WASHINGTON .COLLEGE NOTES

Dean Genevieve Boland left Wednesday afternoon to attend a conference of the deans' of women at Cincinnati, Ohio. This conference is held annually in connection with the Department of Superintendants of the N. E. A. This conference is a subdivision of the national body. Miss Boland will stay in Cincinatti over the week-end, returning on Sunday.

Doctor Paul E. Titsworth, president of Washington College, attended a luncheon of the Washington Chapter of the Washington College Alumni Association, held at the New Ebbitt Hotel in Washington, D. C. on Tuesday evening. Lieutenant-commander G. T. Rude, of the United States Coast and Geodatic Survey which is a division of the United States Department of Commerce, is president of the chapter.

Professor Freeman H. Hart, A. M., who has been at the bedside of his father at his home in Lexington, Va., will return to his work on Friday. Professor Hart's father died Monday afternoon after a lingering illness. The students and faculty of Washington College wish to extend their most heartfelt sympathy to Prof. Hart in his recent bereavement.

Professor Snyder is confined to his bed with an attack of laryngitis. He has been forced to cancel his various classes in the commercial department for the past week.

Both the Mt. Vernon and Adelphia Literary Socities presented excellent programs during the week. The students are taking deep interest in these divisions of the college.

WEDDINGS

A wedding of much interest to both counties was solomonized at the M. P. Parsonage, Chestertown, Feb. 25, 1925, when Olive Abigail, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Atwell, of near Kennedyville, and John Ray King, son of Mr. and Mrs. Wm. R. King of Philadelphia, were united in holy wedlock at high noon, by Rev. N. O. Gibson, pastor of the M. P. Church, Chestertown, Md., in the presence of the immediate family, the impressive ring ceremony being used. The bride wore a gown of Old Blue Satin Crepe, trimed with ermine, and with hat and gloves and shoes to harmonize. After a luncheon at the home of the bride's parents, they left amid a shower of rice, confetti, old shoes and plenty of good luck wishes. The bride is a granduate in the class of 1922 at Goldey's College, Wilmington. The groom is a resident of Philadelphia where the happy couple will make their home.

Mrs. Medford Walls, of Church Hill, has announced the engagment of her daughter, Miss Mabel I. Walls, to Mr. Thomas Rigby Valiant also of Church Hill. No date has been set for the wedding. Mr. Valiant is a brother of Mrs. William Walter Chapman, of Chestertown. Both Miss and Mr. Valiant are well known here.

Micc Marion Dudley Merrick Jr., of near Sudlersville, and Mr. Frank Willard Bower, of Gainsville, Ga., were married Saturday afternoon at St. Andrew's Chapel, Sudlersville. Mr. and Mrs. Bower will reside in San Fransisco, Cal. where Mr. Bower will play ball in the Pacific Coast League.

SEEDS

Fine Maine-Grown Irish Cobbler Seed Potatoes. The genuine MAINE grown which we have offered you for several years. The quality is right, the price is right, our stock is limited.

Place your order now and get delivery later.

TOMATO SEED

All the leading varities from several of the best growers are here.

This year again we can supply the genuine Michigan grown seed. The experiment stations say that Michigan grown seed are the best, because it has the least "WILT" of any state in the United State. The price is as low as tha being asked for less desireable seed.

Field and Garden Seed

Large stocks of both are here for your inspection. All new seed from the best producing sections. Come and look them over.

Jones & Satterfield

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Phone 51.

CULP

Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. GULP

Phone 5 Chestertown, Md.

LOCAL MATTERS

—Roads Engineer, Taylor has his force out all over the county.

—Electrical Contractor, O. C. Smith, and force are rewiring the Lyceum Theatre.

—The Emmannel Chhrch Sunday School made $88.00 on their supper Monday night.

—The Cummerford property at Massey was sold at public sale the past week to Isaac Gibbs, Jr., of Massey.

—The Sunday School class taught by Mr. John Bennett held a box social in the Assembly Hall of the grammar school Thursday evening.

—The Kent County Boys Calf Club will hold a banquet Friday evening, March 6, at the Chestertown High School.

—A large crowd attended the annnal banquet of the Mt. Vernon Literary Society on Saturday night at Washington College.

—Business interests and residents on East Cross St. have submitted a proposition to the town commissioners, looking to the concreting of the road and ditches.

—Mr. E. R. Anthony is the "early bird" at plowing every year. He has already completed much of this work. His flowers are more beautiful than ever.

—There will be a Tuberculosis clinic for known Tuberculosis cases, contacts, and suspects in The Health Center, Chestertown, Monday, March 9th., at 10.30 a. m.

—The Still Pond entertainers for the benefit of the local fire company, rendered a most interesting program here on Monday night. A large crowd was present and a good sum was realized.

—The Green Spring Valley Hunt Club are planning a visit to the Eastern Shore. Parties from Centreville were in Chestertown recently looking for quarters to stable the thorobreds. The trip is planned for March 12, '25.

