Kent Gets Touch of Winter

Kent County and the whole Eastern Shore had a touch of real winter on Wednesday and Thursday from a northeaster that came whooping in Wednesday with almost a hurricane of wind back of it and laden with virgin flakes to bury the fields of the county beneath inches of snow. The storm did not develop to the proportions that were indicated, however, and the ground was barely covered with snow on Thursday morning.

To Hold Duck Supper

To aid in their fund raising campaign, the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company decided at their meeting held Monday night, to hold a wild duck supper in their building on Cross St. in the near future, the date to be made known later. As evidence of the appreciation of the members for his leadership, President Wm. G. Smyth, was presented with a fine Seth Thomas Clock on Monday evening, while Secretary B. R. Bartley received an electric cigar lighter for his Buick Sedan. Mr. Jack Hendrix, for his efforts in raising funds for the new equipment, was also remembered by the firemen, being presented with a coat sweater.
