FIRST OF IMPROVED FORDS ARRIVE HERE

Cars Most Attractive, With Longer, Lower Bodies—Many Other Refinements—Better Brakes

First of the improved Ford cars to arrive in Chestertown went on display Friday, Sept, 11th, in the show rooms of Eliason Motors, Inc., local authorized Ford dealer, and immediately attracted the attention of everyone.

To say that people who saw the car were surprised at its appearance would be putting it rather mildly. The new types exceed all expectations in improved appearance and more comfort and convenience. For the most part the bodies have been completely redesigned and conform in every respect to the most advanced features of body construction.

Not only have bodies been built lower, but they are set on a lower chassis frame and with larger, low hanging fenders impart to the complete car a striking suggestion of riding and driving ease.

While Eliason Motors, Inc., has been able so far only to show improved touring, other types will be shown as quickly as they can be obtained from the Ford Motor Company branch at Philadelphia, where, because of their popularity, demands on production, are somewhat delaying immediate delivery of all types of cars.

—The advertisement of Mr. C. C. Hopper, formerly an editor of The Transcript, appears in this issue. Mr. Hopper represents the New York Life Insurance Company, which has been in existence eighty years and is one of the strongest life insurance companies in existence. Mr. Hopper is well and favorably known in Kent County, where he has the confidence and esteem of our people. We wish him much success.

BIG FIRE AT PRICES

Cannery Destroyed and Other Buildings Threatened—Chestertown Fire Company Responds

Fire destroyed the canning plant and warehouse of Beaven-Johnson Canners Inc., at Price, Tuesday morning. The blaze, which also damaged the freight house of the Pennsylvania Railroad and the cooling station of the Harbison Dairies Company, caused a loss estimated at $75,000.

The fire, which was discovered about 7.00 a. m. in the warehouse of the canning concern by an employee, spread rapidly. The Good Will Fire Company of Centreville, the Community Fire Company, of Millington and the Chestertown Fire Company were called. With the cannery buildings the pack of string beans and tomatoes was lost.

The Beaven-Johnson concern was at the height of its tomato-packing season and the plant was filled with raw fruit, which was also destroyed. Twenth-five thousand cases of canned goods were ruined in the warehouse.

The blaze spread to the freight-house of the Pennsylvania Railroad three times, but this building was but slightly damaged. The cooling station although slightly damaged, was saved from destruction due the fact that several steel freight cars were between it and the burning buildings. These cars were loaded with canned goods from the Swing Cannery, another cannery also located at Price.

Teachers Meet

Kent teachers are in a three-day session this week, a full program of which appears elsewhere. Prof. E. C. Walters, of the State Normal School, is giving a course in geography during all three days. Members of Emmanuel Church Chestertown, please note. On Wednesday Sept. 23, at 7.30 Litany Service, some of the most important of the suggested changes for the Prayer Book will be laid before the Congregation for their consideration and opinion. Many of the proposed changes are of minor importance, but some are drastic, not to say revolutionary. Every church member should know what changes are being suggested, and if opposed to them should register his opinion before they are put into effect.

Interesting Guest

Turner and family, has just returned from a six weeks' visit to the Canadian summer camp of Dr. Howard Kelly of Johns Hopkins University. The domain of the famous surgeon comprises 500 acres in the Canadian wilds and has five miles of water front. One interesting feature of the place is a group of fifteen buildings for the accomodation of Dr. Kelly's family and his summer guests. Mr. Hepbron, who is a close friend of the renowned physician, reports the fact that Dr. Kelly has the widest fund of information on the general subject of natural science of any scientific man in America. Mr. Hepbron is a native of Worton, this county.
