GEORGIA CONGRESSMAN PLEASES

LEADER OF DRY FORCES IN CONGRESS ADDRESSES BIG AUDIENCE IN CHESTERTOWN M. E. CHURCH AND MAKES GOOD IMPRESSION

Congressman Upshur, representative of the State of Georgia in Congress, and known as the leader of the prohibition forces in House, addressed a tremendous outpouring of people Wednesday evening in Chestertown M. E. Church, when, in the interest of the Anti-Saloon League of Maryland, he made his well-known address entitled, "America's Greatest Battle."

Not only did Congressman Upshaw speak, but Mr. Crabbe, superintendent of the Anti-Saloon League in Maryland, also made a most logical speech on the subject of law enforcement while introducing the speaker Rev. N. O. Gibson presided over the meeting.

Congressman Upshur's speech was a strong appeal for law enforcement and for the maintenance of the Constitution under all conditions. He was eloquent, forceful, dramatic, a master of rhetoric, and, at times, somewhat clownish. In fact, the latter trait, which developed at times, detracted somewhat from his otherwise masterly effort, which would have been more impressive had this been omitted. Taken as a whole, his speech was the best delivered on this subject heard in Chstertown in many decades, and we doubt if it has ever been surpassed here.

The speaker scored those in the Maryland Legislature, as well as is in Congress, who were giving encouragement to the forces who were attempting to break down the Constitution, and scathingly denounced everything in general that tends to lessen the moral uplift of the youth of the country.

HIS CAVALRY ACTIVE.

Sheen's Cavalry, headed by Lewis B. Sheen, of Fairlee, is making great preparations to take an active part in the Horse Show on November 11.

In preparing for this event the Cavalry, starting today, will drill every Saturday afternoon at 2.30 p. m. Any boy who has a horse and can ride is eligible to join this troup and take part in the maneuvers at the horse show, if he attends the drills at Fairlee on Saturday afternoon. Aside from the fun which the boys have these drills offer excellent training in horsemanship under a capable leader.

THE TRAINING SCHOOL BEGINS

The first annual Standard Training School for Church Workers began in Chestertown Tuesday evening in the Methodist Episcopal Church, and will continue for five successive Tuesday evenings. The school is being conducted under the direction of the Board of Sunday-Schools of the Wilmington Conference with a local board of managers, of which the Rev. Thomas J. Sard is chairman.

More than one hundred young people and a large number of adults from all the churches in the county are enrolled in the various classes. The faculty of instruction includes the Rev. F. A. Lindhorst, director of religious education in the Wilmington Conference; Mrs. Walter E. Gunby, of Dover, Del.; the Rev. E. M. Shockley, pastor of Still Pond Methodist Episcopal Church and the Rev. Dr. Omar E. Jones, superintendent of the Middletown District of the Wilmington Conference.

—The crab season of Kent county, now nearing its end, is about the average of the county in late years.
