LOCAL MATTER

—Kent's canneries are new in full blast.

—The Lyceum Theatre is now open to the public.

—Sudlersville's appendicitis victims now number thirty.

—A troupe of Baltimore Boy Scouts are camping at the Loud farm near town.

—The Chester River is again without a steam boat, the General Lincoln having discontinued its trips.

—Looking brown and healthy, the local medical detachment of the Maryland National Guard is back from encampment at Virginia Beach.

—Herbert E. Perkins sold at public sale the past week the Vaughn farm of 111 acres to Lewis I Atwell of near Massey for $7,050.

—Signs about the main streets of Chestertown, pointing the way the the ferries at Rock Hall and Tolchester are a big convenience.

George F. Benton has purchased from Wm. T. Boskill, the latter's property situated near Cliff's school house in Quaker Neck. Price $1600.

—Harvey Freeman, of Chestertown, was painfully injured when he fell from the porch of a house on the farm of Col. Charles Lloyd, of Chestertown recently.

—The Town Electric Light and Power Co. advertise in this issue that Electric Light service will be cut off on Sunday, August 23rd, from 5 a. m. to 6 p. m., due to the erection of a new smoks stack.

—Everyone interested in making a success of the Fireman's Carnival, to be held the latter part of September, is urged to attend an open meeting in Fireman's Hall, next Monday, August 24, at 8.00 p. m. The ladies are especially requested to be present.

—On page 2 will be found a pen picture of beautiful "Worton Manor," the home of the Maxwell family. This will be found interesting, not only to those who are interested in the beauty spots of Kent, but also those who remember the place as a pleasure resort and rendezvous of picknickers.

—The efficiency of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company was again demonstrated on Wednesday afternoon when a lighted cigarette, thrown from the Assembly Hall of the Elementary School building, set fire to a barn of Mr. A. H. Covey during the school case hearing. Very little damage was done.

—The Queen Anne's County Horse Show will be held in Centreville on August 29. A number of Kent horsemen will have entries, among whom are Howard Strong, two; Wilbur Hubbard, Two; Harry Nichols; William Toulson; William French; Miss Alberta Brice. Sheen's Cavalry will be present. In past years Kent county has carried off most of the prizes at these shows.

Swam Across Bay

Miss Lillian Cannon, 22 years old, of Baltimore, swam the Cheesapeake from Tolchester to Bay Shore Park on Thursday. She was ten hours and forty-five minutes in the water. The distance is about twelve miles, but it is estimated that the swimmer traveled twenty-one miles. Miss Cannon alternated between three strokes, using a breast stroke largely, and an English overhead stroke when the going became hard. Taken altogether, it was a wonderful feat.

Twilight Comes Quickly.

But there is enough light left after the day's work is through to fix that broken step, put in that broken pane, do that little bit of painting and a lot of other little jobs it has been too hot to start during the summer.

The Camera of the year

No. 1A Pocket Kodak

Series II

(Focusing Model)

Equipped with Diomatic Shutter and Kodak Anastigmat lens f.7.7.

Pictures 2½ x 4¼

$26

By a simple lever mechanism, the front snaps instantly into picture position—ready for business. This Kodak is equipped with the Kodak Anastigmat lens f.7.7. and Diomatic shutter, four speeds, 1/10 to 1/100 second.

There's a sliding, timing scale to fit the exposure to the light. A finger-tip turn of the lens mount sets the focus.

This superior lens and shutter combination means better timed, sharper negatives—the evidence is plain in the prints.

The No. 1A Pocket Kodak is on display at our store. Come in and look it over.
