One Year For Bigamy

Two women whom John R. Sparks of Sudlersville, had married on Tuesday left the criminal courtroom together after he had pleaded guilty to bigamy and had been sentenced by Judge H. Arthur Stump to a year in the Penitentiary. In 1913 Sparks married Mattie Jester in Queen Anne's county, Maryland, and they have one child. On January 23, 1923, he married Annie K. Jarrell in Baltimore. They separated in April, 1924. Sparks, it was said, is understood to have thought he was divorced automatically from his first wife, from whom he had been separated seven years.
