WORTON

Mr. Ralph Miller and family, of Kennedyville spent Sunday with his parents Mr. and Mrs. Charles Miller.

Mrs. Preston Crowding spent Wednesday with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. John Hickman, of Betterton.

Mrs. George Ashley and son John, of Rock Hall visited relatives here on Sunday.

The Ladies Aid met at the home of Mrs. William Solloway on Thursday afternoon.

Mrs. Alphonza Rasin, of Chestertown has been spending some time with Mrs. James Matthews.

Quite a few around are improving their property with a fresh coat of paint.

Mrs. Mona Eyster of Montebello Lake is suffering with tonsilitis.

Miss Elizabeth Crowding spent Sunday with Mrs. Harvey Smith.

Miss Lula VanDyke, of Kennedyville is spending the week with her sister Mrs. George T. Williams.

Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Crowding and son, of Townsend visited Mr. and Mrs. Charles Crowding on Sunday.

Captain Charles Jones and family who have been visiting his sisters, Mrs. H. T. Williams and Mrs. Roger Harris left Monday for Georgia.

Lacq HOUSEHOLD LACQUEROID

A Sensational Discovery in Household Finishes

Never before in the history of household finishing has there been a product like Lacq—a finish so beautiful, so durable, and so easy to apply. Lacq is not paint nor varnish, but an entirely new kind of finish, made in all colors for floors, furniture and woodwork, that

Dries in Less than One-Half Hour

Come in and try it yourself.

Yours to serve,

Jones & Satterfield,

CHESTERTOWN, MD.

Phone 51.

FEED LARRO

It Will Do Away With Surplus Milk.

START NOW

Stock at Chestertown and Worton.

To Increase Your Winter Eggs Use Ros Bud Laying Mash.

Will Develop Your Pullets and Start Early Laying.

P. M. BROOKS,

Chestertown and Worton

Phone 80 Phone 807-5

Have Your Seed Wheat Cleaned.

CULP

Lumber

Everything to Build Anything

WORKING PLANS FREE

AT OUR OFFICE

Full Stock Building Material

W. S. & A. M. ULP.

Phone 5 Chestertown, Md.

LOCAL MATTER

—It is Chestnut time, but there are no Chestnuts.

—The ducking season has opened in these waters and many have been killed to date.

—President Coolidge has proclaimed Thursday, November 26, as Thanksgiving Day.

—The Town Relief held a meeting at the home of Mrs. G. C. Rote Thursday evening.

—B. L. Bonnett & Co., are holding their fall festival and sale at their High street store. See adv. on page 2.

—General Felix Agnus, veteran Baltimore publisher, died early Friday at his home in that city at the age of 86.

—Halloween spooks held the upper hand on the streets of Chestertown Saturday night.

—A number of cases of hog cholera are being reported around Still Pond, Crumpton, Fairlee and Coleman's corner.

—Mr. Joseph R. Lambert, has purchased the J. D. Johnson property, 26 acres of land and dwelling, near Pomona.

—Next Wednesday, November 11, being Armistice Day and a legal holiday the banks and other public offices will be closed.

—Every Kent Countian who has a dog is preparing or the opening of the hunting season next Tuesday, November 10.

—Odissias Fournistis, one of the proprietors of the Chestertown Candy Kitchen, was granted his final naturalization papers by Judge Lewin W. Wickes last Friday.

—William Kirschuick, whose home is in the part of Piney Neck known as McKinleyville, last Saturday accidentally shot himself through the upper part of the body with a shot gun.

—In some sections of Kent rats abound in large numbers. Every effort should be made to extermniate rats and mice, which are a menace and an expense.

—Prof. A. Hunt Vantier, of Philadelphia, delivered the first of a series of lectures in the Court House Monday night in the interest of the Ladies Literary Club.

—Messrs. William B. Willis, of Worton Point, and Edmond Hurtt, of near Locust Grove, have both suffered losses by having sheep killed by dogs recently.

—James Cotton, a colored employe of Miller Strong, near Rock Hall, was surprised to find upon awakening recently that his automobile had been set on fire and destroyed.

—Coon hunting, which several years ago was popular in this section, has been revived with the discovery that there are hundreds of coons left in Caroline county.

—Mrs. George Rash, Miss Fannie DeCourse, Mrs. Jacob F. Allen, Mrs. Harry Coleman and Mrs. Alfred Crew have had choice chrysantheums in bloom in their yards for several weeks.

