THIS COMMUNITY, and in fact the entire state, was shocked Tuesday when it was learned that Hope H. Barroll was found in a dying condition in his law office in Chestertown. Mr. Barroll has, perhaps, had the most remarkable career of any citizen of this commonwealth in the past century. He was a man of unflinching courage under most trying circumstances, a man true to a large clientage and to many warm friendships, a brilliant lawyer and a keen financier. Many are those who have received free legal advice, service and financial aid at his hands. In our close friendly relations with him for over thirty years we have found him a man who never for a moment gave encouragement or aid to a questionable transaction—rather would he condemn in forceful terms any attempt that did not savor of truth and honesty. A courageous man, a brilliant lawyer, a great financier and a power of strength has passed from us leaving a vacuum in our midst that will be hard to fill. Upon the bier of Hope H. Barroll we lay the above tribute.

DEATHS

After an illness from a complication of diseases which has lasted for several years, Mr. Curtis E. Crane, one of the most widely known men of the County, died at his home in Chestertown on Monday. He was 75 years old.

Mr. Crane was a native of Queen Anne's county, but in early life moved to Baltimore, where he and his brother were engaged in the carpeting business. He retired from the Baltimore business and moved to St. Michaels, Talbot county, where he resided for several years, and then moved to Chestertown, where he and his two nephews, William and Thomas Trenchard, organized and operated the Chestertown Basket Factory. Mr. Crane later became the sole owner.

Several years ago he sold control of the factory to the Marvel Packing Company, retaining, however, a portion of the stock. For the last four years he had been retired for active pursuits.

Mr. Crane was a prominent Democrat, having served a term in the Maryland House of Delegates and served as delegate to conventions on several occasions. He was a member of the board of visitors and governors of Washington College prior to its reorganization, was a member of the board of directors of the Chestertown Bank and a vestryman in Emanuel Protestant Episcopal Church. Mr. Crane was a member of the Masonic order.

He is survived by a widow, who before marriage was a Miss Faithful, of Queen Anne's county, and an adopted daughter, Mrs. Earl Withgott, of Easton.

Funeral service was held from his late home on Wednesday morning at 8 o'clock, conducted by Rev. C. L. Atwater. His remains were then taken to Baltimore, where interment was made in London Park cemetery. The active pall bearers were Eben F. Perkins, Alan A. Harris , J. D. Bacchus, Wm. B. Usilton, S. Scott Beck and Thomas W. Perkins. The Honorary bearers were James W. Chapman, Merrick Clements, Arthur Brice, Charles H. Brice, James T. Dixon, Dr. E. A. Scott, John C. Redmile, James E. Woodall, Jr., also the vestrymen of Emmanuel P. E. Church, and members of the Marvil Package Company. C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Thomas Darrell, a highly respected citizen and successful farmer, died at his home near Massey, Saturday morning, Sept. 12th, of apoplexy, aged 67 years.

Mr. Darrell was a member of one of the oldest families of the state, being a son of the late Henry and Annie Darrell, whose ancestors have lived in this community over two hundred years.

He was a life-long Democrat, a true and loyal friend, a devoted husband and father and his generous nature and many kind acts will long be remembered by his many friends.

He is survived by his wife, formerly Miss Katie Newton, three sons, Herman H., Walter G., William G., and one grandson, Walter G., of Massey; Two sisters, Mrs. Rachel Knotts, Mrs. Jennie Nickerson, and one brother, John, of Delaware.

His funeral was held from his late residence at 2 p. m., Tuesday, Sept. 15th. The Pall-bearers were: G. W. Peacock, J. M. Rowan, J. Johnson, Gove Everett, J. P. Walker and G R. Mocett. Interment in Episcopal Cemetery at Massey, Rev. J. L. Saunders, officiating. John A. Tobin, Undertaker.

Elects Officers

Old Kent Charpter Daughters of the American Revolution has been reorganized for the fall and winter campaign with the election of the following officers: regent, Mrs. William G. Smyth; vice-regent, Mrs. William T. Brown; recording sectary, Miss Mary Knight: corresponding secretary, Mrs. James M. Cain, treasurer, Mrs. George W. Baldwin; registrar, Miss Fannie E. Stuart; chaplain, Miss Katie H. Grier; historian, Miss Sarah E. Stuart; editor, Mrs. Henry H. Klinefelter. The Chapter has recently established a students loan fund for the purpose of assisting worthy students seeking an education at Washington, and Miss Fannie E. Stuart has been placed in charge of the fund. The Chapter has donated to Washington Colege a large bronze tablet upon which is an inscription relative to the connection of Generl George Washington as a member of the Board of Visitors and Governors, and the college authorities have secured from the vicinity of Conowingo, Cecil county a large boulder upon which the tablet will be placed in a conspicuous place on the college campus with appropriate exercises.

Popularity Contest

A popularity contest will be held in connection with the Fireman's Carnival. Those whose names will be voted upon are as follows:

Rebecca Jarrel,l Dorothy Pennington and Susie Smith of Chestertown; Helen Tyler, of Millington; Julia Williams, of Worton; Elizabeth Smith, of Fairlee; Elizabeth Crew, of Betterton.

KENT TO HOLD HORSE SHOW

Will Hold Initial Event on Armistice Day For Benefit of Health Association

Kent county will hold its initial horse show on the farm of Mr. L. W. Skirven near Chestertown, on the afternoon of November 11, Armistice Day, at which time the finest of Kent horses will be brought together and put throgh various tests of running and jumping.

The holding of this show is probably the out come of the wonderful showing made by Kent horses and riders at the Centreville horse show held at Centreville a few weeks ago, when practically all of the cups were brought home by Kent equestrians.

Horses owned by Wilbur Ross Hubbard, J. W. Cowin, Howard Strong, Will French, Will Toulson and Kennard Burk will be among those to participate in the show and no doubt horses from all parts of the County will compete for honors, making the affair a great success.

—Work on the handsome home of Mr. W. P. Newnam on Washington avenue is nearing completion. This residence is quite an addition to the neighborhood.

Mr. Joseph N. Wheatley attended a meeting of the football officials of this state in Baltimore on Tuesday.
