LOCAL MATTER

—Some fine pictures are now being shown at the Lyceum Theatre.

—Mr. Cyrus G. Howard has purchased from Mrs. M. E. Duyer the dwelling on High street extended.

—Dr. H. C. Hughes took a big party of friends to Rock Hall for a fishing trip during the week-end.

—Prof. A. Roy Woodland's valuable bird dog was killed by an automobile on Tuesday.

—Terrapins have about disappeared from local waters, where once they were so plentiful.

—The last late boat of the season at Tolchester made the trip on Monday evening.

The hunting sason for dove, plover and squirrel opens in Kent county on Monday.

—The current at the electric light plant will be off on Sunday from 5 a. m. until 6 p. m.

—Messrs. Lambert Brothers are painting "Worton Manor," the handsome home of the Maxwell family.

—George F. Benton has purchased from William T. Baskill the latter's property near Cliffs School in Quaker Neck. Price $1600.

—A clinic for diseases of the chest will be conducted in the health center at Chestertown at 10:30 a. m., on Monday, September 7.

—Truck No. 1 and crew of the Chestertown Fire Company attended the parade in connection with the Elkton Carnival last night.

—The annual cruise of the Eastern Shore Society, of Baltimore will begin September 18, using the steamer Annapolis for the trip.

—Local crabbers are catching large numbers of crabs in the Chester River, which seems to be getting more plentiful than for several years at this time.

—The somewhat haxardous work of painting Lyceum Theatre is now being undertaken and when completed will add to the general appearance of the building.

—The Fire Company was called out Monday morning when a leaky gas pipe became ignited at the home of Thomas Clements on Mill street. Little damage was done.

—The Jas. W. Cook Company Chain Stores have purchased the meat business of Mr. Robert Moffett, of Chestertown. Mr. Moffett will be the manager of the store.

—The Eliason Motors, Inc., announce by advertisement in this issue many noticeable changes in the new Fords, which will be here in about ten days. The price will be the same.

—The Chautauqua will have 104 guarantors next year. Mr. Robert R. Huey, cashier of the Third National Bank, was elected chairman of the Chautauqua for next year.

—The automobile truck of Capt. Benny Wilson was somewhat damaged Tuesday on the hill near the gate of Mr. Lew. Skirven when run down by another car.. No one was injured.

—Mr. J. Frank Ford, driver of Huber bread wagon, was in an automobile accident recently being thrown through the windshield and badly cut. After being taken to Easton hospital, he returned to his home.

—Negotiations are still in progress for the purchase of Mr. Vernon Barnett's bus line to Tolchester. It is reported that Mr. Barnett and son have been offered the management here.

—Tomatoes are being received at the local wharves in large quantities. There are four and five boats at the wharves continually to receive the tomatoes. Buyers are paying 30 cents per basket.

—Dr. H. P. Copeland and Mr. Elwood Baker collided in their cars on the state road near Goose Hill on Monday morning. Mrs. Baker was slightly injured, while Dr. Copeland's car was somewhat damaged.

—Mr. Walter T. Pippin, contractor and builder, has been awarded a contract to build a bungalow for Edward Gilespie at Sudlersville. Mr. Pippin is now finishing a handsome home for Mrs. Roberts in Sudlersville.

—Mrs. Josephine Morris, widow of the late Harvy Morris, has purchased of Mr. Alfred Crouch the home one-half mile from Worton now occupied by Mr. Crouch. It has about six acres of land and a house and outbuildings.

—State Forester F. W. Beasley was on the Eastern Shore last week. The primary object of his visit was to measure the trees entered for competition in the State-Wide Tree contest of the Maryland Forestry Association.

—The Bramble Poultry Farm is preparing to erect an addition to their incubator house, where they will install several new incubators. This addition will be made of fancy concrete blocks, and will serve as an office and packing room, as well as a hatchery. Duyer Brothers will do the work.

—Mosquitoes have become such a nuisance in Elkton that the Town Commissioners have engaged Randolph Fields to make a survey of the town under the direction of Dr. John Collison, of the Department of Health, in order to reduce the mosquito nuisance. House-holders are being shown the breeding places on their premises and all persons are requested to co-operate by emptying all rain barrels, tin cans or any receptacles which hold water in places where it is impractical to get rid of the water, a spraying with oil will kill the lava and deminish the mosquito crop.