—The Kent County Commissioners have granted County Agent H. B. Derrick an increase of 300 in his salary, making the annual salary $3,500 $2500 of which is to be paid by the County and $1,000 by the State.

—A truck, belonging to Hogans Express Co., broke thru the Chester River bridge on Monday morning early. One rear wheel was below the bridge several feet. Supt. A. F. Shure soon repaired the break.

—The regular monthly meeting of the Parent Teachers Association of Chestertown has been postponed until Thursday, March 12 at 3.15 p. m. Dr. Knox, of Baltimore, will address the Association at this meeting.

—John D. Urie, Esq., attorney, sold yesterday at public sale, the Sewell or Walbert farm, of 108 acres, located near Swan creek. The purchase price was $3425 and bought by John J. Scoone.

—Charles H Crew has a fine flock of 14 sheep of which 8 are ewes and have 12 fine lambs. Thomas H. Bryan has one ewe which gave birth to two sets of twin lambs, but one of the lambs was killed by a mule.

—Wilmer C. Tate, of Kibler's Corner, who has been cinfined to his home for the past several weeks as the result of a shot gun accident, is greatly improved. Mr. Tate met with the mishap while out gunning for wild geese when the right barrel of his gun bursted, cutting his middle and third finger severely.

—The Tolchester Beach Improvement Company has sold to Townsend Scott & Company an issue of $175,000 first mortage 6 per cent sinking fund gold bonds. The financing is for the purpose of defraying in part the purchase of the new ferry steamer Express, bought for $182,500, and for alteration of the company's wharf facilities.

—Mr. Fred Minch, of Worton is one of the prominent Kent county exhibitors in the National Seed Corn Show to be held in Chicago, March 2 to 7, according to advices from the Sears-Roebuck Agricultural Foundation which is sponsoring the show and offering $17.000 in prizes. Mr. Mench is out for the Kittle trophy of $1,000, offered for the best ear of seed corn in America.

—Bids are about to be invited for bids for the erection of two more bridges, over the Chesapeake & Delaware Canal, in addition to the three now under construction at Chesapeake City, St. George's and Summit. The new bridges, costing together about $500,000, will be located one at Delaware City and the other at the "Cut Iff," a mile south of the town, on the Port Penn Road.

—Action by the Maryland Public Service Commission upon the petition of the Suquehanna Power Company for approval of the plans for development of hydro-electric power, under what is known as the Conowingo project, was deferred, after Frances T. Homer, a director, had explained the plans for the financing of the enterprise, upon the acceptance of a compromised suggested by People's Counsel, C. W. Miles.

—Charged with having participated in the mysterious burning of the Ridgley motion picture theatre on July 28 1921, when Albert W. Saulsbury was attacked, bound and left lying in a nearby field, Marion Dean, 47 years old, of near Crouse's Mill, Queen Anne's county, was placed in Centreville jail Thursday afternoon, upon a warrant sworn out before Justice Robert Coursey by State Fire Marshall Calvin Hicks.

—Mr. Alan A. Harris has purchased a new Buick Sedan from N-B-R Co.

—Chestertown basket-ball fans are preparing to go to Baltimore in large numbers today to see the W. C—Loyola basket-ball game.

—The two cows, advertised in this paper at public sale by Mr. Frank D. Leary on Saturday last were purchased by Mr. Labbert Plummer for $162.50.

—Many Kent farmers have lost considerable money by their corn rotting in the bins. This condition was not known until they went to shell their corn.

—Mr. Arthur M. Lusby, of Blacks, this county, has invented a manure loader upon which he was granted a pattent, Feb. 12. The machine is said to be a great labor saving device and does effective work.

—Hon. Clarence Trew Wilson, a temperance lecturer of nation-wide fame, spoke in Chestertown M. E. Church, Thursday evening, before a large crowd on the subject, "Politics, Morals and Religion." His address was quite interesting.

—Recently, Mrs. Wm. Frazier Russell, Jr., lost a valuable pearl necklace while returning home from the shopping district. An advertisement in the Transcript resulted in the return of Mrs. Rusell's necklace early the morning following the issue of the paper.

—Two well-known Baltimoreans were added to the Board of Directors of the Chesapeake and Potomac Telephone Company of Baltimore City at the Annual Meeting of the Stockholders recently by the election of General Henry M. Warfield and ex-Governor Phillip Lee Goldsborough.

—The Near-East-Relief bundles will be collected from the school houses on Tuesday, March 3rd, by Massey & Wilmer's truck. Any one in Chestertown having bundles to send may take them to the store-room over the N-B-R garage. Don't forget to take your bundles to school Tuesday.

—The Juior Order United American Mechanics of Chestertown, will observe their twenty-eighth anniversary of their organizaton on Wednesday evening , March 11. The Order is making extensive arrangements to celebrate this event in a fitting manner and a big crowd is looked for.

