CANNERY BURNED

Fire of mysterious origin broke out about 1 o'clock Monday morning in the store house at the plant of the Kenton Canning Company, one of the largest industries of the kind in that part of Delaware, and before the flames had been subdued, the entire building was burned to the ground and the contents, practically the entire pack of the season, was destroyed. The loss is estimated by the owners to be close to $90,000 destroyed.

A STRANGE INJURY

FATHER OF CHESTERTOWN DRUGGIST IN SERIOUS CONDITION FROM PECULIAR ACCIDENT

Mr. Sterling, who resides in Crisfield, Maryland, and who is the father of Dr. A. L. Sterling, of Chestertown, and Dr. Elmer Sterling, of Church Hill, both of whom conduct drug stores in these towns, is in a most serious conditon at his home from one of the strangest accidents on record.

If seems that Mr. Sterling was in his garden at work when a neighbor threw over the adjoining fence a hatchet that had been borrowed from Mr. Sterling several weeks previous. This hatchet, unfortunately, struck Mr. Sterling in the stomach, inflicting a wound which immediately became serious and has placed him in a most critical position.

Mr. Sterling is 72 years of age and has been in excellent health up to the time of his accident.
