Some things- money cannot buy

For all its much vaunted power money can buy neither health--true friendship nor a reputation for business integrity.

Our reputation for absolute honesty in business has been Twenty Years in the making. We stake it on every purchase you make in "The store with a conscience."

We cannot afford to take chances with our well-earned reputation. You do not want to take chances with your money. Our absolute guarantee of satisfaction is your protection and ours.

1845 NEW YORK LIFE INSURANCE CO. 1925

Our Eightieth Anniversary Should Be An Event of Interest to Many Kent Countians by Reason of Their Membership.

A COMPANY THAT HAS PROSPERED FOR EIGHTY YEARS.

THROUGHOUT DEPRESSION AND PANIC, WAR AND EPIDEMIC

A YOUNGSTER IN 1845--ONE OF THE GREATEST IN 1925

This is a Policy Holder's Company--Its Strength and Security Are Unrivaled--Its Assets Belong to the POLICY HOLDERS

There Are No Stockholders to Derive One Cent of the Profits Which Alone Belong to the Policy Holders.

THIS is therefore, the year we CELEBRATE, and in doing so, ask the assistance of our policyholders by either increasing their OWN holdings, or by suggesting to others to follow their wise example.

If Insurance affords YOU comfort in its protection, why not endeavor to secure this blessing for your friends? If you would aid your neighbor in sickness or DISTRESS, would you not be willing to at least suggest A MEANS by which financial affliction could be prevented?

CHILDREN from 10 years of age, who are insurable, can get policies and a great many parents of boys and girls are taking advantage of the opportunity to give them a START in life, and thus encourage in them a spirit of THRIFT and INDEPENDENCE.

The New York Life aims to SERVE you, by protecting your FAMILY, your ESTATE, and YOUR OWN OLD AGE, and the unprecedentedly large dividends declared, enables it to do so, at the LOWEST COST consistent with PERFECT SAFETY.
