Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as second-class matter.

NEXT MONDAY, TUESDAY and Wednesday will be the Hip, Hip, Hooray evenings in Chestertown for the Fire Co. These entertainments will be quite a treat for our people and the reason for them is a worthy one and we many say a necessity for the protection of our property. Every citizen should, and we believe will, do this past to make these entertainments a financial success. Every dollar made means a dollar added to fire protection for your property. Read the article headed "Firemen's Benifit Show," on page 2. It is full of information about the entertainment.

Personal Mention.

Mrs. Paul Adams was called to the sick bedside of her father near Atlantic City Sunday.

Miss Sarah Brown, of Baltimore, was the week-end guest of Mr. and Mrs. M. E. Newsome.

Mrs. Duncan Derringer is spending some time in Atlantic City.

DECORATION DAY

American Legion To Hold Large Celebration On That Day.

The American Legion, Frank M. Jarman Post No. 36, is planning a big day for Chestertown on May 30, Decoration Day. This day has been adopted by our country as the day on which the American People shall pay homage to those who gave their all that the Stars and Stripes may be respected and honored among all nations of men.

Most of us have friends or relatives who left our midst among cheers and praises from those who could not go, never to return again, or to return mained for life. Should not we, who live to reap the benefits of these sacrfices, set aside one day in the year to honor these heroes?

Memorial day will be observed this year as never before, stores will be decorated and there will be entertainment for all in Chestertown. Let us help make this day a success.

Capt. Hook. Crocodile and All in "Peter Pan"

Pursued by a man-eating crocodile! Following from sea to sea by a ferocious creature which had already eaten one of his hands and liked the taste so well as to want the rest, is the experience which befalls Ernest Torrence as "Captain Hook" in Herbert Brenon's production of "Peter Pan."

The famous Barrie fantasy, which Mr. Brenon produced for Paramount, is rich in incident but one of the most dramatic stiuations is the pursuit of the ferocious pirate by the still more ferocious crocodile.

Once, while the jaws of the crocodile gaped wide to swallow him, Hook threw a clock into the opening. As the crocodile follows him relentlessly from sea to sea, the ticking of the clock is the only thing which warns the pirate in time to escape.

"Someday," says one of his crew, "the clock will run down."

"That's the fear that haunts me," replies the pirate who fears nothing on earth but the crocodile.

"Peter Pan" is played by Barrie's own choice, Betty Bronson. Other featured players are Ernest Torrence, Cyril Chadwick, Virginia Brown Faire and Anna May Wong.

Roy Homeroy, whose genius accomplished many unusual effects in Cecil B. De Mille's "The Ten Commandments" and other Paramount pictures' aided Mr. Brenon in the production of "Peter Pan" by obtaining a number of unique pictorial results. —The picture will be shown at the Lycuem Chestertown. Friday and Saturday, May 2 and 9. Matinee Saturday afternoon at 2:30.
