DRILLS

"SUPERIOR" the name that tells the true story when applied to Drills. Years of satisfactory seeding service is the record of the Superior.

Then another important feature is the Superior Service. A stock of repairs that meets most every call, right here at your very door, right ready for you if you have a break down.

If you are considering a new drill it will pay you to consider superior QUALITY and SERVICE.

DISC HARROWS

We have these in several sizes, some that only use two horses. This is the "I H C" lines the harrows that have the magnesia steel bearings, the bearings with the long life.

These harrows are no more Expensive than many lighter makes, but they have a long life.

Spring Tooth Harrows

Runner and Combination both in stock, in both 2 and 3 section. Buy the size that keeps ahead of the Drill. Anything in seeding or tillage machines can be had here. Let us show you our line.

Yours to serve,

Jones & Satterfield,

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Phone 51.

FEED LARRO

It Will Do Away With Surplus Milk.

START NOW

Stock at Chestertown and Worton.

To Increase Your Winter Eggs Use Ros Bud Laying Mash.

Will Develop Your Pullets and Start Early Laying.

P. M. BROOKS,

Chestertown and Worton

Phone 80 Phone 807-5

Have Your Seed Wheat Cleaned.

CULP

Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. CULP.

Phone 5 Chestertown, Md.

The Transcript $1.50 per annum.

LOCAL MATTER

—Keifer pears are bringing 25 cents per basket in Kent.

—The Wesley Chapel festival, held recently, netted $560.81.

—Mr. W. P. Newman's home on the avenue is almost completed.

—Kent county apples are now going to the city market in carloads.

—The vicious deer is still at large in Baker's woods, but is in an enclosure.

—Kent oystermen are not doing much. The prices are low and the market quiet.

—Over two hundred different and distinct articles are manufactured in the town of Easton.

—The St. James M. P. Church supper, advertised for October 23, will be held at Worton Hall.

—All boards have been ordered removed removed from electric light poles by the Town Commissioners.

—After staying at the Chestertown wharf for several months, the floating store has left for other climes.

—The heavy west winds of the week-end greatly handicapped the Chestertown Electric Light company.

—The Circut Court for Kent county will convene next Monday. There are many unimportant cases on the local docket.

—Kent's turkey "crop" is fast getting in shape for the holidays and promises to be a source of considerable profit to Kent county people.

—Congressman Upshaw's lecture on "America's Greatest Battle," which will be held next Wednesday at Chestertown M. E. Church, is attracting considerable attention.

Messrs. Thomas W. Perking, J. Frank Wheatley and J. Raymond Simpers have been appointed members of the auditing committee by the judges of the Circuit Court.

—The Town Relief Society has called a special meeting for next Tuesday evening, October 20th, at 7.30 p. m., at the home of Mrs. H. B. Rote. A large attendance is requested.

—An old time tug-of-war between the Sophomores and the Freshman of the college on Monday resulted in the Freshman being dragged through the old mill stream on Monday last.

—Dr. Perry, of Washington College, will address the Young Men's Club of Christ M. P. Church Thursday evening, Oct. 22, at 8 p. m., subject; "Trip to the Holy Land." The public is cordially invited.

—The one hundred and fiftieth anniversary of the birth of the United States Navy will be celebrated throughout the United States and wherever our Navy's ships may be abroad, on the 27th of October, 1925.

—For the first time since the Civil War there will be no general election in Kent county this year. This is the result of an amendment to the constitution last year. In 1926 every state and county official will be chosen.

—Mr. and Mrs. John Matthews have a lemon tree in the rear of their Cross street home which is bearing lemons of a colossol size. They have also some rare and progrant flowers there which transformes the place into a spot of rare beauty.

—Dr. M. E. Parsons sold this week one of his lots on Philosopher's Terrace to Prof. P. B. Winn. The lot is 94 x 250 feet and adjoins the property of Mr. Walter T. Pippin. This is the third lot sold by Dr. Parsons for residences.

—The Chestertown Literary Club will renew its lecture program on Monday evening, November 2, at 8 p. m., when Mr. A. Hunt Vautier will speak. This speaker is well known because of his excellent addresses delivered here last year. The addresses will be given in the Court House.

—Governor Ritchie has appointed Mr. Bruce Dukes a justice of the peace for the Second Election district with an office in Kennelyville, upon the recommendation of Senator W. B. Copper, to succeed Justice David T. Nickerson, resigned. Mr. Dukes will take charge of the office as soon as his commission arrives.

—"Bolder," for five years one of the fastest and most sensational hunters in the kennels of B. W. Townsend, Centreville, was sold last week for $150 to James Parks, of Parksley, Virginia. "Bolder" is reputed one of the best coon dogs on the Eastern Shore of Maryland. There are but few real coon dogs left in Kent. Messrs. Gilbert and William Hadaway have one of the best.

—Numerous Kent county motorists will be interested in the announcement of Governor Ritchie that the Havre de Grace toll bridge is to be widened to nineteen or twenty feet giving room for two trucks to pass. The expense, which is estimated at about $200,000, is to be paid for from the tolls, and no appropriation will have to be made by the State. The Governor said it was believed that it would postpone the final payment of the bridge only about one year.

JANES M. E. CHURCH, Chestertown

Harvest Home Week, Sunday, Oct. 18 to 25. Week day program Oct. 21, 22, 23. On Sunday pastor will preach at 10.30 and 3.00 p. m. Rev. L. D. Beecham, of Centreville, will preach accompanied by Choir. 8.00 p. m., Harvest Home Concert. You are invited. L. H. McArthur, pastor.

