PRESS ASSOCIATION.

MEETING OF DEL-MARVIA PRESS ASSOCIATION AT OCEAN CITY.

Governor Ritchie present

The annual meeting of the Del-marvia Press Association was held at Ocean City, Maryland, this week. Eight editors and publishers from Maryland, Delaware and Virginia attended. Governor Ritchie of Maryland, Governor Robinson of Delaware, T. Alan Goldsborough, Congressman John Phillip Hill and Comptroller W. S. Gordy were present.

A short meeting took place at 9.30 a. m., on Monday when the association was welcomed by Mayor W. W. McCabe of Ocean City, and by Congressman John Philip Hill, a resident of Ocean City at the present time. Response was made by President Ridgley Melvin of the Maryland Press Association and by President Edwin H. Brown, of Del-Mar-Via Association, Comptroller W.S. Gordy addressed the meeting and explained why certain payments toward the county and city school funds had not been made by the State. He also presented some interesting figure as to how the tax payers money is spent and as to how it is divided among the various institutions and branches of the state government.

In the afternoon the delegation was conveyed by boats down the Sineprexent Bay to "Eagle Nest" where they were the guests of Mr. W. H. Kearfott at a delightful crab feast.

At 8.00 p. m the Association, at a meeting presided over by Senator Orlando Harrison, of Worcester county was addressed by Governor Albert C. Ritchie of Maryland. The Governor expressed his pleasure at being present and boasted of the fact that he had not missed a meeting of the Association in five years. He called attention to the two greatest problems before the State at the present time, the conservation of fisheries, and the elimation of railroad grade crossings. He stated that work was being done at the present time toward definite plans of conservation and asked for the co-operation of the people of the state. He also said that every grade crossing in Maryland could be elimated at a cost of twenty million dollars. The present plan is to make the railroad companies pay half and raise the other half by a one cent tax on gasoline. The Governors speech was delivered in his usual pleasing manner and with many compliments to the Eastern Shore and to the Eastern Shore people.

Governor Robinson, of Delaware, spoke of the pride of Delaware in its wonderful state roads. He invited the citizens of Maryland to use them on all occasions, especially going to and from Ocean City. He complimented Worcester county and the lower peninsula on its beauty and prosperity and stated that if any of the inhabitants of Maryland left the State he hoped they would go no further than Delaware in making their homes.

Congressman T. Alan Goldsborough, in a very scholarly and interesting address, refuted the contention that the press is deteriorating and coming under the influence of outside powers and thereby losing its independence. He showed by an interesting study with conditions at a time fifty years ago how independan the press had become at the present time and how much more closely it guarded the public interests and the people in general and was less under the control of politicians and the money powers.

The Association, while at Ocean City, was the guest of the Board of Trade, Hotel proprietors and the people of that place. The members of the Association were given an opportunity to learn what a delightful place Maryland's only ocean resort really is and to appreciate its wonderful possibilities.

As a whole the meeting of the press association was a very delightful one largely due to the hospitality of Ocean City and its people.

Orphans' Court

The regular weekly session of the Irphans Court for Kent county was held on Tuesday, with Chief Judge E. A. Scott and associate Judges J. H. Thompson and D. K. Hudson present.

George R. Jones, gardian for Harry Galaway and James Galaway, passed his fifth guardian account. In the case of Harry Galaway, who became 21 on July 14, 1925, he passed his final papers.

Edward M. Wilkins, Executor of estates of Mary Wilkins, filed an inventory of the estate, which was examined, approved and ordered recorded.

Read this Chestertown case:

Mrs. Bertie Crouch, 111 S. College Avt., says: "I had such a miserable ache across my back I wasn't able to be on my feet. There was no let-up to my suffering day or night. Headaches almost drove me frantic and I was dizzy, too. My kidneys acted irregularly. I used Doan's Pills from Hudson's Drug Store and they quickly stopped the trouble."
