out of thee shall come a Governor, that shall rule my people Israel.

Then Herod, when he privily called the wise men, inquired of them diligently what time the star appeared.

And he sent them to Bethlehem and said, go and search diligently for the young child; and when ye have found Him, bring me word again, that I may come and worship Him also.

When they had heard the king, they departed; and, lo the star, which they saw in the east, went before them, till it came and stood over where the young child was.

When they saw the star, they rejoiced with exceeding great joy.

And when they were come into the house, they saw the young child with Mary, his mother, and fell down and worshipped Him; and when they had opened their treasures, they presented Him with gifts; gold, and frankincense, and myrrh.

And being warned of God in a dream that they should not return to Herod, they departed into their own country in another way.

And when they were departed, behold, the angel of the Lord appeared to Joseph in a dream, saying, Arise, and take the young child and his mother into Egypt, and be thou there until I bring thee word; for Herod will seek the young child to destroy Him."

St. Matthew, 2d Chap. 1 to 15 verses.

Christmas Celebration Big Event.

A big crowd as in town on Monday to witness the annual event of the arrival of "Santa Claus," who came in on the fire truck. The stores were crowded with county shoppers, who, with their children, were in town for the big event. The children were greatly interested and greatly enjoyed the Christmas gifts so bounteously given to all.

On Christmas eve from seven to seven thirty o'clock many in the community gathered around the illuminated Christmas tree and the Christmas carols under the leadership of Mrs. Merrick Clements, were sung, after which a selected chorus went to the homes of the shutins and repeated the carols. The celebration was one of the big events of the Christmas season.

—Great numbers of canvas back ducks were sporting in the river in front of Chestertown on Tuesday.
