Moose Officers

The Loyal Order of Moose has taken an new life, with the addition of many new and active members.

A large delegation from the Salisbury Lodge journeyed to Chestertown Tuesday evening and, in full regalia, swore in new officers of the local Lodge.

This event marked one of the largest and most appropriate meetings ever held at Moose Hall for many years, and showed to the new members much of the interesting work of this Order which has here-to-fore been unknown to them.

Through the efforts of Mr. Joseph P. Morrow, organizer, together with a few of the interested members, this lodge is fast growing in membership.

Dr. J. Haskell Carpenter, Dictator of the Salisbury Lodge, presided at the meeting and the following officers were installed. Dictator, John G. Usilton; Vice-Dictator, Harry F. Jefferson; Prelate, Rev. Charles L. Atwater; Secretary, Marion Dixon; Treasurer, Harry B. Nicholson; Inner Guard, M. E. Capel; Outer Guard, Walter K. Pippin; Sergeant-at-Arms, Jacob Wilber; Trustees, Eben F. Perkins, Charles N. Satterfield, and Jas G. Beck.

COURT

The Circuit Court reconvened on Tuesday and the following case was heard: State vs. John Barrett, presented for larceny of victrola from Mrs. Ruthwin Strong; plead not guilty. Court trial; verdict guilty. Sentenced to three months in House of Correction. S. S. Beck for State; R. H. Rogers for Barrett.

Court adjourned until 10.45 a. m., Saturday, May 2.

New Commissioner Elected

Mr. George W. French, the only candidate for Town Commissioner of Chestertown, was duly elected on Monday last, receiving 58 votes. He had no opposition. The board has its full complement of three members, a vecancy having existed for the past two years due to the vacancy made by Mr. C. A. Goodwin leaving the county. The other members of the board are Messrs. Charles N. Satterfield and John W. Barnes. The board will reorganize on Monday evening next, when Mr. French will be inducted into office.

Co-operative Cannery

Rock Hall will have a co-operative cannery and three prominent local business men—Messrs. T. W. Perkins, M. deK. Smith and R. Hynson Rogers have consented to finance the organization and have purchased a plot of ground on the outskirts of Rock Hall for $500, upon which a cannery and out buildings will be erected. The Rock Hall Canning Association has been incorporated with thirty or more farmers in that vicinity as members, with the Chestertown financiers, all of whom will divide the profits of the cannery on a pro-rata basis.

It is estimated that it will require $12,000 to erect the necessary building.

County Council to Meet

The public is cordially invited to attend the annual spring meeting of the Kent County Council for Home Demonstration Work to be held on next Monday, May 4th, at the Chestertown High School Auditorium.

The program is as follows:

11.00 A. M.—Call to order; Report of Secretary; Report of Treasurer; Report of Committees; Old business; New Business.

12.00 N.—Luncheon.

1.00 P. M.—Music; Report of Clubs.

2.00 P. M.—Care and Feeding of Baby Chicks. Mr. W. H. Rice, Poultry Specialist, University of Maryland Extension Service.

Music. Address by Miss Bertha Knight, Specialist in Clothing, Extension Service, University of Maryland. Music.

Kent Wheat Looks Good

Experienced farmers in Kent county and authiorties on wheat growing, state that the prospect throughout the county was never better for a large yield this season, and that the crop has come through the winter in such a condition as to practically insure a big output. This opinion is held by other experienced growers who have large tillages.

It is an interesting commentary upon the wisdom of a number of the growers throughout the country that, notwithstanding the fact that not long ago the price of wheat was hovering around the $2 mark, yet one grower in the upper section of the county has 3,000 bushels in his barns which he is still holding for higher prices, and there are a number of others who have their entire last year's crop in their barns waiting for prices to advance.

There are also many farmers in the county who are hit, because they are unable to dispose of the last year's corn at any price. Grain buyers here will not even talk of buying corn, because they declare there is no demand for it at any price.

Weddings

A pretty wedding was solemnized in Church Hill Protestant Episcopal Church Wednesday afternoon at four o'clock when Miss Mabel Walls, daughter of Mrs. Fannie Walls, became the bride of Rigby Valliant, son of the late Edwin S. Valliant and Mrs. Valliant. The ceremony was performed by Rev. Dunbar Gould, of Cambridge, a relative of the groom. Following a reception at the home of the bride's mother, Mr. and Mrs. Valliant left for an extended wedding trip. They will reside in Church Hill.

In Fairlee M. S. Parsonage on Saturday evening, April 25th., Mr. Norman J. Patrick of Chester and Miss Carrie B. Gieser, of Worton, were quietly married by the pastor, Rev. S. L. Hanby.
