The Third National Bank

OF CHETERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

The Bank's Intangible Assets

There's a world of truth in the remark made by a certaiu bank officer that there was a great intangible Bank Asset that never appeared on any statement. The bank officer meant GOOD WILL, the thing a professional or business man cherishes so dearly, and it never comes without effort, but it is usually the fruit of years of service and an increasing knowledge of just what that service stands for.

Yet, as we think of Good Will as the bank's unexpressed asset, we forget that behind it all there is the character of the bank which is the great corner-stone of the entire structure. Without character a banking institution is just an automation, and human nature resents doing business with a machine.

Some one has asked what has one bank to talk about that every other good bank hasn't. The answer is—that intangible asset of the bank's personality and character as an institution which, whether you realize it or not, is the foundation stone of the bank's whole structure of good will. It is the subtle mass of personality about a bank that attracts, not its statements. Service means a cordial spirit of accommodation, the willing desire to be helpful in every way possible consistent with good banking. The officers and board of directors of this bank make every effort to assist the public in every way possible. Call on us.

Sincerely yours,

The Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md.

To Hold Annual Banquet

A meeting of the officials of the Kent County Automobile Club was recently held in Chestertown to arrange plans for holding the annual banquet and reunion. The dinner will be served by the management of the hotel at Tolchester on Thursday evening, June 4, and covers will be laid for 150 members and guests. A committee was appointed to secure a speaker for the occasion and to make all necessary arrangements for what in past years has proved one of the most enjoyable social features of the season The club numbers about one hundred members, the president of which is Allan A. Harris, of Chestertown, James G. Beck, of Chestertown. is chairman of the banquet committee and the secretary of the club. The entertainment committee is David B. Ford, Browne Metcalfe and Phillip G. Wilmer.

Commencement Earlier This Year

The program for Commencement Week at Washington College will begin one day earlier than usual due to the fact that important changes have been made in the first of the Chestertown institution. This year the graduation festivities will start on Wednesday night, June f0, with a play given by the Dramatic Association. On Thursday night, June 11, the annual debate for the Samual Towner Rodgers Prize will take place and on Friday morning, June7, the declamation contest for the Simpers Medals. It is planned to hold the Commencement Ball on Friday night and on Saturday afternoon. June 13, President Titsworth will hold a reception at his home for visiting alumni and guests. On Saturday night the annual alumni dinner and general meeting will be held. Sunday morning, June 14, the baccalurate sermon will be preached by the President and Sunday night the usual address before the Y. M. C. A. will probably be delivered this year by Rev. Dr. S. Parkes Cadman of New York City. The graduating exercises proper will take place Monday morning, June 15. The Rev. William McDowell of Washington, D. C., bishop of the Methodist Church, will be the principal speaker of the occasion.

This program is tentative and subject to change but will be given substantially as stated.

"PETER PAN"

Peter Pan, the beloved Boy Who Wouldn't Grow Up, has come to town to make you happy.

To take you sailing on a silver cloud to the wonderful Never, Never Land. The land of pirates and painted redskins, and the glorious adventures of youth.

The magic of the screen brings Barrie's famous masterpiece to you a thousand times even than the play, which has charmed millions in its twenty-one years of unequaled popularity.

Betty Bronson, Barrie's own choice, is the ideal Peter Pan. Ernest Torrence is a marvelous Captain Hook. Wendy, Tinker Bell, and the other delightful characters are faithfully portrayed.

"Peter Pan" is distinctly the wonder-picture of the screen.

Birthday Party

On Wednesday evening Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lipscomb of Kennedyville entertained a few friends, in honor of their daughter, Miss Carrie Mae's sixteenth birthday. Their home decorations were beautiful, the color scheme being pink and blue with pink candles.

The refreshments consisted of candy, nuts, ices and cakes, and a little pink basket as souvenir for each guest.

The presents were very nice, among them, a gold peice from her mother and father.

Those present were: Misses Carrie Mae Lipscomb, Anna C. Wiltbank, Catherine D. Urie, Mary Evelyn Spencer, Margaret E. Kennedy, Gladys S. Archibald, Catherine Lipscomb, Della Spry. Messrs. Albert Newton, Russell Fowler, Vernon Fowler, Norman Pennington, Ralph Carter, Forester Lee, Marion Sutton, Edgar Lipscomb. Mrs. George Glenn, Mrs. William Lipscomb, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Lipscomb.

The evening was spent in music and games and at eleven o'clock all left for their homes, leaving good wishes.
