THE TOMATO situation has develoed into a serious matter with those growers who did not contract for the sale of their crop, but went on the open market. The highest price paid the past week was 20 cents and the lowest price 10 cents per basket. The tenant farmer cannot break even at these prices and it means a heavy loss to him, many of whom can ill afford to stand the loss.

THE CHESTERTOWN FIRE Company Carnival which opens in Chestertown Friday night next deserves the hearty support of every citizen of Chestertown and the surrounding country. Not only does the fire company protect our homes and property in Chestertown, but they answer any and all calls for help in this and neighboring Queen Anne's county without one cent of costs to those in need of their services. The Chestertown Volunteer Fire Co. is a company of free service. Not one cent is paid them—yet they give their time, their services, their efforts free to those in need of help in time of disaster. What more could be asked or desired? Give them your hearty cooperatfon and help push the carnival along and make it a great success.

GOVERNOR RITCHIE UNCERTAIN

Governor Albert C. Ritchie, in an address at Hotel Braddock in Frederick Tuesday night stated that he did not know what his attitude was to be about either the Governorship or the Senatorship.

"Personally, with respect to another term, no matter what anyone may say to the contrary, I have been doing and am doing nothing; I have asked and am asking no one's support," the Governor asserted.

"So far as I am personally concerned I simply prefer to decide nothing and to do nothing for the present, but to await developments until the winter months. That seems to me the best course for everybody from every point of view. At all events, it is going to be my course.

"Party sentiment will crystallize around someone for each of these offices. The air will clarify and some Democrat will stand out as the man best fitted for the party's nomination for Governor and another as the man best fitted for party's nomination to the Senate.

WEDDINGS

The wedding of Miss Hazil Virginia Reed, formerly of Chestertown, to Mr. Robert Livingstone Regnolds, of Chester, Pa., occurred in that city on September 12th.

A pretty home wedding was solemnsant was united in marriage to Mr. Harman H. Davidson, of Wilmington, Del., by the Rev. T. S. Barrett, pastor of Graie Chapel, Piney Neck, at the home of the brde's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Harry Vansant, near Rock Hall on September5.

Miss Irene Anna Schwartz, daughter of Mrs. Mabel Schwartz Rowe, and Mr. Harry Elias Matthews, son of Mr. and Mrs. Morgan Matthews, of Baltimore, were married Tuesday moring at the M. E. Parsonage in Baltimore by Rev. Jeager.

Tomato Situation

Many Kent Farmers are selling their tomatoes below the cost of production and at present there is no relief in sight. The piece on the open market has been ranging from 10 to 15 cents a basket, and in this price the farmer has paid 4 or 5 cents for picking aside from the cost of plants, fertilizer, labor and hauling. Those who have contracted are doing much better as they are getting this contract price of 25 and 30 cents per baskets.

The londitions are just the reverse of last year when the open market was paying 50 and 60 cents while the contractors were getting 25 and 30 cents. In neighboring counties we hear of contractors who are disregarding their contracts and are buying on te open markets, but so far relations between contractor and farmer in Kent county are harmonious and canneries are running full force.

The co-operative canneries at Fairlee and Rock Hall, are running full force although slighly handicaped by lack of labor. These canneeries are storing their pack in every available storage place in the neighborhood, and are holding for a better price for the canned goods which isb ound to come.

Interment in Church Hill cemetery. W. T. Hicks, undertaker

While on a recent visit to Betterton, Nelson R. McClees, seven-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Nelson P. McClees was taken suddenly ill. He was removed to the Delaware hospital in Wilmington, where he died shortly after his admission. Death was due, it is believed to an infection of the stomach.

Albert Jervis received news this week of the sudden death of his sister in-law, Mrs. Edward Jervis, at her home in Chester, Pa. Mrs. Jervis was engaged in household duties at a window overlooking a fire escape at her home when, it was believed, she was seized with a vertigo and fell through the fire escape to the ground. Her neck was fractured, death resulting instantly. The deceased had been a guest in the home of her brother-in-law at Still Pond last week.

To Increase Tax Basis

County Treasurer George Sutton has been directed by the State Tax Commission to add a very considerable amount to the assessable basis of the county on the ground that Kent countians own a large quantity of securities not heretofore charged against them on the county books. Stock owned by Kent countians in corporations located in other States is assessable, the State Tax Commission says. The County Treasurer has been directed to add the value of these securities to the assessable total of the owners for the current year. It is believed that the ruling of the State Tax Commission will place a considerable sum at the disposal of the Board of County Commissioners and may mean an additional appropriation for the county schools, whose supermtendent recently asked for an additional appropriation.

He Likes Chestertown People

The Soldiers of the Cross had a very pleasant farewell in honor of their Sunday School teacher, Gustaf L. Linstead, at the home of Mr. Julian Coleman on Monday evening, Aug. 31. A very pleasant evening was spent and refreshments were served by the class. Mr. Linstead was presented with a silver flower vase. In a letter to the Transcript he says: "I wish to extend a hearty thank to the Soldiers of the Cross and to all friends in Chestertown, who in any way contributed to making our stay in Chestertown more pleasant. I assure you it is hard to find a place with so fine a crowd of people as that of Chestertown. I again express my hearty thanks.