DEATHS

Mrs. Julia A. Pierce, wife of James Wesley Pierce, died at her home, East Neck Island, Saturday, October 10 of heart trouble, age 73 years. Besides her husband she leaves the following children: John Wesley, James Alfred, Clarence, Charlie, George, Morris Pierce, two daughters Mrs. Susie V. Downey, and Mrs. Mamie Goodman, also a sister, Mrs. Della Stevenson and one brother, John Richard Goodman, also eleven grandchildren. Funeral services were held on Tuesday afternoon at 2 at Wesley Chapel Church. Interment in adjoining cemetery, Rev. Mr. Dawson, officiating. The pall bearers were Clarence Pierce, Millard Goodman, Francis Goodman Nelson Culley, Frank Wood, John J. Stevenson; C. L. Dodd, undertaker.

Mrs. Mary A. Matteson, of Brockton, Mass., formerly of Chestertown, died last Friday evening at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Chester Maul, in Millville, N. J. Her body was taken to her former home in Brockton. Mass., for interment. She is survived by one brother, Mr. Frank Willis, one sister Mrs. Ruth Johnson, and two step daughters.

Anna Catherine Dickerson, wife of Benjamin T. Dickerson, and daughter, of Mr. J. W. Krill and Caroline L. Krill died at her home in Broad Neck, Wednesday, October 14, age 36 years. She leaves three children, Bertha Marie Craig, Leona Caroline Craig and brother, George W. Krill, and three brother George W. Krill and three sisters, Mrs. Caroline L. Allen, Mrs. Bessie R. Schrineger, and Mrs. Annie I. Rissett.

Funeral will be held Sunday at 2 p. m., from the home in Broad Neck. Interment, Chester Cemetery. Rev. Mr. Dawson will officiate. The bearers will be John, George and William Dickerson, Alfred Chairs, Medford Jones and Charles M. Vickers. C. L. Dodd, in charge of funeral arragements.

The entire community was shocked to learn of the death of Mr. J. H Warren, who departed this life Oct. 14, 1925. He was born in Caroline county in 1859, coming to this county in 1880 and living in this community until his death. He leaves his widow and one son and a host of friends to mourn his loss. He was an ever faithful, honest and true friend, always ready to lend a helping hand. Funeral services were held Friday afternoon at one o'clock at the M. E. Church, Still Pond, Rev. Shockley officiating, interment in Still Pond cemetery. The bearers were Stanley Matthews, Eugene M. Bonwill, W. H. Bonwill, A. J. Hackett, Charles Hague, Howard Turner. B. R. Fellows, undertaker.

Mrs. Peterson, of Calvert county, passed away after a lingering illness, on Tuesday of this week. She leaves behind her three children, Mrs. Eben F. Perkins of Chestertown, Mrs. Emmet Bryan, of Havre de Grace, and Dr. Peterson, of Washington, D. C.

CHURCH NOTES

(Other Church Notes on Page 7)

Christ M. P. Church Chestertown

N. O. Gibson, minister. Sunday, Oct. 18, Divine Worship and sermon at 11.00 a. m.; Sunday School at 2.30 p. m.; Christian Endeavor at 6.45 p. m. Gospel Song service at sermon at 7.30 p. m.

During the absence of the rector, Rev. C. L. Atwater, who is at the General Convention in New Orleans, Prof. Ford Brown, head of the Dept. of English, St. John's College, will make the address in Emmanuel Church at the eleven o'clock service tomorrow, Oct. 18 .

The By-Kota Club will meet at the home of Miss Ada Schreiber on Monday, Oct. 19th, at 8 p. m., to be entertained by Misses Schreiber, Margaret and Mildred Barwick.

OUR MARYLAND BOYS WIN.

Maryland's youthful team of livestock judges walked away with the championship honors of the 1925 National Dairy Exposition in the judging contest among boys' and girls' clubs of the country, held at Indianapolis, Indiana. According to announcement made Thursday night at the concluding banquet of the club camp. The boys on the Maryland team are Stanley Sutton, of near Chestertown; Arthur Dunnigan, of Pylesville; and Ralph Walker, of Gaithersburg. They rolled up a total score of 3,767 points out of a possible 4,800.

GILL BROS. ICE CREAM

Means Health for the Kiddies

GILL BROS. ICE CREAM is one food that your kiddies may be allowed to indulge in freely. Its nourishing properties mean better health for them.

Tell them to ask for GILL BROS. Ice Cream at the soda fountain when they want soda, Sundae or Cone---then order a brick or two in all the wanted flavor combinations for your home.

GILL BROS.,

Phone 290 Chestertown, Maryland

KENT HORSE SHOW

ARMISTICE DAY NOVEMBER 11

Gentlemen's Riding Clothes

In our effort to keep the men of KENT AND QUEEN ANNES COUNTIES LOOKING THEIR BEST we have not slighted this line of clothing and are prepared to fit all sizes of men and youths in riding pants, leggings and high-top boots of the latest styles.

These garments are on display in various materials to suit most any ta[illegible] and pocket book. See our assortment before you equip [illegible]self for this gala event.

Sweet Orr Riding PANTS

Whipcord, Button Bottom, Double Seat and Knee,

$5.00

Khaki, Lace Bottom, Double Seat and Knee,

$4.00

Corduroy, Lace Bottom, Double Seat and Knee,

$5.00 and $6.00

LEGGINGS

Leather Strap LEGGINGS, all sizes,

$3.00

Leather, Spring at Bottom, Strap Top, Calf Skin,

$5.00

BOOTS & SHOES

FOR THOSE WHO PREFER THE HIGH BOOT FOR RIDING, WE ARE PREPARED TO FIT THEM IN THIS LINE.

VANSANT & NEWSOME

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8223-0786