Getting Ready For Carnival.

Big Preparations Being made For Local Firemen's Benefit

Big preparations are being made for the big Firemen's Carnival, which will be held in Chestertown, beginning next Friday night, September 25th, and lasting until Saturday October 3.

Arrangements have been perfected for the appearance on Saturday night, September 26th, of the Baltimore Evening Sun's News Boys Band, composed of sixty pieces. This band has a national reputation.

In addition to this feature, a mammoth parade, with many visiting fire companies, with equipment, firemen and bands from nearby Delaware and Maryland towns, competing for four silver loving cups, will take place, Tuesday evening, September 29th.

Work is being pushed rapidly on or about twenty booths. A merry-go-round and whip will also be on the grounds.

The proceeds of the whole affair will be used for the benefit of the Chestertown Volunteer Fire Company, which is doing much good work.

A Good Donation

The other day a publicly spirited individual appeared before a Washington College official with a check for $1000. He stated it was a free will contribution to the endowment campaign. In as much as this splendid donation was wholly unsolicited and came merely because the donor sensed the great value of the work being done by the Shore college and the importance of perpetuating its activities, the gift was doubly significent. Needless to say it was also appreciated by the College authorities and if nine more such farsighted persons would, during the next few weeks, duplicate this gift it would mean the goodly sum of $10,000 that would greet Dr. Perry, his return from his European travels. Here is something to think over but not to think over for too long!

No Water Shortage

Following the drouth of the past few weeks residents of Chestertown need have no fear of a water shortage of profer precautions are taken against excessive waste, says Charles S. Smith, superintendent of the Chestertown water works. Chestertown is indeed fortunate in having an ample supply of good water, while in other parts of the country the shortage is getting serious.

Robinson as conductor on the Kent branch of the Pennsylvania Railroad. Mr. Jones has served twenty-one years with the railroad and took charge of the local train last week. Mr. Robinson has served faithfully as baggage master and then as conductor on the Kent Train and his many friends here wish both himself and his successor unlimited success in their work.

Held For Arson

Frank Fowle, colored, head cook at Washington College, was lodged in jail here by Detective Dougherty of the Baltimore police force, and Sheriff Goodman, of this county, on the charge of setting fire to his home in Santiago a Negro settlement of the town, about a month ago. He was given a hear. g and old such an incoherent story as to his movements following the fire that he was held on a charge of arson, after a number of witnesses testified to having seen Fowler in Chestertown the morning following the fire although he leclared he was in Virginia when the house was burned.

Cattle Judging Winners

Three counties, Montgomery, Harford and Kent, will each have an agricultural club boy on the team that will uphold Maryland's reputation as a State that knows good dairy cattle at the National Dairy Show at Indianapolis October 10 to 17. Ralph Walker, Gaithersburg; Arthur P. Dunningan, Pylesville, and Stanley G. Sutton, Chestertown, have been announced as the winners in the State dairy cattle-judging contest at the Timonium Fair last week and have been awarded the prize trip to Indianapolis, where they will compete against teams from other States in the national junior dairy cattle-judging contest.
