VOL. LXVIII---NO 21. CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND, SATURDAY, AUGUST 15, 1925 $1.50 PER ANNUM

The Third National Bank

OF CHETERTOWN, MD.

The Only National Bank in Kent County

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

The Deposits of this Bank have increased over 103 per cent during the past Ten years, as shown below:

July 31, 1925, Our Deposits were.....$1,455.738.89
July 31, 1915,O urDeposits were..... 715,966.47

Making a Net Increase during past 10 yrs.$ 739,772.42

Please realize what this means. That not only have we held our Old Depositors, but that we have won New Friends.

And it is significant that the majority of these New Friends were introduced or influenced by our Old Patrons—proof again that True Friendship is its own reward. To us every Depositor is a Friend—to be recognized, greeted and aided at every opportunity. Not one day passes without our trying to make New Friends. We try to treat all our Customers with Courtesy, Kindliness and Consideration.

The test of over 35 years has proved the Strength, the Reliability, and the Usefulness of this Bank's Service to our Public. Each year finds our Organization growing, and serving better.

We are asking for Business on the Merits of our Institution.

Sincerely yours,

The Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md

Chautauqua Sunday

Sunday services will be held in the Chautauqua tent as usual, this year. Dr. Robert Mac Gowan, who will deliver "The Creed of Democracy" as the open lecture of Chautauqua on Saturday evening will also preach at the community Sunday service in the Chautauqua tent. Dr. Mac Gowan is pastor of the Bellevup Avenue Presbytreian Church of Pittsburgh. The Royal Welsh male quarette will sing also at the Sunday service.

Orphans' Court

Court met on Tuesday with Chief Judge Dr. Edward A. Scott and Associate Judges J. Henry Thompson and W. K. Hudson, present.

Talbot Brice filed application for scholarship to Washington College.

Inventory in the estate of Rufus H. Parks, was filed, examined and approved.

Final order of ratification of sale of real estate of Henry Brown, Executor of estate of Philip E. Lively, examined and approved.

Chautauqua Begins Today

The 1925 chautauqua said to be the best series of entertainments yet given here since it was organized, will begin this evening at 3 p. m. Everyone should see Chautauqua. It is the biggest intellectual treat served here during the year. To duplicate it, as a whole, would require days of travel and much money. Tickets are $2 50 and $1.00. The price of each performance is 21 cents. Every lover of Chautauqua could buy their season ticket before the first entertainment begins. After that, the proceeds go to the company, while the guarantors are compelled to make up any deficit.

Strang Case Attracting Attention

The case of Prof. A. P. Strang, principal of Rock Hall School, is attracting considerable attention, and will be heard before the Kent county School Board next Wednesday afternoon. The charges have been filed with the School board in a petition signed by 112 citizens residing in and near Rock Hall. Professor Strang has retained counsel and will make a fight to exonerate himself from all charges. The School Board, who will decide the issue, is composed of Harry Davis, of Kennedyville; E. R. Skirven, of Fairlee; and Robert R. Hill, of Kennedyville. William F. Russell, Jr. Esq., will represent those making the charges, while H. W. Vickers, Esq., will represent Professor Strang.

Brother Shoots Brother

The tragedy of Cain and Abel came near being enacted in its entirely in Morgec Monday night, when Frank Johnson, colored, fell before a shot gun in the hands of his brother, Thomas Johnson. About a hundred shot entered the man in various parts of his body from his head down. The shooting occurred after an argument over a woman. The wounded man was taken to Easton Hospital.

Sheriff Goodman was at once notified, and accompanied by his deputy and Mr. Jack Jester he went the scene of the shooting. He at once organized a man hunt by deputizing about fifty colored men, who scoured the neighborhood for the man who had done the shooting.

Johnson was discovered in a corn field, where he was surrounded and caught under an old reaper. He offered no resistance. His brother will probably recover.

Marriage Licenses

A marriage license was issued this week at the Clerk's office to Miss Lucille Mowbray, of Cambridge, and Mr. Everett Vulf, of Vineland, N. J.

Turkey Meeting

There will be a meeting on Tuesday afternoon, August 25th, at the home of Mrs. Harold Baker in Quaker Neck to discuss "Diseases of Turkeys." The meeting will start promptly at 1:30 p. m. All those interested in turkey raising are invited to be present.

This meeting is being planned by Susan V. Hill, Home Demonstration Agent, at the request of women interested in the turkey industry.

Opens Monday

The gunning season will open Monday, when it will bbe lawful to kill yellowlegged, black hearted and golden plower. On Sept. 1, squirrels, doves rail, and reed birds can be killed. The ducking season will open on November 1, and the quail, woodcock and rabbit season will open on Novembber 10. Game is reported plentiful in all parts of the state.

Swim At Rolphs

The swimming event at Ralphs wharf Wednesday was a big success. The main features were matched with interest. The 50 yard swimming match was won by Eddie Williams, of Connecticut, now staying at Betterton. The other participants were Billy Usilton and Jack Nickerson. The fancy diving contest was won by the same swimmer.

Oyster Packing Regulations

The State department of health has laid down strict rules and regulations governing the operation of Oyster shucking and packing houses.

These regulations are enforced to prevent a recurrence of the shadow that fell upon the oyster business of the state of Maryland and threatened to almost wreck that industry. The body of the regulations is cleanliness of the employees, the utensils and packing facilities.

These regulations, while thy seem very stringent may serve to make Chesapeake Bay Oyster Industry one of the leading industries of the country.

Migration To Florida

Like unto the gold rush to Californ in 1849 will be the migration to Florida this fall. Chestertown and the whole of Kent County will feel the effect of this migration as a large number of our citizens have already made preparations to spend the winter in the Southland.

Some of them will go for the purpose of spending the winter in a mild climate others for the trip and excitement but most of them will go to seek their fortune in a land that is booming beyond human conception.

Will not those who stay home in Kent and enjoy the change in climate from summer to winter and partake of the winter sports, be better off. This remains to be seen.

Accidents on Shore

Three persons were killed and seven injured in accidents on the Eastern Shore over the week-end. None of the injured is in a serious condition.

The dead are: George C. Hall, Salisbury, body mutilated by train; Harold Hitchins, Georgetown, Del., killed in auto crash, and Miss Della Spicer, Harbeson, Del., drowned following auto accident.

The mangled form of George C. Hall, 65, a farmer, of Salisbury was found on the Pennsylvania Railroad tracks opposite Union Station by the crew of a freight Saturday night. The injured man was taken to the Peninsula General Hospital where he died. One foot had been amputated, a leg broken and the body bruised.

Returned To Fight

Shortly after returning to his home in Chestertown from the Maryland House of Correction, where he had spent 18 months for an assault upon Mabel Freeman, colored, Wilbur Groves, Negro, went to the home of the woman who lives near Massey and renewed the attack, but was prevented from inflicting serious injury upon the woman by bystanders. Sheriff Goodman was notified and with Deputy Sheriff John T. Jester and Constable Adolphus Davis and three other men of Millington, they undertook to run down the Negro in the woods and surrounding country. He lead the officers a merry chase and finally made his escape into Delaware after a number of shots had been fired to halt him. The Delaware authorities have been notified.
