SPORTING NOTES

Mt. St. Marys' Here On Monday Next —Other Notes Of The Sporting Realm

The baseball season for 1925 is drawing to a close, and has been fairly successful. Washington played the the State Normal School team yesterday afternoon at Washington College. On Monday next, June 1, Mt. St. Marys' College will play here. This should be perhaps the most interesting game of the season.

The University of Maryland baseball team was victorious over Washington College at College Park last Friday, winningby the score of 6 to 3 Until the fifth Purnell, on the mound for Washington. allowed Maryland but two hits. Washington led 2 to 1 until the fatal fifth. Burger, of Maryland, broke his ankle in this same fifth inning. This victory gave Maryland the edge on Washington for the year.

Gordy, former Washington star, was in town this week. Gordy will play with Cambridge this season. He is in fine shape and should have a good season

Loyola defeated Washington College on the former's baseball field on Saturday last by the score of 12 to 8. Bennett was on the mound for Washington, but could not locate the plate.

The Easton and Washington College baseball game, scheduled for last wednesday, was called off.

Flowers, formerly of Washington College, now of Oakland, in the Pacific Coast League, is making good in the west. Flowers has many friends here, who wish for his success.

WEDDINGS

Mr. and Mrs. Henry Augustine Kratzer, of Chestertown, this week announce the marriage of their daughter, Margaret Louise Gretchen to Mr. Lewis Robert Wood of New York. The wedding took place in New York Saturday, May 23. Mr. Wood is the son of Mr. Lewis Wood, a former resident of Chestertown.

New Fire House

Work is progressing on the new Community Fire House at Millington, the ground having been broken recently by Mr. J. A. Tobin, President of the Company.

On Tuesday, June 2, at 2 p. m., the Masons of Chester Lodge No. 115, of Chestertown, will lay the Corner Stone for the building. All Masons are cordially invited to attend.

Deputy Grand Lecturer Wright, of Preston, Md., will deliver an address at that time. The public is invited to attend and spend an enjoyable evening.

The progress of the Millington Fire Company in not only purchasing a very handsome and efficient equipment but erecting a beautiful Community Fire House is an example of what can be done when every one works with an idea to win.

—Betterton and Tolchester will open today, Saturday, with excellent prospects of a good season.

Railroad Operated at Loss

Operating losses of the Baltimore, Chesapeake and Atlantic Railway and steamship lines for 1924 were $77,332 less thn in 1923, the annual report of the treasurer to the stockholders of the company shows. The roads deficit was reduced from $290,35 in 1923 to $213, 024 for 1924. Additional debits of $409, 754, however, are shown by the report resulting from the deficit sustained in the sale of the Maryland, Delaware and Virginia Railroad, the obligations of which was assumed by the B. C. and A., and the final settlement with the United States government of a $68,118 claim covering the guaranty period.

—Henry Matthews, well-known Worton athlete, made a good record with the University of Maryland track team druing the recent meet in Virginia.
