BIG DAY AT ST. JAMES

M. P. Church To Have Services All During The Day

Members of St. James Methodist Protestant Church are preparing to observe the one hundredth anniversary of the organization of the society on Wednesday, August 5, with an all-day service.

The centennial sermon will be delivered at 10.30 a. m. by the Rev. Dr. C. I. Humphries, president of the Maryland Conference.

The Rev. Dr. Sewell S. Hepbron, rector of old I. U. parish, which recently held dedicatory exercises commemorating the erection of a memorial concrete wall around the cemetery adjoining the church; the Rev. F. T. Little, of Baltimore; the Rev. George A. Morris, of Harrington, Del.; the Rev. H B. Jester, of Brooklyn, Md.; the Rev. Avery Donovan, of Fawn Grove, Pa., and other former pastors will have a part in the services of the day. as will Methodist Protestant ministers of the county.

St. James was formerly a Protestant Episcopal parish, but in 1825 it was purchased by a group of Methodist Protestants and has since been under that demomination.

Some of the most prominent ministers in the Maryland Conference, long since dead, were among the early pastors of the church, which at one time, with Chestertown and Kennedyville, as well as Wesley Chapel, near Rock Hall formed what is known as Kent circuit, and often in the olden days the ministers serving the charge traveled to these appointments on horseback. One of the interesting features of the celebration will be a collectiou of old papers, books. pictures and other relics of former days, which will be on display at the parsonage during the day.

The celebration is expected to bring together hundreds of former members and friends of the congregation living in Baltimore and other cities.

The Rev. Colvin Randall is the pastor of the church; H. Stockton Startt is president of the Christian Endeavor Society, one of the largest in the state, and Robert G. Nicholson is serving his seventeenth year as superintendant of the Sunday School. Ralph Usilton, a descendant of one of the organizers of the church, is chairman of the committee on arrangements.

Family Reunion

At a meeting of the Executive Committee in charge of the recurring Re-Union of the of the Davis, Kinder and Noble famlies, it was decided to meet at Old Bethel Church where the decendents of these pioneers met in a Re-Union for the first time forty years ago.

September 2, 1925 at 10.30 a. m. is the time selected when the following program will be rendered.

Rufus F. Noble, Esq., will preside; Harry W. Davis, Esq., will have charge of the music; Rev. J. H. Whedbee, of Seaford, Del., pastor at Bethel; and Rev. F. C. MacSorley, of Federalsburg, a former pastor, will give introductory addresses; others will give welcoming words; in addition to which a great-grandson of Ennals Davis, Rev. Charles Herbert Cannon of Hyattsville, Md. will deliver a special address.

A picnic lunch will follow the exercises of the seventh Re-Union of these families who settled around Bethel and Federalsburg in the 17th, century. In 1781 they united in building the ancient Church, the second dedicated to Methodism on this Peninsula. From far and near, the loyal descendents delight to gather on this sacred historic spot, cherishing and perpetuating the memories of the revered foreparents, and of what this ancient church stands for. Thus are strengthened the bonds of consanguinity of those of middle life, and hallowed the ties of relationship of rising generations.

Mrs. Robert W. Huey, of Chestertown, will represent the Noble family; Mrs. Philetus Jefferson, of Federalsburg, the Davis family, and Mrs. Ella C. Emory, of Seaford, the Kinder family.

Tomato Tour

The program of the Kent County Tomato Tour will be found in this issue. It will be held on August 4. A fine /program has been arranged and a most successful day is assured.

Farmers Day Picnic

The Kent County Farm Bureau and the Kent County Pomona Grange will hold their joint picnic at Tolchester on Thursday, August 13. This annual event is always a most pleasing one and big preparations have been made to make it most successful this year. A feature of the occasion will be a horse-shoe pitching contest.

Dead in Carriage

Walter Wells, a colored farm on on the farm of James Groves, near Kennedyville, was found dead in his team on the public road between Locust Grove and Chesterville Monday by the crew of a thershing rig. A number of teams had passed the man but thought he was asleep. Coroner Harry L. Dodd was summoned, and with Sheriff Goodman, he went to the place where the man was found, and after making an investigation determined that he was a victem of poisen liquor, as there were evidences of his having been under the influence of it. He was about 41 years old.

Another Tragedy

Kent experienced another tragedy when Merritt Collison, employed by Chance and Kirby, the local bakers, to drive their delivery wagon, was struck by the southbound Kent passenger train at Still Pond crossing. He died before reaching Easton hospital. He was 27 years old and was the son of Mr. and Mrs. Francis A. Collison, of Piney Neck. The deceased leaves, besides his parents, one sister, Viola May Collison; also grand parents, Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Ashley. The funeral was held Thursday at 2.00 p. m., from Piney Neck Church, Rev. T. S. Barrett, officiating. The bearers were Walter, Owen Clark, Willard and Carl Ashley, Arundel Ashley and James Benton. Interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Off For Camp

The local Sanitary Division left for camp last night, Friday. They went from Chestertown to Centreville by truck. From Centreville they go to Cape Charles by train then to Norfolk by ferry and Virginia Beach by train, arriving there about 7.30 p. m. tonight.