—Quite a number of our townspeople are contemplating the installation of oil-burning devices for the heating of their homes, as the outlook for securing a sufficient supply of coal is not at all encouraging.

—Dr. J. P. Franklin, with the assistance of several local nurses, gave the school children of Chestertown the second anti-toxin treatment against diphtheria Thursday. The third treatment will be given in the near future.

—A great many Kent county farmers are selling young turkeys at fancy prices. Around 60 cents a pound is being paid by buyers. It has been roughly estimated that Kent turkey raisers will receive close to $35,000 for their turkeys this years.

—The State Game Warden has notified his deputies that a reward of 50 cents per head will be paid for every hawk killed, as they are found to be destructive to partridges and other game birds.

—The Fairlee Branch of the Kent County Farm Bureau held their monthly meeting in Fairlee School House Wednesday evening. At this meeting Polk T. Bramble delivered his speech, "The Challenge of Truth."

—Music lovers are promised a real treat Thursday and Friday evenings of next week, when Mr. W. P. Newnam will present a musical concert with the wonderful new Orthophonic Victrola, in connection with the regular program of pictures at the Lyceum Theatre.

—The following new books have been added to the Chestertown Public Library: "High Noon," by Crosbie Garson; "The Great Pandolfo," by Margaret Pedler; "Troubled Waters," by William M. Raine; "Hard Wood," by Arthur Fried; "Emily Climbs," by L. M. Montgomery.

—Mr. J. Waters Russell, formerly of Chestertown, later of Easter, Md., who sometime ago purchased the "Easton Gazette," has sold the same to Mr. Warren F. Brooks, of Philadelphia. During the ownership by Mr. Russell of "The Gazette" he has made a great improvement and increased its circulation considerably.

DEATHS

Albert I. Dugan, formerly of Chestertown, died at his late home in Baltimore, on Monday, November 2nd, of cancer of the stomach, aged 72 years. He leaves besides his widow, who was before marriage, Miss Mary Elizabeth Parsons, of Chestertown, one daughter, Miss Ruby Dugan, at home, and three sons, John, Arnold and Hiram Dugan, all of Baltimore. Funeral was held from his late residence on Thursday afternoon at 2 p. m. Interment in Western cemetery, Baltimore.

William Robert Carver, four-months old son of Mr. and Mrs. Edgar H. Carver, died at his home near St. Paul's Sunday. Funeral services were conducted at the home Tuesday morning at 10 o'clock by Rev. L. C. Randall, of St. James Church. Interment in Wesley Chapel cemetery, Thomas H. Casey in charge.

Mrs. Annie Carback, wife of John Carback, died at her home at Bengies, Baltimore county, Friday, October 30. Mrs. Carback grew up in Chestertown and lived here for years with a former husband Mr. Raisor. Funeral services were held from her late home Sunday afternoon and interment made at Chase.

On October 30, William B. Apsley, beloved husband of Mary Apsley passed away. Funeral services were held from his late residence in Baltimore on Monday of this week. Interment in Louden Park cemetery.

Mrs. Sue Adkinson, beloved wife of William E. Adkinson, died at her late home, near Kennedyville on Tuesday, Nov. 3, aged 42 years. The deceased was a member of Providence M. P. Church near McGinnis Corner for a number of years and afterward joined the Kennedyville M. P. Church. She was loved by a wide circle of friends. Besides her husband, she leaves two daughters, Mrs. Phillip T. Jones and Miss Sue Adkinson, also a mother, Mrs. Mary J. Fowler, two brothers, Robert M. and Thomas B. Subers, three sisters, Mrs. Fred E. Campbell, Mrs. Linwood Davis and Mrs. Morgan Zebley. Funeral was held Friday at 1 p. m. from her late hime, conducted by Revs. J. W. Trout, pastor of Kennedyville M. P. Church and N. O. Gibson, of Christ M. P. Church, Chestertown. The bearers were John T. Charles H. Bernard D., Harry B., Jos. F., and Burris Atkinson. Interment at Crumpton cemetery, C. L. Dodd in charge of funeral arrangements.

