AS THE 4th of July comes on Saturday this year the Chestertown merchants have decided to close their stores on that day, thereby giving their clerks a real week-end holiday, and it is hoped that the patrons will cooperate with them, and buy what they need on Friday, as the stores will be opened until late that night. The merchants have long hours of faithful service, and deserve a real holiday.

Kent Women at University

With an enrollment of 337 for the week at the University of Maryland, the third annual Rural Woman's Short Course at the University of Maryland, which closed Friday, June 19, set a new high record for attendance and was in all other respects the most successful and valuable event of its kind yet held.

There was considerable uncertainty regarding the possibility of attendance on the part of farm women when the course was inaugurated two years ago. The enrollment, however, has mounted each year and interest in the courses of instruction has been so well maintained that plans have been made for continuous four year courses.

A wide range of instruction is provided under the general subjects of clothing, foods, household management, house furnishing, landscape gardening, partiamentary law, millinery, dairying, poultry and health. Numerous social features are included in the week's program and many speakers of note are invited to address the women at the regular assembly exercises each day.

The following Kent Women will attend the University: Miss Susan V. Hill, Mrs. W. R. Huey and Mrs. T. E. Newcomb, of Chestertown; and Mrs. Charles H. Ashley, of Rock Hall.

Real Estate Sales

Harrison W. Vickers, Esq., sold on Tuesday the Griffin Taylor property, near St. Paul's Church, containing 30 acres, to Mrs. Maybelle Wright for $2600.

The farm owned by the late I. R. Leaverton, situate on Lankford Bay in Broad Neck, was sold at public sale on Tuesday to Wm. Thomas Trew, of Baltimore, the purchase price being $5375. The tract contains 205 acres.

Herbert E. Perkins, Esq., attorney, sold at public sale on Tuesday the Josias Price farm, known as the Legg farm, situate near Fairlee, and containing 158 acres. The farm was bid in by Wm. G. Smyth, real estate agent, for $7000. It is reported that the ultimate purchaser is Miss Mamie Clothier, of Baltimore.

Attending Summer School

Misses Grace Nickerson and Hope Meeks, of Chestertown, left Sunday for Charlottesville, Va., where they will enter the University of Virginia, for a twelve weeks course.

Mrs. William Elliott, and Miss Hannah Bell, are attending Penn State College, at Penn State, Pa.

Prof. L. C. Robinson will attend the University of Penn, at Philadelphia.

Mrs. Ella Robinson and Miss Myra Wheat, will attend the University of Md., at College Park.

Miss Kathleen Archibald, will attend in Virgina.

Mrs. Ida S. Parks will attend the University of Michigan at Ann Arbor, Michigan.

Miss Helen J. Woodley, supervisor of schools of Kent County left on Wednesday last by way of Montreal for Europe.

Miss Jessie Wilkins will also attend school.

Dental Society Elects Officers

Dr. Charles F. Smith, of Salisbury, formerly of Chestertown, was named President of the Eastern Shore Dental Society, an organization affiliated with the American Dental Association. The selection unanimous and came as a result of the progressive work done by Dr. Smith. He has won special recognition in several cases recently because of modern methods employed in treating particular dental problems. The Eastern Shore Society after the election of Dr. Smith to the presidency named the other following officers; 1st vice president, Dr. J. T. Nock, Pocomoke; secretary, Dr. J. T. Swing, Cambridge; treasurer, Dr. P. P. Payne, Cambridge; sergeant-at-arms, Dr. J. McHaymaker, Denton; The Executive Council is composed of Dr. H. C. Hughes, Chestertown; Dr. P. P. Payne, Cambridge; Dr. S. P. Fulle[illegible] Crisfield; Dr. W. L. Lowe, Cambri[illegible] Dr. R. O. Higgin, Salisbury.

Crop Small

The 1925 strawberry crop, which has closed, is estimated to have returned to the growers on the lower Delmarvia Penninsula approximately $2,500,000. Definite data on shipments this year has been more difficult to obtain than formerly, due to the heavy movement of motor trucks, of which no accurate records were made. This mode of transportation has made an enormous inroad on rail shipments. Despite the fact that this season's crop was 60 to 75 per cent of normal production, rail movements of the strawberries have shown a much greater decrease. With a smaller yield however good prices have been obtained throughout the season and a correspondingly greater revenue has been returned to the counties on the Eastern Shore of Maryland, although in Accomac and Northampton counties, Virginia the crop is said to have been disappointing.

The First Compass

While on the slopes of Mount Ida, in Asia Minor, more than two thousand years ago, a shepherd found that the iron-shod end of his staff was clinging to a stone. He also found many pieces of this strange stone scattered on the ground.

This hard black mineral, which is an oxide of iron, became known as "Magnes-stone," as it was found in a district called Magnesia. It is probable that our word magnet is derived from the name.

No use was made of the mineral for many centuries. At last, however, a Chinese found that a piece of this stone, hung on a thread, always pointed to the north and south. This crude instrument was the father of our modern compass.

Eiffel Tower Useful

During the period of experimentation with the liquefaction of gases, Cailletet, the noted French scientist, experimented with a manometer in the Eiffel tower. The tower was used on account of its great height. A soft steel tube was erected which ran up the framework of the tower. Every three meters (nearly ten feet) a projecting and stop cock were placed, and to each of these a glass tube, in length slightly more than three meters, was placed. Thus readings could be taken all the way up the tube. With this apparatus some 400 atmospheres of pressure could be reached.

Left Bad Reputation

The name "Carpet-Baggers" was given as a reproach to a set of northern political adventurers that invaded the southern states soon after the civil war, and for ten years (1866-1876), by the aid of the negro vote, got themselves elected to all the chief offices, plundered the people, piled up huge debts and stole the proceeds. When, in 1877, President Hayes refused federal protection to the carpet-baggers, their system fell to pieces, and the whites regained control of the government.—Kansas City Star.
