A TRAGIC ACCIDENT

Chestertown Man Dies After Being Hit By Kent Train At Chestertown

One of the most tragic accidents of recent years occurred in Chestertown on Wednesday morning when the Kent train, on its Northbound trip, struck Mr. Joseph Charles Walters, who was walking upon the track. Mr. Walters was taken to the Easton hospital, but he died before he reached the hospital.

Mr. Walters, who was the machinist at the Chestertown Ice Company plant, had been on his way to the warehouse for a plug for some machinery and was returning, when the accident occurred. Mr. Walters, being very deaf, was unable to hear the whistle of the engine or the ringing of the engine's bell, and although the engine brakes were used effectively, the heavy engine could not be checked in sufficient time to prevent the dreadful accident.

Mr. Walters was struck in the back and knocked to the ground. Upon being picked up by employes of the Ice Plant, who had hastened to his side, an attempt was made to get him to the hospital and save his life, but it was without avail.

The deceased was 67 years of age and was well and favorably known to a wide circle of people all over the county. He leaves a widow, Mrs. Mamie Walters, and the following children: Mrs. August Heinefield, of Rock Hall; Mrs. Bryan Newton, Mrs. Harvey G. Blyman, Joseph Walters and Carrie Walters; also two half sisters and one half brother, of Philadelphia.

The funeral services will be held this Saturday morning, from his late residence, at 10:00 o'clock, interment in Chester Cemetery, conducted by Rev. T. J. Sard. Undertaker C. L. Dodd. The pall bearers will be John C. Wood, Charles D. Wood, Harry Jefferson, H. B. Rote and J. S. Kreeger.

Mr. Walters was one of our most useful citizens and his untimely death has caused a most irreparable loss to the community.

Miss Mary C. Poe, after a lingering illness died June 26th, at the home of her neice, Mrs. H. Clay Brown, 107 Front St. She was the daughter of the late George Poe, of Baltimore, Md. Funeral services will be held Sunday afternoon at the above address, Rev. Dr. C. L. Atwater officiating, interment at Chester Cemetery. The bearers will be Mr. Eben F. Perkins, Mr. Thomas Kibler, Mr. Phil Wilmer, Mr. James G. Beck, Mr. Edward Emory, Mr Edmond Wilkins; Charles L. Dodd, funeral director.

Mr. George L. F. Copes, husband of the late Ella Copes, died at his late home, Baltimore, on Friday last, aged 85 years. The deceased was well known in Chestertown, where for years he and his wife visited at the home of his half-brother, Mr. J. B. McIntire. He leaves two children, Rev. Thomas Copes, and Mrs. George Robinson, of Baltimore. Also two half-brothers, Mr. J. B. McIntire, of Chestertown and Mr. Samuel McIntire, of Virginia.

StateRoadOpening

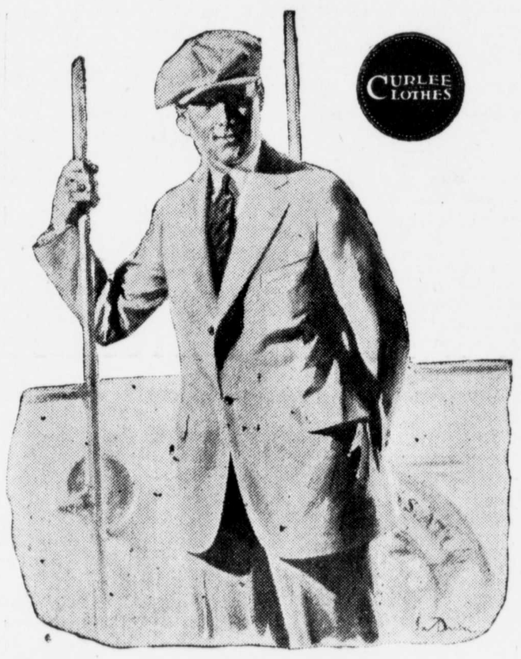

The opening of a new state road between Millington and Sudlersville will be the occasion for a big demonstration in Kent and Queen Anne's counties when Governor Ritchie and Chairman Mackall of the State Roads Commission will be present to assist in the ceremonies and deliver addresses. The new road furnishes the connecting link between Maryland and Delaware, giving to northern tourists a direct route to Ocean City and southern points by passing through Galena, Massey, and Millington, instead of going by way of Elkton and Chestertown as at present.

FIREWORKS

Go to NEWNAM'S MUSIC STORE for FIREWORKS.

Our store will be closed all day Saturday, July 4th. But we will be open late Friday evening, July 3rd, to accommodate our trade. On and after July 5 our store will close at 6 o'clock p. m. during the remainder of July and August. VANSANT & NEWSOME.