—The vestry of St. Clements' Protestant Episcopal Church has sold to Harry Holt, of Massey, 50 acres of land belonging to the church, for $5,500 The track is a part of a very valuable farm bequeathed to the church by the late Stephen Boyer, a vestryman of the church and wealthy land owner. The vestry has purchased the residence of the late Isaac Gibbs in Massey for $3,900, and the rector, Rev. J. L. Saunders and family will occupy it.

—Mr. Clay Haddaway, a young gunner of Rock Hall, was before Justice Moffett, of Chestertown, Tuesday on the charge of killing a swan out of season. He paid fines and costs amounting to $61.10.

—Mr. Edgar S. Davis, one of the most extensive growers of commercial dahlias in this county, has met with a serious loss during the winter by the freezing of most of his choice tubers. Mr. Davis will be compelled to restock his gardens from other sources.

—Corn growers in the upper section of the county held a meeting in Massey Wednesday afternoon to discuss the suger corn prospects for the coming canning season. No price has yet been offered the growers around Massey for growing the corn this season, but $70 a ton has been offered in other sections and it is believed that this price will be effered the up-county growers.

ROCK HALL'S

Picture Parlor

ROCK HALL

Saturday, Feb. 28, 1925
Wm. Fox presents Shirley Mason
IN
"South Sea Love"
and Sunshine Comedy, "Children Wanted."

WEDNESDAY, MARCH 4
Jesse L. Lasky presents Lois Wilson and Richard Dix in
"To the Last Man"
A Zane Grey Story, also Comedy.
Doors open 7 p. m., Picture at 7,30.

—FOR—

PURE DUGS

—AND—

TOILET ARTICLES

Make your Baltimore Headquarters at

The FRANKLIN PHARMACY
(Samuel C. Cohen, Prop.)
Graduate in Pharmacy.
Franklin and Pearl Sts., Baltimore, Md.
All prescriptions accurately and reliably compounded.
(Formerly J. J. Laur's Pharmacy.)

MONEY TO LOAN

IN SUMS TO SUIT ON GOOD REAL ESTATE.

JOHN D. URIE. Atty.

—The great Holtwood Hydro-Electric power dam, as in previous recent years, saved Port Deposit recently from gorges following the ice break-up in the Susquehanna and its branches. The ice tumbling over the dam was broken more or less in its fall and, though it filled the river from shore to shore, passed downward to the Bay with but little massing.

A DOLLAR GOES A LONG WAY AT THE A&P STORES.

It's our method of buying at rock bottom prices that makes big savings possible for our customers.

6C Large Wrapped Loaf — GRANDMOTHER'S BREAD — 10C Extra Large Wrapped Loaf

ENCORE SPAGHETTI 3 cans 25c

SULTANA Ass't Jams Jar 23c

Jona SAURKRAUT, 2 cans 21c

RICH CREAMY CHEESE lb. 29c

PALMOLIVE SOAP 4 cakes 27c

EARLY JUNE PEAS 14c

BROOMS 35c — 49c 65c — 75c

WET SHRIMP CAN 20c

Lenten Suggestions

Oil Sardines, ¼'s	Can 7c
Mastard Sardines, ¾'s	Can 15c
Imported Oil Sardines, ½'s	Can 17c
Imported Oil Sardines, ¼'s	Can 29c
A & P Salmon, ½'s	Can 25c
Gorton's Fish Flakes	Can 13c
Hack Fish	Pkg 12c
Sultana Tuna Fish, ½'s	Can 23c

WE BUY EGGS — Coal Oil for sale at our Stores

THE GREAT ATLANTIC & PACIFIC TEA CO.
Chestertown, Md. Rock Hall, Md.

SPRING DAYS WILL CALL FOR

THE NEW SUIT

Even now there's a warm day here and there, and the thoughts of men turn to the purchase of a new suit.

"Curlee's" Velvet Finish

BLUE SURGE

$25.00 $30.00 $35.00

Men, here are blue serge suits that are real. Every one is guaranteed to be unshrinkable and of a fast color. Nothing equals blue serge as a dress suit. Come in and we will show you one that we know will suit.

SNAPPY NEW MODELS IN

Young Men's Greys

London Lavender and the new Powder Blue

$25.00 $30.00 $32.50

The young fellows this spring will be wearing suits mostly in the new shades of grey London Lavender and the new Powder Blues. These are the prevailing colors.

We have many selections to offer. Most of them are in the English cuts, and by the way, thisstyle is by far the most popular for younger men. You will note the price range. It is very low. This does not mean quality has been sacrificed. To the contrary the suits we are offering compare favorable to the expensive custom-made garments.

STETSON HATS—The New Line For Spring IS HERE

VANSANT & NEWSOME

Head-to-Foot Outfitters for Men and Boys, Chestertown, Md.

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8223-0514