SUGGESTION to TURKEY RAISERS

One of our successful turkey raisers called our attention to the fact that since the grass has gotten so dried up her turkeys are eating more feed and drinking more milk. In other words she is supplying what Nature in withholding, and her turkeys are living.

Do not cut the milk ration short, but buy powdered milk and also your turkey mash from METCALFE BROS.

This milk is being successfully used by Mrs. H. M. Baker.

Southern Guests

Mrs. Amy Gross and Mrs. May E. Douglass, sisters of Mrs. William Frazier Russell, Jr., who reside in the progressive and fast growing city of Birningham, Alabama, are making an extended tour of Western and Northern cities and at present are guests of William Frazier Russell, Esq., and Wife, of Chestertown. Kent people, largely southern in ancestry and sentiment, extend a hearty welcome to these guests from the heart of that county immortalized by eloquence of Grady and wish them a happy visit in our midst.

Wheat Threshing

A number of farmers have threshed their 1925 wheat crop in the county, and the yield has been good. The highest yield per acre we have heard of was Mr. Charles Nicholson and Mr. Thomas Maslin who got an average of 32 bushels. Some farmers report smut in their wheat which cut the yield and quality very much. Outside of the smut the condition of the wheat is fine and should receive the highest market price. Metcalfe Bros., and C. W. Kibler & Sons were offering $1.29 a bushel.

Gun Club Active

Enthusiasm is still running high in the Chestertown Gun Club and each shot sees more sportsmen and spectators than the last. The club has rented a lot from Mr. Leon Brown and are gradually making improvements for the convenience of the shooters. A number of our local sportsmen are improving in their shooting while others are not doing so well, but the club offers an opportunity to learn to shoot as well as the sport it affords.

Practice shoots for club members are held every Friday evening. A Prize shoot, Lewis plan, was held yesterday, Friday afternoon.

Fine Farms Sold

John D. Urie, attorney for Kent County Savings Bank sold the following farms in Queen Annes last Saturday. The farms belonged to the Emma B. Snitcher estate.

The Emma J. Catlin farm, situated on the public road from Barton's Corner to Union Church was sold to Water Hollingworth of near Queenstown for $8100. Mr. Hollingsworth will make this farm his home after January 1, 1926.

The Kibler farm near the state road from Chestertown to Church Hill was sold to Robert M. Subers, of Still Pond for $5200.

The Cosden farm on the road from Chestertown to Millington and tenanted by Charles H. McKee was sold to Col. Charles M. Lloyd for $8550. Mr. McKee is expected to continue as tenant.

Awarded Medal

It has just been announced that the annual gold metal offered by the Eastern Shore Dental Society for the best essay on "The Care of the Teeth" has been awarded to Francis Willson of Rock Hall High School. Elimination contests were first held in each of the nine Shore counties and the winners were entered in The Shore wide finals. Young Willson was adjudged the winner by a committee of Dental experts of the Caulk Dental Company of Milford, Delaware. At the last meeting of the Eastern Shore Dental Society Dr. H. Childs Hughes, of Chestertown, was elected a members of the Board of Governors of the Maryland State Dental Society and Dr. Charles F. Smith, of Salisbury was elected President of the Shore Society.

—County Farm Agent B. Derrick is watching the yield of the present large wheat crop in the county and will tabulate for the University of Maryland Experiment Station the results of a campaign conducted during the seeding and growing season for the production of more wheat per acre from given varieties of grain. Experiments have been conducted successfully during the year on a number of the farms throughout the county.

'Her Temporary Husband'
With OWEN MOORE, SYLVIA BREAMER, and SYDNEY CHAPLIN.

The story of a girl who married an old man on the brink of the grave, and who was too darn mean to tumble in so that she could get his money and the youthful beau of her choice. Oh! What a delightful mixup comedy. You'll roar at the fixup.