Mrs. Laura J. Brice, wife of Mr Samuel Brice, passed away suddenly at her home in Betterton Sunday evening, Nov. 1. Mrs. Brice was a devoted worker and member of the M. E Church of Betterton. She was a loving mother, devoted wife. Her Christian spirit and kind ways endeared her to all her friends and neighbors. She is survived by her husband, three sons, William, Norman and Harry Brice, of Betterton, one daughter, Mrs. Hallie Shipley, of Baltimore; one sister, Mrs Mary Daniels of Wilmington; and five brothers, James of New Jersey William, John and Lemuel of Betterton; Walter of Wilmington. Funeral services were held from her late home Wednesday afternoon at 2 p. m., Rev. Shockley and Rev. Stone officiating Interment in Still Pond cemetery. The bearers were her three sons, William, Norman and Harry Brice; three brothers, James, Walter and John Hickman.

David Sutton died Monday last at his late home in Baltimore, aged 72 years. The funeral was held at Galena on Tuesday, Rev. O. F. Baynard officiating. The bearers were Messrs. Wm. A. Hyland, James Mulford, Harry Todd, G. E. Hicks, Walter Travers and C. L. Dodd. He leaves one brother. Walter Sutton, of Rock Hall. C. L. Dodd undertaker.

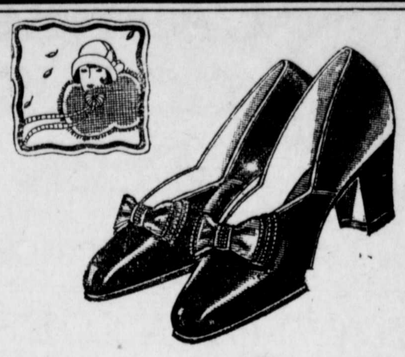

PERSONAL AND SOCIAL

Captain Charles R. Jones, U. S. A and, family who have been stationed in Hawaii for 5 years, is visiting his sisters, Mrs. Harry Williams and Mrs. Rogers Harris. Capt Jones is enroute to Camp Benning, Ga., where he has been ordered.

Mrs. Mimmie A. Mann spent the week-end in the county.

Miss Ann Welch, who is attending school near Philadelphia, spent the past week-end with her parents in Chestertown.

Mrs. Ott, formerly Mrs. Elizabeth Connelly, is the guest of her mother, Mrs. J. Frank Connelly.

Glorious Pumps Fashion's Edict

ENTRANCING new Pumps are daily arriving at the Oriole Store. W've pictured one of the pleasing new creations---in brown and black satin has the call.

The Laurette, shown above, is only

$4.95

ORIOLE SHOE STORE

Chestertown's Exclusive Shoe Store

CHESTERTOWN, MARYLAND

THE BIG EVENT OF THE SEASON.

American LEGION MINSTRELS!

Under the Direction of Parlett Production Co.

THE BEST HOME TALENT SHOW EVER PRESENTED

A LAUGH FROM CURTAIN TO CURTAIN—
ALL THE FAVORITES WILL APPEAR
DON'T MISS THE BIG ACTS

The Temple of Mirth, Melody and Music, The Funny Graveyard Act, The Side-Splitting Wedding Burles ue. The Funny Monologues, Sketches and After-Pieces. The Big Plantation Scene.

Hear Eddie Parlets sing "IDA, SWEET AS APPLE CIDER."
The Song you will hum or whistle for a year.
The Show That Will Put U In Humor.
Get Your Reserved Seats Early.

THREE NIGHTS

NOVEMBER 16, 17, 18

AT EIGHT P. M.

Lyceum Theatre, Chestertown, Md.

SEATS ON SALE AT STAM'S DRUG STORE

THE NEW

STETSON HAT

NEVER have we sold as many hats as this year. Men from the two counties seem to prefer the Stetson. Get yours before stock becomes depleted. A great variety of styles and colors at one low price of seven dollars and fifty cents.

SPECIAL VALUES IN

MEN'S SUITS

If you are the kind of man that wants a good looking suit at a very reasonable price we have a large number of Kirschbaum and Curlee cloths to show you. Every size, every style and every wanted color can be had. The prices are very low. We sell all our suits at prices below that which we are supposed to get. We do it so that large sales will bring us increased profits.

KNICKERS

We have just received a shipment of men's knickers in fancy worsteds and imported materials. They are just the thing to wear when on the auto trip. Every man should have a pair. Come in and make a selection. They are priced very low.

GOLF HOSE TO MATCH

Men's Hose

Dozens of styles of men's hose can be seen in our display. In addition to the conservative blacks and browns, we have a large variety of fancy numbers that are proving so popular with the young fellows.

Vansant & Newsome

Chestertown Maryland

©Maryland State Archives msa_sc3326_scm8223-0811