THE TRANSCRIPT

THERE ARE RUMORS afloat that Gov. Reitchie will probably be a candidate next year to succeed himself as Governor. Should the Governor decide to be a candidate for the third term the probabitities are he will have no opposition in the primaries. Viewing the situation as we now see it opposition to the Governor would be useless.

IN THE DEATH OF Senator John Walter Smith, which occured on Sunday evening last, the State of Maryland has lost one of its most prominent citizens and the Democratic party one of its most influential members. Starting as poor boy Senator Smith rose to prominence and influence in his native State equal to that of any of its citizens in our ime. He was honored by his State with the highest political gifts possible to bestow upon any man—Governor and later United States Senator.

GEORGE W. FRENCH will be the only name on the ticket at the election of Town Commissioner on Monday next. Mr. French has the endorsement of the Business Men's Association and is a progressive business man and interested in the development and welfare of Chestertown. While there will be no opposing candidate the citizens of the town should go to the pols and give Mr. French as large a complimentary vote as possible. Following the election on Monday Chestertown will again have three Commissioners on the board, only having had two since the resignation of C. A. Goodwin about eighteen months ago. The board is now composed of Charles N. Satterfield and John W. Barnes.

Church Notes

Carrol M. Wright, State Field Secretary of the Young People's Society of Christian Endeavor, has arranged a series of meetings to be held in the county churches as follows: Monday, Raum Chapel; Tuesday Wesley Chapel; Wednesday St. James; Thursday, Kennedyville.

Rev. J. Colvin Randall, recently pastor of First Methodist Protestant Church, Wilmington, arrived at his new charge, St. James', Saturday, with his bride and was cordially received by the ladies of the church.
