HOPE H. BARROLL DEAD.

A Brilliant Lawyer and a Keen Financier.

Mr. Hope H. Barroll, prominent lawyer and banker of this town, died on Tuesday at Chestertown. Mr. Barroll has been in failing health for sometime. His death was a great shock to the community. The deceased was born in Chestertown in 1860. He attended the schools here and later studied at St. John's College, Annapolis. After leaving St. John's College he attended Washington College, from which institution he graduated in 1878. Several years after graduating from college he began the practice of law and was admitted to the local bar shortly thereafter. Mr. Barroll soon acquired one of the largest practices on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. He was one of the most distinguished lawyers of the state as a perusal of the Md. Court of Appeals reports will show. His brilliant mind, keen intellect and business abilty was felt throughout the state and his legal talent was recognized and respected by the members of his own profession with whom he came in contact. Mr. Barroll took a keen interest in the affairs of the commmunity and was an important factor in the political affairs of the county and state.

He was one of the first political leaders of the country to endorse Woodrow Wilson for President and was in close touch with the Wilson Administration. He was an able financier and honesty and integrity were always his standard. He would not tolerate at anytime anything of a dishonest character. He did many charitable acts during his life, and many of his deeds of kindness are known only to the recipients of his bounty. Much of his legal work was in aid of those who were in meager circumstances which he did without pay. He will be greatly missed in the community in every walk of life.

In the death of Mr. Barroll the world has lost a man of rare ability and power. He was a lawyer of the old school and regarded the interest of each client as his very own. He exercised a great influence for good throughout Kent and adjoining counties where people regarded him as a bulwark of defense againstt the evil doer. He stood always for justice and right and his influence was felt by all who came in touch with him.

His death was a direct outcome of continued ill health through eight long years through which time he struggled manfully to fulfill his every duty. He was a most successful banker and his life was one of devoted service to his family. He had a remarkable personality with his strength of will, his humor, his old fashioned sweet curtesy and hospitality and his love of children and their adoration of him. Few have such a personality to remember in the passing of those older than ourselves. He will remain vivid while less strong characters will fade.

He was decended from English ancestry of distinction. The first American fore-father having been Reverend William Barroll who was a graduate of St. Johns College, Cambridge University, England, who came from there directly to Cecil County where he spent his life as rector of St. Stephens Parish. He was a thirty-three degree Mason and after coming to the province of Maryland returned to England in order to have this highest degree conferred.

Mr. Barroll was the son of John Leeds Barroll and Elleanora Keene Horsey and decends from many eminent Maryland families including the Leeds, Bozmans, Tilghmans, Wilmers, Ringgolds, Horseys, Williamsons, Ennals and Hands families. Mr. Barroll married Margaret Spencer Wethered in 1888, whose family has always enjoyed a high position in this community.

The deceased was essentially a family man, and his four sons, L. Wethered Barroll, a prominent lawyer of Baltimore, Morris K. Barroll, secretary of the Silver Ray Light Corporation, Hope H. Barroll, Jr., member of the brokerage firm of Barroll, Cochran & Co., of Baltimore, and John W. Barroll, a lawyer of Chestertown, are a worthy tribute to the love and care of a devoted father.

Funeral services were held from his late home Thursday afternoon, conducted by Rev. C. L. Atwater, of Emmanuel P. E. Church, Chestertown and Rev. Mr. Lewis, of Shrewsbury church, in which cemetery he was laid to rest.

The bearers, George D. Lofland, James E. Morris, Harry Nichols, D. Thomas Hurlock, Harry Bolton, and Linwood C. Sutton, are directors of the Citizens Bank, of which institution the deceased was president.

Wm. T. Hicks was the undertaker.

—The auto if Mr. Laurence Brown, driven by Mr. Calvin Hastings, broke through a board on Chester River bridge Thursday evening and was somewhat damaged.

"SECRETS"

The picture the years will never let you forget.

What is the power that some dramas have to move the heart strings in beating tempo with story? Few know. But once in a long time an indefinable charm appears—inspiration—a something that moves to tears, to laughter, to happiness—just such an inexplicable fascination springs from this—the secrets of a wife laid bare in an all compelling photodrama—portrayed by the screen's perfect lovers—Norma Talmadge and Eugene O'Brien.

Also Comedy.

"SUNDOWN"

The Great American Drama

The powerful and inspiring story of the conquest of our vast West—the rise and fall of the Cattle Kings—their lives, their loves, their fears, their hates, their passions—the human fires that impelled our race to fight and conquer—the same impulses that still stir our own hearts today—picturized in the dramatic and historic setting of the gigantic drive of 100,000 cattle across the Texan border—an epoch of American life that is compelling, fascinating, breath taking.

Also Harry Langdon in "Smile Please."
