LOCAL MATTER

—Kents roads are in pretty good shape.

—Many Chestertown residences are being painted.

—Wonderful sunsets are to be seen these fall days.

—Local merchants are receiving their Christmas toys.

—Kent has some exceptionally beautiful fall flowers.

—The fuel question has become quite an acute one in Kent.

—Someone killed two of Mr. Lee Robinson's valuable fox hounds recently.

—It is now unlawful to kill squirrels November 10, the season having closed on October 15.

—Trespass notices are furnished at this office, as are also trespass notices printed in our paper.

—The contract for Centreville's new $50,000 Armory was awarded to George E. Lane, of Queenstown, last week.

—Radio reception is fine these days and local radio dealers are finding ready sales for all the popular makes.

—There is very little hard coal in Chestertown. In a short time there will be nothing but soft coal and hard coal substitutes.

—Fender piles are being driven around Chester River Bridge to protect the structure against the ice the coming winter.

—Halloween Day falls on October 31 this year. Preparations are being made by many to celebrate this event in an appropriate manner.

—Mr. A. M. Culp has purchased of Scott Beck, trustee, the big Clements lot corner Mt. Vernon and Campus aves. Mr. Culp will probably erect some attractive home thereon.

—Mr. Thomas Wroth sold for Mrs. Edward Robinson, the property on Queen St., formerly occupied by Samuel Colgian to Mr. Mark Perkins for $2,500.

—During the recent rains considerable annoyance has been caused by water backing up in front of Lyceum Theatre. However, the sewers soon carry the water away and the annoyance is but temporary.

—The State Game Warden has notified his deputies that a reward of 50 cents per head will be paid for every hawk killed, as they are found to be destructive to partridges and other game birds.

—Officer Samuel E. Cooper is quite a road engineer. He has done excellent work around Chestertown in this capacity during the past years and has recently built a fine road on Calvert street, from Kent to College ave.

—The Rock Hall cannery packed 48,000 cases of tomatoes during the season, while the Fairlee plant packed a total of 32,000. Both canneries could have packed considerably more had they been able to secure the labor.

—The State Department of Health has passed such stringent rules and regulations governing operation of oyster shucking houses that nearly every small dealer has been driven out of business. John Crouch, of Long Cove, is about the only Kent packer who has tried to comply with the law.

—Mr. Wm. G. Gunning, who for 13 years has managed satisfactorily the Boarding Club at Washington College, has resigned on account of poor health and gone to make his home with his son in Atlanta, Ga. Mr. E. L. King, of Baltimore, who lost an arm during the late war, is taking Mr. Gunning's place.

—The American Legion of Elkton, is making plans to hold another Automobile Show in the Elkton Army, during the coming winter. The first show, held last winter, was a big success. The net receipts from the show will be donated towards purchasing an ambulance for Union Hospital, located there.

—Weather prophets sometimes base their predictions on the crop of acorns. If the crop is plentfiul then the weather will be severe. If a light crop then the winter promises to be mild. Authorities state that most oak trees bear acorns but every other year, and when the off year for bearing comes around then a scarcity of acorns is reported and a mild winter predicted.

—Business on Tilghman's Island is booming. Every industry reports good prospects, and improvements are under way in many lines. Possiby the most modern and up-to-date house built recently is the one now nearing completion of Oswald N. Harrison. This building will cost when completed about $12,000, and is one of the finest residences on the island. Everything that can be had in the way of modern conveniences has been provided for.

—Mr. Charles N. Hague, of Lankford, is moving to the Richard Groves property recently purchased by him. Mr. Herbert W. Walbert will occupy the Hague property, while Capt. H. W. Fletcher will tenant the Miss Ida C. Crew farm which Mr. Walbert has occupied as tenant for a number of years past.

—James Hammond, of near Starr, last week while working in the field near his home found an old coin dated 1767, which appeared to be a six cent piece. Many persons in the neighborhood believe the piece to be the old fippenny bit which was used many years ago and was valued at six and one quarter cents.

—Under t[illegible]ersons who have take[illegible]ce in Maryland during [illegible]r and who desire to becom[illegible]s of the State and participate [illegible]ounty, State and Federal elections are required to make a formal declaration of such intention before the clerk of the circuit court in the county in which they reside, and this declaration must be made before November 2, of this year 1925, in order to qualify new residents for registration and the right to vote at the election in 1926 and thereafter.

SHORE EXCEEDS CALIFORNIA

Recently we gave some facts favorable to the shore, using Florida as a comporision. This week we are comparing the shore with California. The article referred to comes from an Easton exchange, and is as follows:

"Talbot county is one of the garden spots of the world, and this is realized better by a native after he leaves for other places and spends several years away. Henry Shreve, three years ago moved to California in one of the most delightful spots of that state. His wife, he says, got homesick for her former friends and he was compelled to bring her back to Easton.

"In talking about his new home Mr. Shreve stated that Talbot county was a most delightful place in which to live. The mild climate of California becomes monotonous, he says. The temperature at Carmer-By-the-Sea does not vary much. The lowest for the present year was 44 in January and the highest was 67 in June. Mr. Shreve says he has seen ice but once in three years he has been in California."

RESOLUTIONS OF RESPECT

WHEREAS, It has pleased Almighty God, in His wise providence, to remove from our midst, our friend and co-laborer, Curtis E. Crane, and

WHEREAS, The said Curtis E. Crane has been a member of our Board of Directors since the organization of the Company, and has by his gentlemanly courtesy so endeared himself to us, and by his loyalty so aided in the success and material advancement of our Company;

THEREFORE BE IT RESOLVED, By the Board of Directors of the Marvil Package Company, that we express for ourselves our deep sense of personal loss of a good friend, for the business the loss of a wise counsellor, and to his bereaved family, our sincere heartfelt sympathy, and

BE IT FURTHER RESOLVED, That a copy of these Resolutions be spread upon the minutes of our Meeting, and a copy also be sent to the family of the deceased.
