

AN ENGAGEMENT RING

AND THEN

A WEDDING RING

The Most Precious of All Gifts

ONLY THE BEST WILL DO. The most precious metal with a setting that will stand the wear of generations to come. A gift that when looked back on with fond memories of the past still gleams with the same luster as when first presented to the blushing bride. We have a complete assortment of these diamond rings with the up-to-date settings, and of the most precious metals made special for these sacred occasions.

TO THEIR FRIENDS

On these occasions the friends of the bride and groom express their friendship with gifts of quality that will give the young couple a start in their new home. What can be more appropriate than silverware or any of the many gifts which we have on display on the first and second floors of our store on Cross street.

SPORTS OF WEEK

BIG GAME HERE TODAY WASHINGTON COLLEGE LOSES TEN EASTERN ELEVENS UNDEFEATED—OTHER SPORTING NOTES

Washington College and Mt. St. Marys College—ancient rivals in all branches of sport—will play the annual game today, Saturday, on Washington Field. Both of these teams have had most unfortunate seasons. The game should be a good one.

Ten Eastern football elevens remain undefeated. Only one—Syracuse— retains an untarnished line. Dartmouth and Cornell should furnish real thrills today, while Harvard and Princeton, both defeated, will also meet in their annual battle.

Washington College lost to George Washington Saturday at Washington, D. C. by a score of 28 to 0. Washington's eleven was in the worst condition for years and had five of the regular players in a crippled condition.
