The Third National Bank

OF CHESTERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

The usefulness of a Bank, perhaps more than any other business, is measured in terms of Confidence. Founded on approved Banking Principles, conducted by right methods, we have established here an Institution worthy of your complete Confidence. With Confidence in our ability to serve and with experience, we offer to the Public a thoroughly modern, up-to-date Bank. We are keeping our Old Friends because through years of active service this Institution has proved itself worthy of their loyalty. And we have established new Friendships because they find here a thoroughly modern Banking Service, alert and in keeping with their requirements. "When a Bank of progressive ideals starts out with the principle that nothing of value is lost by being thoroughly Sound and Conservative—and sticks to it through the years—that Bank usually becomes increasingly popular and prosperous."

We believe that the more points at which we touch human nature and human interests the more alive we become and the longer we will stay so. A true conception of banking accepts graver responsibilities than money changing. We believe in honest service, a constructive and helpful policy in all our contacts. This Bank enjoys its position because it views resposibilities to its people and its community through a wide angle lens.

Sincerely yours,

The Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md.

WEDDINGS

Miss Martha B. Parsons, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Thomas S. Parsons of near Chestertown and Olan D. Simpkins of near Rock Hall were quitely maried in Philadelphia last week. They will reside on Mr. Simpkins' farm, near Rock Hall.

Marriage licenses were issued this week for Miss Agnes Porter and Mr. Charles Andrews, of Kent. Also for Mr. Clarence Walbert and Vickers Legg, also of Kent.

Final Arrangements Completed

Fnal arrangements for the establishment of a co-operative cannery to be located at Fairlee were made this week, when Benjamin Willis, of Federalsburg and Ivy Andrews and Lloyd Webster, two promnent canners of Cambridge, agreed to finance the erection of the building and the installation of the necessary machinery, and 30 or more farmers in the vincinity of Fairlee signed contracts, representing a total tillage of 300 acres, both parties to the contract being bound for a period of five years.

CARD

We acknowledge with due appreciation and many thanks the many kind acts of friendship during the recent illness and death of the late George E. Noland. The shock has been so great that we find it impossible to personally acknowledge to each one their kindness, so we take this method of doing it. The kindnesses and expressions of sympathy will long be remembered and much cherished by us.

County Bonds Sold

Bids were opened by the County Commisioners Monday, for the sale of $17,000 worth of lateral road bonds. The only bidder was the Third National Bank of Chestertown, which secured the issue for $17,127.50, or a premium of $127.50 on the entire issue. The commissioners will use the proceeds in the construction of a concrete road from Coleman's Corner on the outskirts of Rock Hall to Crosby's store in Piney Neck. The State Roads Commission under the law, appropriates a similar sum, making a total of $34,000 to pay for the road. The road to be improved is one of the worst stretches of road in Kent County, and when completed will afford shippers ample facilities for getting their produce to market.

Chestertown's Flower Yards

Chestertown has some of the most beautiful flower yards to be found anywhere, and, with the first appearance of spring, they began to become places of almost indescribable charm. Nothing adds so much to the beauty of a place as flowers. If everybody in Chestertown and Kent county would fix their places and plant some flowers it would make this town more attractive. This is the time to plan and begin work. It need not take a great deal of time or labor and a few small beds here and there on a place will add greatly to it. Where there are fences these might be removed and flowering hedges planted and on division fences climbing roses would be very nice. Many of the high board fences could be hidden in this way.

FIRE APPARATUS PASSES TEST

The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co's. Apparatus Passes Underwriter's Requirements

The Underwriters were in Chestertown last week and made a thorough and rigid test of all apparatus of the fire company including a demonstration test of the new fire truck, and inspection tests of hose, ladders and all minor equipment of the company.

The company is growing by leaps and bounds as applications are being received every week for membership which are voted on by secrete ballot thereby keeping out undesirable members.

Arrangements have been completed to have two members of the company live in the fire house. This will not only add greatly to the efficiency of the company but will reduce the fire insurance rate of the community.

Arrangements are underway to build a hose dryer to dry the hose after it is used. This dryer will be a 55 foot tower 10 ft. square at the base and tapering to 6 ft. square at the top. It will be built in the rear of the fire house and will further reduce the insurance rate.

KENT POTATO GROWERS HIT

Decline in Prices Will Cause Loss To A Great Many

Many of the late potato growers in this county have been hard hit by the slump in the price of potatoes, and they stand to lose considerable money because of the unusual expense in growing the crop.

One grower, living near Chestertown, during the past week culled his crop carefully and packed them nicely in baskets, taking several truck loads to Wilmington, where they were sold to commission merchants. When the grower received the returns for the sales he found he had netted just eight cents a basket for the lot sold. He had been holding his crop since last fall in the hope that prices would be better in the spring.

Another grower, near Kennedyville who grew perhaps the largest crop in Kent county, placed the bulk of his crop in cold storage last fall to twait better prices. Unless he can dispose of the potatoes for seed, he will be fortunate if he breaks even in the production of the crop.

These disheartening experiences may prompt the growers to hold off for a season or two in growing the crop in order that market conditions may become normal or until there is at least a chance for making a fair profit from their tillage.

It is quite probable that there will be an increase in the tomato and corn tillage throughout the country during the present year in order to make up the loss sustained in growing an unprofitable crop of potatoes the past season.

Chevrolet Burns

While enroute to Wilmington yesterday morning, the Chevrolet car belonging to Graves [illegible] drinks manufacturers, of [illegible] was suddenly discovered. This fire was not extinguished car was destroyed.
