Tomato Prices

The price for tomatoes this week has been ranging from 20 to 30 cents a basket on the open market and thousands of baskets are being shipped daily from Kent, besides the large quantities that are being canned in our local canneries.

While Kent tomatoes are reported to be below pair as to quality this year the crop throughout this section of the country is in the same condition and our tomatoes stand high in compairson.

Blackleg In Kent

Dr. G. Allen Jarman, Chestertown's veternarian, recently discovered a most unusual condition in a heifer belonging to a Quaker Neck farmer, which finally caused its death. Dr. Jarman cut an ear from the animal and sent it to the proper authorities in Washington, who pronounced the infection black leg. This disease is one of the worst scourages among cattle of the western ranges, and this discovery marks its first appearance in Kent for seven years, when several deaths occurred among Quaker Neck cattle.

Mrs. Miller was cut slightly about the head and a number of stitches were taken in the leg of one of the children.

PRIZE SHOOT

Chestertown Gun Club Held Shoot Friday

The Chestertown Gun Club held a prize trap shoot at their range, one mile below Chestertown, Friday, September 4th. Although the enthusiasm shown was not as keen as at past shoot, probably due to the open gunning season, a number of good shoots were made. Mr. Kauffman, of the Kauffman Construction Co., won 1st. prize in the 1st. class, and Mr. R. R. Roberts won 1st. prize in the second class. The results were as follows:—Kauffman 129—106; R. R. Roberts 87 74; A. Bacon 15—12; B. Metcalf 74 43; H. Derringer 108—84; Kratzer 42 26; E. Wilkins 20—12; J. W. Atwell 25—20; J. Metcalf 25—13.

KENT WINS

Raymond Gozman And Walter Biggers Win Horse-Shoe Pitching Contest

One of the events at Timonium Fair this week in which Kent Countians were very much interested was the Horse-Shoe pitching contest on Wednesday afternoon.

Having won the county contest at the Farmer's Picnic this team, composed of Raymond Gosman and Walter Biggers with John Atwell and Harry Williams, alternates, were chosen to represent Kent county at the state-wide contest at Timonium Fair.

In the elimination contest, Kent won every game but one, and when it came to the finals, Kent and Dorchester were the opponents. In the final game of the contest excitement was great as the score was 20 to 20 and Dorchester had a ringer around the peg. Kent overcame this handicap by putting a ringer on top of the one on the peg. Again Dorchester rung the peg and again Kent topped it. Kent finally won out and brought home a beautiful gold medal, declaring them champions of the state.
