The Third National Bank

OF CHETERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

The Bank's Intangible Assets

There's a world of truth in the remark made by a certaiu bank officer that there was a great intangible Bank Asset that never appeared on any statement. The bank officer meant GOOD WILL, the thing a professional or business man cherishes so dearly, and it never comes without effort, but it is usually the fruit of years of service and an increasing knowledge of just what that service stands for.

Yet, as we think of Good Will as the bank's unexpressed asset, we forget that behind it all there is the character of the bank which is the great corner-stone of the entire structure. Without character a banking institution is just an automation, and human nature resents doing business with a machine.

Some one has asked what has one bank to talk about that every other good bank hasn't. The answer is—that intangible asset of the bank's personality and character as an institution which, whether you realize it or not, is the foundation stone of the bank's whole structure of good will. It is the subtle mass of personality about a bank that attracts, not its statements. Service means a cordial spirit of accommodation, the willing desire to be helpful in every way possible consistent with good banking. The officers and board of directors of this bank make every effort to assist the public in every way possible. Call on us.

Sincerely yours,

The Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md.

Track and Field Meet Today

The Annual Washington College Track and Field Meet for Eastern Shore school boy athletes will take place today Saturday at Washington Field. Prof. James W. Johns, chairman of the committee in charge of the meet, states that already over 600 participants have been entered. These athletes represent every county on the Eastern Shore of Maryland and one in Virginia. The Washington College track team will give an exhibition for the contestants on Saturday. A medley relay will run as well as high jumps and shot put exhibition. The medley relay consists of four men, one who runs 100 yards, one 220 yards, one 440

This meet will doubtless draw the biggest crowd to Chestertown that has been here for years, as there is been interest maniferted in this annual event.

Field Day in Kent

Next Tuesday, May 19, is Field Day in Kent Schools and boys and girls from all parts of the county will participate. Boys will be stationed along High Street by nine o'clock to indicate where the several schools are to form in double line. Number 1 will be near the Voshell House and number 40 near the steamboat wharf. The pupils should be arranged by grades, the first grade in front. Please be on time and see that your pupils are in line by 9.15 o'clock. The parade will start at that time. When marking your register for Field Day merely write those words in the date column of May 19th without considering the pupils present or absent.

Cavalry Honored

Sheen's Cavalry has won such a reputation on the Eastern Shore that they have been invited to appear at the Cambridge Fair.

In the invitation received by Mr Sheen, the Fair Company agrees to pay all expenses of the cavalry including transportation both ways and are to be entertained while in Cambridge. The troop will give exhibitions of horsemanship which the residents of Kent County have had the opportunity of witnessing on many occasions.

This will give the boys a trip and the opportunity of seeing the Fair with all expenses paid. The invitation is very flattering to Mr. Sheen and his troop of boys.

Betteton Gun Club

The second annual banquet of Betterton Gun Club was held on Tuesday evening at the Rigbie Hotel. About sixty five members, ladies and gentlemen were present. Music was furnished by Betterton Orchestra, with solos by Mr. George Brice and singing by the entire club. Mr. Walter Brice, as toast master, introduced Dr. Walter Stone and Rev. E. M. Shockley, who gave a short address. The officers for the year were elected as follows: Mr. Walter S. Brice, President; Mr. Charles H. Brice, Vice President; Mr. Clarence Newsome, Treas.; Mr. Harvy Moore, secy. and mgr.; L. Harris Crew. Publicity Committee.

The annual shoot will be held July 8th, 9th, and 10th. Some of the best shots in the East will participate in this shoot. The shoot will be held under the auspices of the Amateur Trap Shooters Association. Register shoot. —The suit for $5,000 damages of Sheriff Goodman against Mr. Richard Haggerty, of Kennedyville, for the injury to the former's son, who was run over by the latter's automobile about a year ago, was being heard in Centreville yesterday when we went to press. Sheriff Goodman was represented by Wm. Frazer Russell, H. W. Vickers and Edwin Brown, Esqs., while Mr. Haggerty's attorneys were J. D. Urie and Harry Legg, Esqs.

—On Friday next, May 22, the Chestertown Business Men's Association will hold an open meeting in Firemen's Hall, which will be of special interest to our farmers and all other business men interested in the development of Kent County.
