Educational Week At Public School

Educational week at the Public School, Chestertown, was a great success. The Assembly Hall was beautifully dressed and both the teachers and pupils did all in their power to entertain their guests. Dr. Titsworth addressed the school on patriotic day which was most inspiring, as his addresses always are.

Bird Day was also very interesting and amusing. Miss Hartman, a great lover of birds, talked to the children about the firds and their habits which interested them very much. She was followed by Mr. H. T. Hartman who gave an instructive talk on coal and coal mining. The seventh grade were very birdlike in their play and the "Little Indians" the first grade, were just as enjoyable as possible.

The music lesson by Prof. Gibson and the afternoon tea were equally enjoyed by the parents on Parents Day.

On Thursday, Mr. Gorden Bennett of Queen Anne's gave an address followed by a well drilled play by the sixth grade.

Mr. Carl Phiffer, of the Dept. of Forestry gave a fine illustrated lecture about trees at the Lyceum on Friday.

The whole week was truly educational, not only to the children but to the public.

Dawes is Strong For Senate Reform

Vice President Dawes is carrying on a campaign for Cloture in the Senate. It is now the custom if a Senator opposes a bill, he may speak or filibuster and length of time in order to kill it, and it will be a great reform to limit their time for speaking.

Queen Henrietta Marie Portrait Purchased by State

The postrait of Queen Henrietta Marie wife of Charles 1st of England painted over 300 years ago by Daniel Mytens, the painter royal at that time, has been purchased by the State of Maryland and is to hang in the State House at Annapolis. It is fitting that the portrait should hang there as the State was named Maryland in her honor.

"NORTH OF 36" A TRUE SCREENPLAY OF PIONER DAYS

New Paramount Picture A Colorful Page From U. S. History

"North of 36," by Emerson Hough, depicting all the thrills and hardships of pioneer days on the Texas cattle ranges, has been filmed for Paramount by Irvin Willat, who made the natural-color picture, "Wanderer of the Wasteland" and other classics.

"North of 36" is a tale of the Texas cattle trail, picturing a country wild, almost lawless, at the period of the story roughened and disheartened by the recent Civil War.

Lois Wilson, as Taisie Lockhart manager of her own vast ranch in Texas, finds herself penniless, with no means of disposing of her herds, her chief asset being the true spirit of the pioneers.

Word comes that way up "north of 36", a market beckons. With her 4,500 cows, 16 cow hands, 19 kinds of rifles and six shooters and 115 cow ponies, Taisie makes the start with all the thrills that the start of the wagon train in Emerson Hough's "The Covered Wagon" evolved.

Through this great panorama one sees groups of ragged sinewy men, the glorious girl at their head the oxcarts and the sea of long horned cattle, accomplishing one of the greatest deeds of pioneer bravery and daring.

Paramount has furnished a notable cast to visualize the story. It includes Jack Holt, Ernest Torrence, Lois Wilson and Noah Beery in featured roles.

The picture will be shown at the Lyceum, Chestertown, Friday and Saturday, May 1 and 2. It's a colorful page from the history of the United States . . a second "Covered Wagon"!

Other great productions scheduled for showing at the Lyceum, in the near future are: "Peter Pan," "Abraham Lincoln," "The Sea Hawk" and "Hunchback of Notre Dame."

Watch for dates and don't miss any one of them.
