THE TRANSCRIPT

Entered at the Postoffice at Chestertown, Md., as second-class matter.

THE NAVY AND ARMY investigation in Washington, as reported in the daily papers, is very interesting at the present time. We have heard so much recently of governmental investigations and promised investigation. The evidence as brought out in the Mitchell case is as close a view as the public has had for some years into the affairs of the War and Naval departments. We don't believe that the facts as brought out in this investigation are such as the present administration in Washington would want placed before the public.

NEXT THURSDAY in the day set by the President for Thanksgiving Day when all mankind are asked to assemble and give thanks to Almighty God for our creation, preservation and all the blessings of life. Thankful hearts certainly must be ours, if we wish to have happiness in our journeyings here. Thankful for our homes, for our country and its prosperity, for all our blessings which abound everywhere. Every country has seen the necessity for a Thanksgiving Day and has set a time apart for all the people to join in giving thanks. The birds thrill our their morning hymns of praise and the flowers look their prettiest to give others cause for praise. One of our lovliest poems is Adam's hymn of praise where he exhorts each created thing, the sun, the mist, the winds and every living thing to join in praise to their yreat Creator. Let us then be very thankful for all our blessings and share them with others so they may be thankful too.

"THE BANK WHERE YOU FEEL AT HOME."

On Carrying Checks Around

"Have you heard about the trouble Jim Sykes is in, Aunt Emmy?" asked Molly, who dearly loved to talk about her neighbors.

"Why, no," answered Aunt Emmy; "what is it?"

"Well, Aunty, you know how proud he was to get that building job from Mr. Parker. He needed the money so much. When it was finished Mr. Parker gave him a check for $3,000. Of course Jim had obligated himself to pay a lot of that out for materials and things. Well, you know what an old slow poke Jim Sykes is. Instead of taking the check to the bank right away he carried it around in his pocket and then poor Mr. Parker died. Now he must wait until Mr. Parker's estate is settled and that may be a couple of years before he can cash the check. Poor Jim, isn't it a shame?

"It's too bad," agreed Aunt Emmy, "but quite in keeping with most folks' carelessness about money. People should be prompt in depositing checks. Aside from such a serious thing as a death, an undeposited check is a nuisance to lots of people. Banks and business houses keep their books carefully balanced. If at the end of a month a check that has been issued has not been put through for collection it means a lot of unnecessary bookkeeping for the person who issued the check and for the bank.

"Then, too, there is the danger of loss. People often write their names across the back of a check and then carry it around for a day or two before banking it. An endorsed check is as negotiable as money. To be safe always indorse it to your bank. Write 'Pay to the order of ——' then the name of your bank and below that sign your name. That protects the check from being used if it should get out of your hands. But never waste any time about depositing checks you receive.

"Not after what happened to Jim and after hearing you tell me all these things, Aunty!" said Molly. "I'd be scared to keep a check a minute more than necessary."—Anne B. Aymes.

Sincerely yours,

The Third National Bank of Chestertown, Md
