THE AMERICAN PRESS ASSOCIATION

TRUE EASTERN SHORE hospitality was certainly manifested by the people of Ocean City, Maryland, during the meeting of the Delmarvia Press Association at "Maryland's City By The Sea," this week. Approxamately eighty members of the Association were entertained in a delightful manner by the Board of Trade of that place and the sessions were interspersed by enjoyment of the natural advantages afforded there. The people of the state in our opinion do not realize that all the pleasures of an ocean resort can be had in our own state at Ocean City and that it is not necessary for them to leave Maryland in order to find a pleasant ocean resort. Our present system of good roads makes this place accessable and the people in this section are beginning to visit Ocean City rather than such places at a distance. In line with the general slogan to patronize our home business interests, should go one to patronize our Maryland ocean resort rather than one outside the State.

Political Garden Party

Defeat of the Democratic party in the last two national elections was laid at the door of the party women by Mrs. Wilbur W. Hubbard, Eastern Shore chairman of the United Democratic Women's Clubs of Maryland.

Mrs. Hubbard gave a "political garden party" at her Colonial home, Wide-Hall, Chestertown last Friday. From as far south on the Shore as Salisbury, and as far north as Wilmington, Del., the clans gathered to discuss plans for next year's political battles.

Mrs. Hubbard in her address to the gathering said.

"The women of the South, before we had the vote, were largely anti suffrage. The women of the North furnished the greater number of the suffragists of the country.

"What has happened? Since the vote came to us, the Democratic party has been overwhelmingly defeated at two national elections.

"I want to ask the women if the fact that, when we were enfranchised, the Republican women got behind their leaders, worked with them and encouraged them by their enthusiasm. is not at least partially responsible for Democratic reverses in national elections?

"Haven't we been a millstone around the necks of our national leaders "

The speakers were Dr. Paul Titsworth, president of Washington College, Hon. Josiah Marvil, of Wilmington, Del., and Mr. Jay Williams, of Salisbury.
