SHORE WOMEN TO MEET

The Eastern Shore District of the Maryland Federation of Women's Clubs will hold its eighth convention Thursday, October 29th in the Court House at Snow Hill. The delegates and guests upon arrival are to register at the Hotel Purnell, where luncheon tickets may be secured at $1.00. The morning session will open at 11 a. m, the usual business session following, and the address by the President of the Maryland Federation, Mrs. John F. Sippel. At 1 p. m., comes the adjournment to the Hotel Purnell for lunch. The afternoon session opens at 2.15 p. m., with music and election of officers, and the address of Miss Dorothy Adams, representative of the Non-partisan League of Nations, and the report of the resolutions committee with the additional feature of seeing old Snow Hill, a cup of tea at Chanceford, built in 1755 and now the home of Mrs. J. W. Station. The Woman's Club of Worecester Co., whose President Mr. John L. Robins is also the Vice President of the Eastern Shore District will be the Hostess Club, and the interesting program they offer promises an enjoyable day for all who attend.

—The tomato season on the Eastern Shore which has abbout closed, has been the best in point of yield for many years. Mr. J. Hall Denny, near Royal Oak, formerly of Chestertown, had a yield of 11 tons per acre, twice the average yield most seasons. Some growers, however, who failed to contract with canners, depending upon the open market to sell their fruit, made out rather poorly on account of being unable to sell them.

Bake things he likes with FLAVO FLOUR. It's healthful and tissue building. There is more nutrition and a sweeter taste in FLAVO FLOUR. It is made with a new process by the most modern mill in the world. Nature's food values and the delicious flavor of the wheat are not milled out as they are by other methods. FLAVO FLOUR is milled at home from home wheat. It is good. Buy it and patronize Home Industry.
